STELLE PILES UP PROBLEMS FOR GREEN TO SOLVE

Buys Cars and Starts to Build Militia.

BY HAL FOUST.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 27.—Gov. John Stelle is developing a military organization, a loyal pay roll, a file of parole and pardon pleas, and a fleet of automobiles for Governor Elect Dwight Green to inherit in six weeks. At a press conference this afternoon, approximately midway in his 100 day administration, Stelle also revealed that the incoming governor will face serious financial problems.

The governor said that an Illinois reserve militia [known as the home guard during the world war] will be rushed into uniforms and provided with arms and equipment so as to be prepared for any emergency when the remaining units of the Illinois National Guard depart for training camps about Jan. 3.

"The state cannot be left without a militia within its borders until Mr. Green takes office," Stelle said. "The statute requires the governor to call for the reserves in any emergency."

Officers to Be Commissioned.

The governor, under the statute, will issue a proclamation that an emergency exists. Then he will appoint a commanding officer and other commissioned officers, Stelle said he doesn't know how big a force will be recruited. A figure of 6,000 has been used in discussions.

"The adjutant general's office will have the setup ready by next week," Stelle said. "I suppose that National Guard uniforms and equipment will be used. The legislature, of course, will have to provide for salaries to be paid for drill duty.

"In April of 1917, I enlisted in the home guards at McLeansboro before entering an officers' training camp. I'm not sure, but I believe those registered for the draft will be eligible for the home guard. But this enlistment will not affect their draft status."

Relief Funds Giving Out.

As for the state's obligations, Stelle said that funds for old age assistance and for relief will be exhausted about January 20 and that the assembly will have to appropriate about $25,000,000 to carry on until the end of the fiscal year on July 1.

As for other appropriations, the governor said he will not know until next week how much remains in the various funds and how much will be left in the treasury to finance the first six months of Green's administration. He is getting fiscal reports from his departments so that work on the next biennial budget can start next week.

Stelle said he will sit with the budgetary commission in preparing its proposals to the legislature for financing the state government for the next two years.

250 New Appointees.

As for patronage, Stelle said he had made changes in about three-fourths of one per cent of the state jobs—about 250 appointments—and that Green probably will make 75 times as many changes.

"It's an American custom," he said, "for a person in high office to surround himself with men who are loyal to him."

As for pardons and paroles, there has been a stream of politicians passing thru the statehouse in the last few weeks seeking clemency from the 100 day governor. Stelle said he has referred all of these pleas to the board of pardons and paroles.

As for automobiles, the highway department, including the state police, is accepting delivery on 20 Nashes and 27 Fords. And for the executive mansion, there are a new Packard and a new Cadillac.

Boulevard to Be Moved to Let a Plane Take Off

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 27 (AP).—A busy boulevard is to be moved 100 yards so the huge new Douglas B-19 bomber—which the company calls the world's largest plane—can take off. Mayor Fletcher Bowron signed the necessary ordinance today. The ordinance provides for condemnation proceedings to relocate Centinela boulevard 100 yards eastward from its present course, which is along the eastern border of Clover field, where the Douglas Aircraft plant is situated. The field runways will be extended.

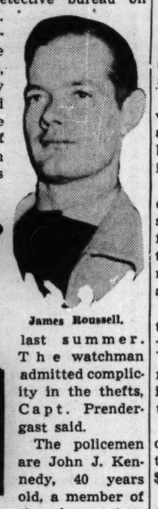
2 Policemen Held in Quiz on Burglaries

Two policemen were locked up last night at the detective bureau on orders of Capt. John Prendergast, chief of the uniformed force, who said they had been accused by a private watchman of participating in three burglaries last summer. The watchman admitted complicity in the thefts, Capt. Prendergast said.



James Roussell.

Anthony J. Crane.

The policemen are John J. Kennedy, 40 years old, a member of the force since Oct. 27, 1922, and Anthony J. Crane, also 40, on the force since Feb. 11, 1929. They denied the watchman's charges. Both were suspended last night by Commissioner Allman pending the investigation.

Capt. Prendergast asserted that all three crimes occurred on nights when Policemen Kennedy and Crane were off duty.

With Protective Patrol.

The watchman who accused them is James Roussell, 21 years old, 1846 Orleans street, who is employed by the Fingerhuth Protective Patrol, Inc., 1837 Ogden avenue.

The burglaries he described took place on the watchman's beat in the Damen avenue and Town Hall districts. Kennedy has been assigned to a squad car in the two districts and Crane has been on uniformed duty in the Damen avenue district.

Roussell and the two policemen were questioned last night by Capt. Prendergast and Assistant State's Attorney Robert Wright.

Capt. Prendergast said Roussell told him a burglar alarm sounded at 3 a. m. on June 24 at the Apex Cigaret Service company, 4220 Lincoln avenue. Roussell said he hurried there, drew his gun, and then was approached by a man in uniform who he said was Crane.

Claims Police Took Cigarets.

"I saw another man inside and I think there was a third man in a waiting car," Capt. Prendergast quoted Roussell as saying. "The man inside was Kennedy, whom I knew. Crane told me they had found the place already burglarized and were just helping themselves. They took cigarets valued at $700.

"Crane told me he would take care of me and a few days later I went to the station to see him. He gave me $25."

Roussell then told, according to Capt. Prendergast, of informing Kennedy and Crane that the Sandra Sales company, 3854 Lincoln avenue, was a likely spot to burglarize. Roussell said he was not present at this burglary, which occurred at 3 a. m. on July 4. The burglars broke a window and took radios valued at $1,200. For this tip, Roussell said, he received $50 from Crane.

Place Robbed Second Time.

On Sept. 9, Capt. Prendergast quoted Roussell as saying, the policemen returned to the Apex company store, broke in, and took cigarets valued at $1,300. This also occurred at 3 a. m.

Roussell said he was off duty that night, and when the burglary report came to the station he went to the scene with police investigators.

"After the third burglary," Capt. Prendergast said, "Roussell apparently was angry because he wasn't paid any more, and he mentioned the burglaries to other policemen. The matter got to my attention, and Monday night Capt. Daniel Lynch of the Damen avenue police station and I picked up Roussell on his beat at Irving Park road and Damen avenue."

The policemen were taken into custody when they appeared as usual for roll call and inspection yesterday morning at the Damen avenue station. Capt. Lynch and Supervising Captain Andrew Barry called them into Lynch's office and later took them to Capt. Prendergast's office.

Kennedy has received six creditable mentions and one raise since he joined the force. He lives at 5061 Newport avenue. Crane lives at 2121 Irving Park road.

ENGLISHMEN TO PAY MILLIONS FOR BANANAS THEY'LL THROW AWAY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 27.—While the British government has decided to stop importing of bananas after Dec. 24 taxpayers will pay 1,000,000 pounds [about $4,000,000], it was revealed tonight, to purchase the banana crop of Jamaica. The bananas will be destroyed because of the shortage of shipping space.

The government's ban on bananas will affect 700 wholesale fruit firms and 6,500 retailers and throw out of business a number of big firms dealing exclusively in bananas.

"We have been told the banana industry in Jamaica will still go on," said the director of a large importing firm, "for the government will buy the whole stock at a cost of about a million pounds yearly and throw it away."

British traders have decided to protest against the ban.

Two Year Old Kidder Has a Day of Sport

Policeman John Weston of the Marquette station balanced his 200 pounds on a rickety chair at the rear of 3147 Lexington street yesterday. His face red with exertion, he peered thru a 6 inch opening in the bathroom window of the Maurice Dunn home. Because of a safety catch, the window would open no farther.

Sheldon Dunn in the bathroom.

"Come on, buddy, please turn that nice little key," the policeman pleaded.

Inside was two year old Sheldon Dunn. He had been in the room with the door locked from the inside for an hour, despite the pleas of his mother, Esther, and the best efforts of Policeman Weston and his partner, George Schulman, to coax him out.

He Teases the Policeman.

The youngster turned the key part of the way.

"Yes, yes, that's it," encouraged Weston.

"No. I won't. I don't wanna!" was Sheldon's reply. He turned the key back to the locked position.

The policeman gave up cajolery and found a fishing pole. He notched the end and resumed his perch. Carefully he extended the pole. It would just reach. He strained . . . slipped. . . .

"Missed," said Sheldon. He giggled.

Sheldon Just Laughed.

The rescuer tried again and again. Little Sheldon enjoyed every minute of it. Finally, the key turned. [Policeman Weston says he doesn't know whether the pole did the trick or whether Sheldon got tired of waiting and turned the key himself.]

Sheldon is a polite youngster, and he thanked the policemen as they left. So did his mother.

Last night Mrs. Dunn said Sheldon was a little tired from laughing.

285 U. S. SHIPS SOLD IN YEAR, 151 TO BRITAIN

Merchant Marine Is Lowest in Years.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Sales of vessels of the merchant fleet during the first year of the European war have left the United States merchant marine at its lowest ebb in recent years, a study of maritime commission records disclosed today.

In the 12 months ended Oct. 25, the commission authorized the sale of 285 vessels of the merchant fleet, representing a total of 1,005,755 gross tons. In addition the commission allowed the transfer of two vessels to Latin American registry, taking them out of the United States merchant marine.

Great Britain, which is now pressing for more of the American merchant fleet to make up for shipping losses suffered in the war, was the principal purchaser of our merchant fleet during the period under study, with a total of 151 vessels, amounting to 474,770 gross tons. These included 113 vessels to the United Kingdom, 35 to Canada, 2 to Newfoundland, and 1 to the Bahamas.

Sales to Various Nations.

The total list of sales was as follows:

	No. of vessels.	Total gross tonnage.
Bahamas	1	45

Britain	113	415,302

Uruguay	1	1,782
Venezuela	5	4,664
Total	285	1,005,755

Decline in Tonnage.

The latest figures available on all classes of vessels of 5 tons and over show a sharp decline in gross tonnage over the last six years and a decline in the number of vessels from the preceding year, altho the number still was somewhat better than in earlier years. Here is the total of registered vessels of 5 tons and over in the United States merchant marine as of June 30:

Year.	No. of vessels.	Gross tonnage.
1940	27,212	14,018,188
1939	27,470	14,631,991
1938	27,155	14,651,365
1937	26,588	14,676,128
1936	25,392	14,496,677
1935	24,919	14,653,756

Figures of later vintage are available on the larger vessels in the merchant fleet—those of 1,000 gross tons and over. These show as of Sept. 30 in each year the following vessels in this category:

Year.	No. of vessels.	Gross tonnage.
1940	1,276	7,553,242
1939	1,350	7,868,518
1938	1,420	8,202,369
1937	1,480	8,460,165

Mission from Britain.

The British now have a special mission from the British ministry of shipping in the United States seeking to negotiate for increased purchases of merchant vessels. Reports from London are that this mission has spent or is prepared to spend 100 million dollars on ships and will double the figure if necessary. But they are interested particularly in acquiring the new, fast C-2 and C-3 types of cargo vessels which the maritime commission has under construction for American use.

These vessels of approximately 10,000 tons have a speed of 15½ knots and are believed capable of outrunning the German U-boats. These ships, in addition to naval vessels, airplanes, munitions, and finance are part of the program for increased aid to Britain which Lord Lothian, the British ambassador, referred to upon his return from London last week.

The British minister of shipping, Ronald Cross, declared yesterday in London that the British shipbuilding program is unable to keep up with losses suffered in the German block-

TELLS SCHEMING FOR SYMPATHY TO AID BRITISH

New York, Nov. 27 [Special].—William Allen White, chairman of the violently interventionist committee to defend America by aiding the allies, putting special emphasis on what he termed one really smart trick, tonight gave his inside version of how the committee organized public opinion in favor of sending American destroyers and flying fortress bombers to Britain.

The occasion for revelation of this inside story by White, editor of the Emporia [Kas.] Gazette, was a meeting at which he accepted the annual merit award of the National Association of Publicity Directors. The citation accorded to Editor White read: "For outstanding service in publicity."

The publicity was the White committee's handling of its all-aid-short-of-war campaign. In this all the devices of opinion molding were used—newspaper advertising, newspaper handouts, radio, and platform speaking.

$225,000 Contributed.

Before telling his story, White for the first time made public mention of the committee's finances. The national organization, he said tonight, has raised $225,000.

Most of this amount, White added, was made up of comparatively small contributions. The biggest donation was $3,000 and the average was about $25, he explained.

"Our first job," White said, "was to send the destroyers to England. We learned there were certain overage destroyers that could easily be spared—150 of them—but we plugged for 50. Taking that number as the goal was 'pure hunch,' but I want to say that we've never had an objective that wasn't approved in advance by the general staffs of the United States army and navy, so that if any one accuses us of trying to strip this country's defenses, he is saying the general staffs are just as unpatriotic as we are."

Pershing Put on Air.

White told how the committee organized 700 branch chapters thruout the country and asked them to get leading middle class people—doctors, lawyers, merchants, and so on, the kind of people congressmen pay attention to—to write letters to the White House and to their representatives in congress.

"We put Gen. Pershing on the air," White said, "but the really smart trick we pulled was that after Lindbergh made his speech we put his mother-in-law [Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow] on the air—and was that a face card? It was!

"She said: 'Telegraph the White House and your congressman!' And the next day, as the telegraph people told us, 15,000 telegrams came tumbling down on Washington, saying, 'Give the destroyers to Great Britain.' They never knew what hit them."

Talks to Candidates.

White said his particular job was to talk to the Presidential candidates. He first saw President Roosevelt.

"I knew he'd ask, 'What's Wendell Willkie going to say about this?' Then I went and talked with Mr. Willkie.

"I told him what was up, what we wanted to do—and he didn't blow up very hard, considering. All summer some of us kept in contact with the President and Mr. Willkie, so that when the job was done it was not made a political issue."

"We were not crusaders," White told his audience. "We were merely organizers of the great majority of American public opinion. We simply gave them the means and the organization for expressing themselves."

White said his committee then "went after the bombers—and the bombers have been going."

NAZIS DEVELOP BUOYS AS RESCUE HUTS FOR FLYERS DOWN AT SEA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—In addition to rescue planes, a novel type of lifesaving apparatus has been introduced by the German air force to rescue flyers in distress at sea.

It consists of a large buoy marked with a red cross. Built something like a telephone booth, the buoy has ropes on the outside to enable the "shipwrecked" flyers to climb up. A circular stairway leads to a space large enough to accommodate four men. It is provided with bunks, blankets, dry clothing, food supplies, water, and cooking utensils as well as a medicine chest, tobacco, and games.

Flyers who reach the buoys use flag and smoke signals to call for help. The buoys are patroled daily and supplies are renewed as often as necessary.

MORE EXECUTED BY IRON GUARD, BERLIN REPORTS

Nation Cut Off from Outside World.

Rumania was cut off from the rest of the world last night after pro-Nazi Iron Guardists earlier in the day had executed 64 political enemies whom they held responsible for the assassination in 1938 of their leader, Corneliu Codreanu, and 13 of his followers.

Communication with Bucharest, the Rumanian capital, was severed at 8:40 o'clock last night, according to a British Broadcasting corporation report picked up in New York City. There was no explanation, a circumstance that heightened the mystery already prevailing about developments in the politically divided Rumanian city.

The official German news agency, DNB, speaking with authority because the Nazis now control Rumania, said in a message from Bucharest that a number of former Rumanian political leaders had been shot yesterday in addition to the 64 already known to have been slain.

State of Anarchy.

Dispatches from Belgrade, Jugo-Slavia, said that Rumania was in a state of almost complete anarchy as an aftermath of the mass execution of men once high in that nation's political councils. The government of Premier Gen. Ion Antonescu was said to have lost virtually all authority.

Reflecting the electric atmosphere of the Balkans after the shootings, leaders of the Jugo-Slavian government were called into extraordinary conference to discuss results of the Bucharest executions.

Bucharest clamped a stringent censorship on news of the slayings immediately after they became known. Last night, however, before communications were severed this censorship was relaxed sufficiently to permit an official announcement to be transmitted to the United States. A story from Budapest gives the first account of how the men emerged from their prison cells and were shot. The two stories:

SLAYERS REBUKED

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Nov. 27 (AP).—Hotheads of Rumania's Iron Guard slew 64, and perhaps more, political prisoners in Bucharest's Jilava prison today in bloody vengeance for the killing of their leader, Corneliu Codreanu, two years ago.

Stern disapproval by both Premier-Dictator Gen. Ion Antonescu and the present Iron Guard leader, Vice Premier Horia Sima, was expressed in a communique which officially announced the unofficial purge.

The communique said that "some political prisoners" were shot dead by "Legionnaires" [Iron Guards] who were exhuming the bodies of Codreanu and 13 of his followers from the prison courtyard where they were buried during the late régime of King Carol.

"Responsible" for Crime.

It said those shot were "considered principally responsible for the crime against Codreanu and other Legionnaires under the last régime." It did not give the number killed or any other details, but unofficial reports said there were 64.

It was reported that Prof. Virgil Madgearu, former minister of finance and veteran of other cabinet posts as a Peasant party leader, had been found slain in the forest near Bucharest.

[Apparently he was one of the purge victims, tho the Bucharest dispatch was silent on this point.]

The affair has its genesis in the Iron Guard's early struggles for power, when, on Nov. 30, 1938, Codreanu and 13 of his imprisoned followers were killed at Jilava. The Carol régime listed their deaths as executions for attempted escape; the Iron Guard says they were strangled without provocation.

Resigns Court Post.

Tonight's government communique said that after the killings this morning, Former Premiers George Tatarescu, Ion Gigurtu, and Constantine Argetoianu and Former War Minister George Ilasievici were placed in protective custody but were released tonight.

GREEKS SMASH ITALIAN LINES IN SOUTH ALBANIA

Reinforcements Fail to Halt Advances.

ATHENS, Nov. 27 (AP).—Italian resistance on the southern sector of the Albanian front, made stubborn by reinforcements of fresh troops and planes sent from Italy, was declared tonight in military dispatches to have been broken after fierce fighting.

The Greeks, said a government spokesman, thus were "advancing in a quite satisfactory manner, mopping up the terrain."

Before the town of Pogradetz, Albania, which lies some 20 miles to the north of the strategic and captured Albanian base of Koritza, the Greeks crushed a "systematically fortified" opposition, he added.

British Planes Help.

"Thanks to British aviation the reinforcements intended to bolster the Italian troops [in that area] have been unable to reach their destination."

Further Greek advances were claimed generally in the northern and central sectors.

A British royal air force communique said "highly successful raids" had been made yesterday on the Albanian port of Valona, on the Adriatic and opposite the port of Otranto, from which Italian troops and supplies presumably had been sent.

The communique said bombs hit a big ship which appeared to be sinking as the planes retired.

Report Italians Hold Lines.

OCHRIDA, Jugo-Slavia [on the Albanian border], Nov. 27 (AP).—Greek troops, attempting a flanking movement on Pogradetz, Albania, were reported pushed back tonight and Italians were said to be holding their lines along the Cerova river, approximately five miles south of the city. The Greeks were reported to have occupied the village of Cerova, south of Pogradetz, and to be digging in along the river.

Greek and British planes bombed the road from Pogradetz to Cerova and the strategic highway from Pogradetz to Elbasan in central Albania. The Italians were reported to have launched a strong counteroffensive south of Koritza.

Italians bombed Greek positions at Muskopole, about 35 miles northwest of Koritza, and Florina, important Greek base about 100 miles back of Koritza. An unconfirmed report here said 1,000 soldiers, mostly Albanians, of the Italian army crossed the Jugo-Slavia border north of Lake Ochrida during the last two days.

Italian Planes Lash Greeks.

ROME, Nov. 27 (AP).—Reforming their own battle lines in Albania, the Italians said today they had resorted to air attacks to break up Greek preparations for further assaults. Italian bombers also raided forts on the Greek island of Corfu, just off the Albanian coast, for the second day in succession, the high command said.

"Intense attacks" were directed at "all" enemy communication lines, it was added. Highway junctions at towns along the Kalamas river valley and elsewhere in Greece and bridges over the river were claimed to have been cut. The airfield at Janina, another Greek town, was attacked.

Greeks Continue to Smash Italian Lines

(Story in adjoining column.)

Greek reports yesterday said their troops had smashed Italian resistance on the south Albanian front, where the defenders had been reinforced by new troops and planes. Captions indicate other developments. Altho Italians bombed Delvino, neither Greek nor Italian communiques mentioned it as having been captured by the Greeks.

Nazis Claim British Lost 1,116 Planes in September

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—The English lost 1,116 planes in September and the Germans only 246, authorized sources asserted today. The German air force was said to have made 812 big raids on the British Isles, including 296 on London and its suburbs, and dropped 10,900 tons of bombs in September.

Last of Navy Families Leave Far East for U. S.

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 27 (AP).—The navy transport Chaumont sailed today for the United States with the last navy families being evacuated from the far east. Fifty passengers were aboard.

ALBANIAN PRINCE DIES IN DRAMATIC FIGHT AT FRONT AGAINST GREEKS

ROME, Nov. 27.—Rrock Doda, an Albanian prince of the Mirdizian klan, has been killed in a dramatic combat on the Greek front, it was announced today. He had volunteered in the Albanian Blackshirt militia and was one of the first of his countrymen to march into Greek territory.

According to newspaper accounts, Prince Doda was recognized by an Albanian exile fighting for the Greeks, who drew attention to him during a hand to hand combat. The Greeks concentrated their attack on him and he was mortally wounded, but as he breathed his last, says the account, he flung a hand grenade which killed the exile who had exposed him.

URUGUAY OFFERS MONTEVIDEO FOR AMERICAN NAVIES

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Nov. 27.—The Uruguayan congress was officially informed this afternoon that the government has offered to place Montevideo at the disposition of the United States and other American nations as a naval base in case a threat of non-American aggression requires measures for joint action to defend the continent. The government policy was approved 53 to 21.

Julio A. Roletti, minister of national defense, told the chamber that the United States has been asked if it was able and on what terms it is willing to supply Uruguay with material and equipment necessary to make Montevideo an efficient naval base.

The chamber recently voted down a motion regarding bases, but the question was brought up again today at the request of President Alfredo Baldomir in an effort to clear up the confusion which has surrounded conversations between the United States and Uruguay over the establishment of naval and air bases.

REPORT CHIAPPE SHOT DOWN ON FLIGHT TO SYRIA

ZURICH, Switzerland, Nov. 27.—An airplane carrying Jean Chiappe to his post as French high commissioner for Syria and Lebanon was shot down today over the northern Mediterranean, reliable advices said today.

Chiappe, once chief of Paris police, was appointed this week, replacing Gabriel Puaux, who, it was understood, is alleged to have administered the area in a manner incompatible with "the spirit of the Vichy régime."

"Free" French forces of Gen. Charles de Gaulle have been reported active in the near east. Gen. Georges Cathroux, former governor-general of French Indo-China, was said to have been named leader there.

Weygand Visits Sultan.

New York, Nov. 27 (AP).—The Dakar, French West African, radio announced tonight that Gen. Maxime Weygand had arrived in Rabat and with the governor- general of French Morocco, had visited the Sultan of Morocco.

FALL FATAL TO BELVIDERE WOMAN.

BIG ITALIAN SEA FORCE CHASED TO BASE, BRITISH SAY

Attack at 'Great Range' Reported by English.

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP).—The British Mediterranean fleet attacked a big Italian force at "extreme range" somewhere in the vicinity of Sicily today, the admiralty announced here, and the Fascists were declared to have fled for their base under pursuit. The official story of the action in the Mediterranean said:

"Information has been received that our naval forces in the Mediterranean made contact shortly before noon today with an Italian force reported to consist of two battleships accompanied by a large force of cruisers and destroyers.

"Immediately on becoming aware of the approach of our forces, the enemy altered course and retired at high speed toward his base. Our forces pursued, and it is known that they engaged the enemy at extreme range."

Intend to Act Quickly.

The fighting took place almost at the same time that informants here were suggesting that Britain intended to exert every effort on the sea and in the air in an effort to smash Italy while her troops are having such hard going with the Greeks in Albania.

In the R. A. F.'s offensive, British bombers were said officially to have sunk a 7,600 ton German tanker this afternoon off the Frisian Islands—which lie in the North sea off the German and Holland coasts—and to have "successfully attacked" a second fuel carrier.

The air ministry said the planes used aerial torpedoes, diving to within a few feet of the sea before releasing them. This mode of attack was similar to that which the British said they used effectively on the Italian fleet in the naval base of Taranto, southern Italy, on Nov. 11.

Losses in Indian Ocean.

But another side of the warfare was reported, too.

In Canberra, Australia, Navy Minister W. M. Hughes disclosed that a raider sank the 8,739 ton British cargo ship Port Brisbane in the Indian ocean five days ago and that 27 survivors had reached an Australian port. The occupants of two other lifeboats, including two women, were reported prisoners aboard the raider.

Hughes said that an empty lifeboat from another British merchantman, the 8,011 ton Maimoa, had been sighted by an Australian warship and that it was concluded her crew was captured by the same raider.

Cargoes Decline in Great Inland Port of Germany

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—The Duisburg-Ruhrort Harbors company in Duisburg, leading German firm in one of the world's largest inland harbors, reported today that the total tonnage handled last year dwindled from 19,510,000 in the preceding year to 15,160,000 tons. This decline is described as a "result of the war."

[Duisburg-Ruhrort has been one of the targets of British bombers.]

FORD WILL TRAIN NAVAL RECRUITS AT ROUGE PLANT

Favors Big Sea Force in Both Oceans.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 27 [Special].—Henry Ford and Rear Admiral John Downes of the 9th naval district today completed plans for the establishment at the Ford plant here of a branch of the Great Lakes Naval Training station.

Ford said that young enlisted men would be sent to the River Rouge plant for three months courses in various mechanical and technical lines and also to continue their academic training.

Four barracks will be erected to house the trainees. The Ford organization's mechanical resources in experts and tools will be made available. There was no statement as to who was supplying funds to build the barracks, but as they will be erected on Ford property it was considered probable that Ford was supplying these funds. The trainees will continue on the navy pay roll.

Begin Courses Jan. 11.

Selected thru qualifying tests at the training station in Great Lakes, Ill., the trainees will start coming to the Ford plant on Jan. 11. When they complete the courses they will go directly to the fleet, Admiral Downes said.

When the program is fully developed it is planned to turn out 330 trained electricians, machinists' mates, Diesel engine operators [for submarine assignments], and others each month. Later courses for aviation metal smiths and aviation machinists' mates are to be added.

"This," said Ford today, "is the best thing I know of that I could do to help the national defense. My interest in the navy is based on the conviction that it is the most vital arm of our national defense. Our protection is the navy's job.

Plenty of Plane Carriers.

"We have two oceans. What we need now is a good navy in each of them, including plenty of airplane carriers."

Ford recalled that during the world war he had built Eagle boat subchasers at the River Rouge plant, sliding the craft from the ways directly in the Rouge river that flows thru the Ford factory grounds.

"Now," he said, "we are building four barracks buildings on the shore of the river to house the young men the navy wants for mechanical and technical work."

Rear Admiral Downes said the navy department was most enthusiastic over the establishment of the training branch at the Ford plant.

"Great for Navy."

"From the chief of operations down," he said, "the plan has been received enthusiastically. We all think that it will not only be a great thing for the navy but for the national defense as well."

Admiral Downes said that in the normal course a naval recruit could enter and complete his course in the Ford training unit in from five and one-half to six months after his enlistment.

None of the trainees will engage in Ford production work and being enlisted men cannot be placed on the Ford pay roll.

Italy to Train Germans to Be Police for Colonies

ROME, Nov. 27.—One hundred and fifty German police officers are coming to Italy for instructions in colonial service to be given in the Police School of Italian Africa at Tivoli. The first 50 officers arrived today. A communique said the Germans are being trained to go to the colonies which will be returned to the Reich after their victory.

BULGARIAN STAND TURNS GERMANY TO JUGO-SLAVIA

Hint Serbs May Make Concessions to Axis.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—New negotiations are being carried on by the Germans with Jugo-Slavia. These negotiations were necessitated when Bulgaria refused to send emissaries to Berlin to indorse the Rome-Berlin-Tokio alliance, as did Hungary, Rumania, and Slovakia last week, and insisted it must have back the eastern provinces it was forced to yield to former Serbia [Jugo-Slavia] after the Balkan wars.

However, both Italy and Germany felt this was not the time to start trying to induce Jugo-Slavia to hand over any territory to Bulgaria, altho Jugo-Slavia was discreetly informed of Bulgaria's demands and hastened to contact the Germans.

For the moment it is said that Jugo-Slavia is considering making big "economic concessions to the axis." But Bulgarian diplomats, it is said, realize Germany would be satisfied with her Jugo-Slav neighbor if Jugo-Slavia decided to indorse the three power pact.

Hungary Warns States Outside Axis.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Nov. 27 (AP).—Hungarian Foreign Minister Count Stephan Csaky indirectly warned the leaders of certain states tonight that they would "regret bitterly if they fail to line up with new order in Europe."

Explaining Hungary's recent diplomatic moves, Casky also told the parliamentary foreign affairs committee that Hungary, by signing the Axis military pact, had assumed some risk but he figured that without risk there is no advancement.

Riot at Zagreb University.

ZAGREB, Jugo-Slavia, Nov. 27 (AP).—Authorities blamed Croat national extremists tonight for rioting at the University of Zagreb in which several students were injured today. The injured included Mladen Smoljan, son of Barisa Smoljan, minister without portfolio and Peasant leader.

A number of arrests was made. The fighting was between Croat Peasant students and nationalists, who barred the entrances to a university building against a Peasant meeting. The Peasants broke in thru the basement. The extremists favor an axis protectorate for Croatia, part of Jugo-Slavia.

Students Demand War.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 27 (AP).—Hundreds of demonstrating university students tonight called for an immediate fight against Greece and Jugo-Slavia for recovery of Macedonia.

ated to try the political prisoners now dead, has resigned his post.

KILLERS WORK SWIFTLY

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Nov. 27 (AP).—Reports filtering thru to Budapest tonight said the execution of 64 political opponents by the Rumanian Iron Guard has caused the mass resignation of Rumanian army officers in protest.

Grim details of the purge were received by telephone via German and Hungarian legations in Bucharest.

Several hundred unidentified Legionnaires drove into the forest next to Jilava prison about 2 a. m. They forced their way into the yard of the prison, overpowered guards, and seized their keys to the cells.

Unlock Victims' Cells.

Moving swiftly and surely, they unlocked the cells one by one, and as prisoners stepped out into the dimly lit corridors they were shot down.

Those reported executed included former Premier Gen. George Argeseanu, Gen. Gabriel Marinescu, former minister of security; Gen. Moruzov, former chief of military intelligence, who was credited with building up the elaborate espionage service of King Carol; Radu Pascu, former president of the Supreme court, and Gen. Bengliu, former police commander.

All those executed were friends of the régime of King Carol and had been in jail awaiting trial since the Iron Guard seized power in September, forced Carol to abdicate, and turned Rumania to an alignment with Germany.

FRANCE BLACKED OUT FOLLOWING BRITISH BOMBING

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VICHY, France, Nov. 27.—Blackout restrictions were enforced generally over France tonight as a result of the bombing of Marseilles on Saturday night by British planes.

The question was posed whether the bombing might not have been deliberately provocative. Some diplomats said British interests would be well served in Africa by goading France into open warfare.

Pierre Laval, vice premier, who conferred last night with Chief of State Henri Philippe Petain and other ministers, has returned to Paris to resume negotiations with the Germans on methods of collaboration.

NAZI BOMBERS MAKE 207TH RAID ON ENGLISH TOWN

LONDON, Nov. 28, Thursday (AP).—Massed German warplanes gave a southwest England town last night and early today its 207th raid since the battle of Britain began. Many incendiary bombs were dropped, but a heavy antiaircraft barrage dulled the edge of the raid and drove many raiders out to sea before they could unload their bombs.

Other raiders let London have a comparatively easy night, and the "raiders passed" signal was sounded before 2 a. m. A new alarm was sounded in London at 6:30 a. m.

During yesterday attack fighter planes, battling the raiders above the southeast coast, shot down 11 of them and turned aside the main force of the Nazis' attacks.

The air ministry reported that heavy bombing attacks were made Tuesday night on armament works at Turin, Italy, and Cologne, Germany. Railways at Berlin, shipping and docks at Rotterdam, Flushing, Antwerp, Calais, and Boulogne, oil targets at Ghent, airdromes on occupied territory and shipping off the Dutch coast also were reported attacked.

Britain Now Is on Its Way to Victory, Air Leader Says

LONDON, Nov. 27.—A belief that Great Britain has "turned a very ugly corner and is now on the way to victory was expressed today by Air Marshal Sir Cyril Newall, newly appointed governor general of New Zealand. Newall, who leaves for his post tomorrow, asserted that "with its forces increasing and the output of its factories progressively getting greater I feel the empire is on its way to victory."

285 U. S. SHIPS SOLD IN A YEAR; BULK TO BRITISH

Merchant Fleet Tonnage Lowest in Years.

ade, and orders placed in the United States for 1941 delivery still will not provide sufficient tonnage.

Big Rush of Orders.

But the American shipbuilders are in a dilemma, too. They have more orders for construction of naval and merchant vessels than they can cope with. They have not only the maritime commission's 10 year building program to handle, but also the two-ocean navy expansion program, which has caused the navy to take over several private shipyards.

Some of the yards have been allowed to deteriorate from idleness since the great shipbuilding era of the world war and these are to be reopened. Maritime commission officials, however, frown upon much expansion in the shipbuilding industry, fearing overexpansion.

Figures on American shipbuilding facilities are regarded as military secrets by the defense officials, but a survey of last July showed only enough ways for construction of 62 vessels at a time. At that time there were 138 naval vessels under construction or under contract, to be augmented by contracts for 200 more later. The maritime commission's building program was begun in 1937, when the first contract was signed.

The status of the program on Oct. 31, 1940, was as follows: 51 vessels delivered, 73 launched, keels laid for 115, and contracts let for 179 additional. The nation has a laid-up fleet of 60 or 65 old passenger and cargo vessels and these are coming back into service.

Navy Buying Vessels.

The navy has needs for a large number of auxiliary vessels and during the last four and a half months has purchased 125 merchant and pleasure boats, including 34 large cargo and passenger vessels of from 6,000 to 15,000 tons. Navy officials say that they are nearing completion of their purchase program of 350,000 tons in auxiliary ships.

Senator Allen J. Ellender [D., La.] revealed after a conference with President Roosevelt today that the President is canvassing the possibility of expanding existing shipbuilding facilities in the south because of congestion in shipbuilding yards elsewhere and to meet the need for new merchant ships. Ellender put in a plug for New Orleans. Additional congressional appropriations would be necessary for this program.

Estimate Losses About Same.

The British are in a better position than they were during the first world war. The latest Lloyd's register of shipping showed that they began this war with 20,910,000 gross tons in merchant vessels of 100 gross tons and over, which compared with 20,424,000 gross tons in 1914 and 17,968,000 gross tons in 1919. Cross said yesterday that average losses this year have been about the same as between 1914 and 1918, altho average weekly losses have jumped to 60,000 tons from 20,000 tons prior to June.

Changes in British Shipping

Comparison of the present tonnage of British merchant shipping with the tonnage at the start of the war. Additions from other countries are indicated, as well as figures for losses. The figures are not official, but are approximations based on British admissions.

Mail from U. S. to Britain Sunk by "Enemy Action"

LONDON, Nov. 27 (AP).—The British postoffice announced today that letter mail from the United States posted between Oct. 17 and 22 had been lost by "enemy action." The announcement referred only to mail carried by ship and not to airmail.

50 MILLIONS SET ASIDE FOR WORK ON 8 ISLE BASES

Sum Will Provide Repair Shops, Fuel Dumps, etc.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Secretary of Navy Frank Knox today announced that President Roosevelt had allotted $50,000,000 for immediate construction work on eight naval and air base sites acquired from Great Britain in exchange for 50 overage American destroyers.

The secretary said he had notified an additional 31,908 naval and marine reserve officers and men that they should prepare themselves for a call to active duty at any moment. He added that additional divisions of organized naval reserves are being called to service from New York and New Jersey for duty with destroyers operating in the vicinity of the Panama canal.

Will Provide Complete Bases.

The $50,000,000 represents half the "blank check" voted Mr. Roosevelt by congress to be expended at his discretion for defense purposes. Knox said this sum will provide for construction of complete bases, including fuel dumps, barracks, anchorages, and repair shops.

He said a new naval district probably will be created for these bases. He intimated that Rear Admiral John W. Greenslade is being considered as commandant. Admiral Greenslade is chairman of the navy board which selected the sites in the British possessions.

The secretary told his press conference that a site in Trinidad has been selected and full approval given by the local authorities. However, he said, final approval has not come thru from London. He said the site is located to the left of the main entrance to the harbor at Port of Spain.

Other Sites Agreed Upon.

Agreement with all interested British authorities on the location of the other base sites had been announced previously. These are in Bermuda, Bahamas, Jamaica, Antigua, St. Lucia, British Guiana, and Newfoundland.

Knox repeated that in case of an emergency, the locations could be used at once. He said surveys still are in progress and that he had no figures on individual costs of construction on the bases.

When completed, the bases will have full facilities for servicing ships of the fleet, as well as airplanes, he emphasized. He said plane facilities will be installed at the actual site of the bases, or nearby.

Work on the base at Placentia Bay in Newfoundland is under way, he reported. Preliminary test borings have been made and a supply ship is standing by with building material.

Knox said that as soon as his office work permits, he will visit the base sites.

NEW CANNON CARRYING PLANE PASSES TEST; HAS 'GREAT ACCURACY'

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27 (AP).—The army reported today that cannon carried by its "Airacobra" pursuit plane had achieved "great accuracy of fire from long ranges" in tests just concluded "with satisfactory results."

Officials said that the 37 mm. cannon and the machine guns of a standard "Airacobra," which had just come off the production line of the Bell Aircraft corporation at Buffalo, N. Y., had been tried out by accelerating normal test procedure.

For more than a week three pilots alternately flew the single engine, single seater plane from the Buffalo airport to a point in Lake Ontario, off Fort Niagara, and fired at targets in the water. In all, 40,000 rounds of machine gun ammunition and 500 rounds of 37 mm. shells were fired.

Report Norwegian Vessel Sunk; Fate of 300 in Doubt

New York, Nov. 27 (AP).—The New York Maritime Register said today that the 1,590 ton Norwegian steamer Prinsesse Rachhild was sunk recently by a mine in English coastal waters with more than 300 persons aboard. The number of casualties was not reported in information received by the Register from London.

Report Only 21 Missing in Refugee Steamer Blast

JERUSALEM, Nov. 27 (AP).—In a revised report on casualties aboard the Jewish refugee steamer Patria, which capsized in Haifa harbor Monday, officials today reported at least 22 persons were dead, 21 missing, and 180 injured. Earlier it had been reported 22 were dead, 254 missing, and 25 seriously injured.

ISSUE OF CREDIT FOR BRITAIN PUT OVER UNTIL 1941

Senate Committee Votes for Delay.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Legislation to permit American financial aid to Great Britain will not be considered at this session of congress, the senate foreign relations committee decided today.

Pending before the committee is a bill sponsored by Senator William H. King [D., Utah] which would repeal the Johnson act forbidding loans to world war debt defaulting nations. After King had urged quick action, Senator Bennett C. Clark [D., Mo.] moved to postpone any decision until next year. It was approved unanimously.

Issue Raised by Envoy.

The question of lifting the ban on credits to Great Britain came to the fore last Saturday when Lord Lothian, the British ambassador, returned from London. He asserted that Britain is coming to the end of her financial resources in the United States.

Senator Walter F. George [D., Ga.], chairman of the foreign relations committee, said that the question of repealing the Johnson act should be studied in conjunction with the question of the amount of British resources in this country. Senator Gerald P. Nye [R., N. D.] is sponsor of a resolution to investigate these resources.

Believes Holdings Still Large.

"I will press for action on my resolution early in the next session," said Nye. "British holdings here have been declared to amount to five or six billions of dollars. I don't think that half measures it."

"My personal view is that aid should be given," commented George, "but it's a technical question as to what kind of aid and how much aid should be given. The extent of the aid is a technical and professional question. The matter of giving aid is one of policy."

FRENCH OFFICERS RETURNED HOME FROM NAZI CAMPS

BERNE, Switzerland, Nov. 27 (AP).—A train carrying 100 French officers, including two generals, and 400 noncommissioned officers, all wounded or sick, entered France by way of Neuchatel today after crossing Switzerland. The men came from German prison camps and hospitals.

Prisoners to Get Gifts.

VICHY, France, Nov. 27. — The French Red Cross today announced it is preparing 110,000 Christmas packages for those among the nearly 2,000,000 war prisoners being held in German camps who will be unable to receive comforts from their relatives. The government also is preparing several trainloads of Christmas cheer.

The newspaper Figaro today said the food of the prisoners consists of coffee for breakfast, thick soup at noon, potatoes and fat in the evening, with about 12½ ounces of bread a day.

Ship Is Blessed

The liner Rio Hudson on ways.

Chester, Pa., Nov. 27 (AP).—In a religious ceremony unique in American shipbuilding annals, the 17,500 ton passenger and cargo liner, Rio Hudson, was launched today at the Sun Shipbuilding & Drydock company.

Dressed in his clerical robes, the Rt. Rev. Francis M. Taitt, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Pennsylvania, blessed the ship in a prayer before it slid down the ways.

THIS IS PAGE FIVE, COLUMN TWO—A PLAY IN MAKING!

Chatterton Stars in It on W-G-N Tonight.

"Page Five, Column Two!"

This is the title of the newspaper play that is to be presented as the headline attraction on W-G-N-Mutual's program, In Chicago Tonight, from 7:30 to 8 o'clock tonight. It purports to chronicle the drama behind just one of the many types of stories which might appear in this position in a newspaper, even as this story appears on page 5, column 2, in THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

Stars Ruth Chatterton.

Ruth Chatterton, favorite of the stage and screen, will be starred in this drama. The story of the play is based on a fanciful newspaper item telling about the death of a woman, one Evelyn Vane, who 20 years earlier had been acquitted of murder. The play re-creates her trial and the subsequent tribulations of herself and daughter, Julia Adams. Miss Chatterton, who is starring in Shaw's "Pygmalion" at the Selwyn theater, will play both mother and daughter.

Miss Chatterton will be supported by an all star cast of W-G-N players including Bret Morrison, Marvin Mueller, Frances Carlon, Tom Post, Les Spears, Helen Behmiller, Herb Butterfield, Willard Waterman, Donna Reade, and Stan Harris.

Producers Author Play.

Ashmead Scott and William A. Bacher, who will produce the show, wrote the play. David Broekman, the Hollywood composer-conductor who has made several musical contributions to W-G-N, wrote the musical score.

Harold Stokes and the W-G-N Dance orchestra will set the scene musically.

Besides the play, In Chicago Tonight will feature Billy Gilbert, movie and vaudeville comedian who is appearing at the State-Lake theater. He will be assisted by Faye MacKenzie, "Miss Hollywood" of the musical revue, "Meet the People," which is having a long run at the Grand. She is his sister-in-law.

ENGLAND ADMITS NAZI RAIDS HURT WAR PRODUCTION

Expects U. S. to Make Up Vital Deficiencies.

BY LARRY RUE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Arthur Greenwood, minister without portfolio, today frankly admitted that it was useless to deny that German raids have interfered with British war production, but asserted this was likely to be compensated by increased assistance from the United States.

Arthur Greenwood.

Greenwood made his statement after considerable dissatisfaction with the government's war effort had been expressed in the house of commons. He admitted war production and shipping construction were not up to expectations because of the difficulties created by the blitzkrieg.

Calls Output "Not Enough."

"Let us admit recent enemy air attacks have retarded our expanding program," he said, after declaring that "in the last 15 months the output of war equipment has more than trebled, the output of some fighting materials has multiplied by four, and the output of shipbuilding has increased more than 50 per cent."

This, however, is not enough, he admitted.

In discussing increased American aid, Greenwood said:

"We are coöperating with the United States in order that our joint needs shall be met with the least possible delay and in order to insure that we shall get that high priority that we undoubtedly need.

"I have made a clean breast of our difficulties to them in order that they could profit by our experience and that, I believe, they are doing. I think that before long. . . . North America will be a second arsenal from which we can obtain increasing supplies to supplement and make good any of our deficiencies."

Admits Heavy Shipping Losses.

The government is confronted with "two serious problems—aerial bombardment and attacks on our shipping," Greenwood explained. In regard to shipping he said, "It is true we have suffered heavily. . . ."

Unless the "best minds in the admiralty and other services have found ways and means to counter the U-boat, aerial, and torpedo menace our plight will become very serious, indeed," he confessed.

Leslie Hore-Belisha, former war minister, attacked the government for the shipping losses and the ministry of labor on production. He cited these figures:

The year before the war United Kingdom shipyards produced only 300,000 tons of mercantile tonnage; for some time Britain has been losing 60,000 tons weekly and, when this figure includes tonnage Britain acquired from her allies, the losses total 90,000 tons weekly, which means an annual rate of loss of 4,680,000 tons. Britain acquired 8,000,000 tons from the Norwegians, Danes, Dutch, Belgians, and Greeks, and within two years this will be dissipated. The war construction program of 1,350,000 tons annually has not been achieved.

Urges: Knock Italy Out of War.

The remedy, he suggested, was "to knock Italy out of the war. The Greeks have paved the way." With this done, he asserted, Britain could "withdraw from the Mediterranean a large proportion of the fleet to protect British shipping."

Hore-Belisha then turned on Minister of Labor Ernest Bevin. He said 839,800 Britons still are unemployed.

Bevin, replying to Hore-Belisha and others who had criticized him for not using his dictatorial powers to solve the labor problem, said he did not want to be a labor dictator, attributing France's collapse greatly to severe decrees which regimented factory workers.

Bevin also announced that before June there would be "another enormous call up" of Britons to the fighting services of men 35 years old and over, and probably up to 45. At present Britain has approximately 2,500,000 men under arms.

JAPAN LAUNCHES TIRADE AGAINST DUTCH E. INDIES

Charge Anti-Japanese Sentiment Found.

TOKIO, Japan, Nov. 28, Thursday (AP).—Japanese newspapers, in remarkably similar phraseology, today reported a sudden burst of anger by the government against the Netherlands East Indies following "discovery" of strong anti-Japanese sentiment there.

The papers said the attitude of the Indies islanders had grown steadily worse since conclusion of the alliance among Japan, Germany, and Italy, and enumerated new incidents. These were said to include beatings of Japanese and defilement of the Japanese flag.

Observers pondered whether this might be the forerunner of stronger economic demands on the East Indies. Observers believed further consolidation of the Japanese position in French Indo-China also to be imminent.

Jap Demands Predicted.

Domei, Japanese news agency, yesterday said Japan soon would make a formal demand on the Indies for apologies and compensation for alleged injuries and affronts to Japanese.

The agency said Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka would call the Netherlands minister, Gen. J. C. Pabst, to the foreign office for this purpose and also would demand guaranties for the future.

[The Japanese have been demanding important economic concessions in the oil and rubber rich Dutch East Indies since the Netherlands was occupied by the Germans. The Dutch Islands, now in a weakened and relatively isolated position, have been called by Japanese leaders part of the "greater east Asia" over which Japan proposes at least an economic leadership.]

Incidents Listed by Japs.

Domei listed the following alleged incidents involving Japanese:

A Dutch policeman assaulted and seriously injured a Japanese resident and his wife while they were being examined at a police station.

[A Batavia dispatch giving the Dutch version said the Japanese and a native Javanese woman were taken to the police station when the man, intoxicated, shoved and cursed a policeman who stopped to question them while on night patrol duty. The dispatch said the Japanese suffered no harm.]

Charge Consulate Aid Seized.

An official of the Japanese consulate at Batavia was taken into custody when he passed the governor general's residence carrying a camera, but was released after police ascertained he had taken no photographs.

A Japanese flag was burned in front of a barber shop in Bandoeng.

Other minor cases of assaults on Japanese by Netherlands soldiers.

Damage to Shipping

Germans yesterday reported two British freighters were set afire off Avonmouth (1), and a merchantman sunk off Falmouth (2). They also claimed that long range guns shelled ships in the harbor of Dover (3) and that two ships were bombed in the Thames estuary (4).

BERLIN, Nov. 27 (AP).—German aerial raiders sank a 7,000 ton convoying vessel and damaged three merchant ships in far ranging attacks around the British Isles yesterday, the high command reported today. Many fires also were reported to have been set by night bombing attacks on Avonmouth, town near heavily bombed Bristol.

Sinking of the convoy vessel was reported in attacks off Falmouth, one of the farthest west of English ports. It was described as an auxiliary cruiser guarding a convoy at the western entrance to the English channel.

The high command added that two medium size merchant ships were damaged by bombs in the Thames estuary, and a small freight vessel was set afire off Avonmouth by airplane cannon—a rare type of attack. Long range naval batteries on the French coast joined in the assaults on British shipping, the high command said, firing upon a group of ships in the harbor of Dover.

CANADA CENSORS U. S.-BOUND MAIL, SAY JAPANESE

None Opened in America, Washington Insists.

New York, Nov. 27 (AP).—The New York office of Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Japanese steamship company, said today that one of its liners, Hikawa Maru, was ordered by Canadian authorities to surrender mail consigned to the United States for censorship when the ship put in at Vancouver, B. C., on Nov. 18.

This was said to be the first application of censorship to mail that normally would be carried on untouched to Seattle, second port of call for the eastbound Japanese vessels.

U. S. Disclaims Responsibility.

The postoffice department at Washington said no mail was being censored after it reached the United States.

This statement was occasioned by the broadcast from Tokio, Japan, today by Domei, Japanese news agency, of a report that United States authorities themselves had begun to censor Japanese mail.

"The Tokio newspaper Asahi reports from New York that United States authorities have begun to censor all mail coming from Japan, including packages and parcels," the broadcast said. "No official comment is yet forthcoming."

Envelopes Slit and Resealed.

The Tokio report apparently was based on an early misunderstanding which assumed that censorship had been applied by United States, not British, authorities. New York representatives of both the Asahi and Domei received letters carried by the Hikawa Maru, the envelopes of which had been slit and resealed with the label, "Examined by censor, No. —."

U. S. AND RUSSIA REVIVE PARLEY IN WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27 (AP).—Negotiations between the United States and soviet Russia were revived today coincident with indications of renewed diplomatic interest here in the far eastern situation.

Constantine Oumansky, soviet ambassador, called on Sumner Welles, undersecretary of state, for the first time since the recent Berlin visit of Soviet Premier Vyacheslav Molotov.

Molotov's talks with Adolf Hitler and other German leaders had caused apprehension here lest there be an important shift in Russian policy in favor of Germany, but evidence of such a change has been lacking since.

Ambassador Oumansky spent an hour and a half with Welles today. There was no official information as to the nature of the talk but it was assumed that it chiefly concerned trade problems.

DENY LANDSLIDES IN NORWAY WERE DUE TO SABOTAGE

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Nov. 27 (AP).—Cloudbursts rather than sabotage caused avalanches and floods in western Norway which demolished houses in several villages between Stavanger and Bergen, the Stockholm newspaper Aftonbladet reported tonight from Oslo.

[An Oslo dispatch via Berlin said about 30 houses were destroyed but no one was killed.]

German Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels will arrive in Oslo tomorrow on an inspection trip, the Stockholm paper Dagens Nyheter said in an Oslo dispatch.

SIX WARSHIPS BOMBED IN ALEXANDRIA RAID, ITALIAN STAFF CLAIMS

ROME, Nov. 27 (AP).—The Italian high command today countered recent British accounts of damage to three Fascist dreadnaughts at Taranto with a claim that Italy's own flyers had hit six warships at Alexandria, Egypt.

"According to reliable information," the communique said, "the air bombardment of Alexandria harbor carried out by our squadrons with heavy caliber bombs Nov. 19 seriously hit six warships, the Suez canal company's repair ship used by the enemy, and flying fields at Heluan and Abu Sceir, with four planes set afire and destroyed on the latter field."

Norse Put Under Liquor Ration: 2 Bottles a Month

OSLO, Norway, Nov. 27 (AP).—Beginning Dec. 2 Norwegians will be limited to a bottle of hard liquor and a bottle of wine per month under a new rationing order. Liquor shops have been closed most of this month to prevent the public from stocking up in anticipation of the partial prohibition.

SAVE? BUT THAT ISN'T PRACTICAL WARD POLITICS!

Aldermen Fight Proposal to Cut Garbage Cost.

Ald. Paul H. Douglas [5th], the reformer of the city council who is also professor of economics at the University of Chicago, had a lesson in practical politics yesterday. His teacher was Ald. J. M. Arvey [24th], chairman of the council finance committee who is generally regarded as one of the most practical of machine politicians.

Douglas had suggested to the committee that the council could save money by reducing the number of garbage collection districts from the present 50 ward system to 20. This constructive suggestion bounced off the brusque retort of Ald. Arvey that aldermen must run for reëlection and ward superintendents—one to supervise garbage collections in each ward—are potent influences in aldermanic reëlections.

$150,000 Saving Envisioned.

"We could save about $150,000 a year that way," Douglas began. "Many of those ward superintendents just sit in their offices and let the clerks do the work anyway."

"I agree with you in theory," said Arvey, "but it settles down to a matter of practical politics.

"Under a dictatorship we wouldn't have to worry about elections, but here we have elections and every alderman wants to be reëlected. To do that he must satisfy his constituents, and the best way is to see they get good garbage collection service.

"Now if I shared a garbage collection district with another ward, that superintendent would be in the middle all the time. In the end we might save a little money, but I doubt that, and, besides, the public would suffer."

"Well, how about this one?" replied Douglas. "I think every alderman should have a paid secretary recognized in the budget."

Strikes a Responsive Chord.

Every member of the committee beamed at that suggestion.

"Today all the secretaries are hidden in the budget, most of them in the water pipe extension department. I happen to have two, and I pay them from my own salary, but I am convinced that secretaries are needed."

"We tried that once but the public didn't go for it," Arvey said.

"The public should be educated. The secretaries could get a modest stipend, about $1,500 a year," Douglas said.

Douglas attacked the fact that in 1940 the city sold $3,100,000 of Cook county judgments at par and did not reduce the unpaid bills by that amount. Arvey explained the money was partially used to reduce the funded debt and to pay salaries.

"We are paying more for goods than private industry pays because of about $10,000,000 in unpaid bills," Douglas said. "That is the most important thing to cut down. Our funded debt interest is not as high as the 10 to 15 per cent markup we pay on purchases."

Douglas also asked the aldermen to consider strengthening the central purchasing plan and to consider a better method of disposing of garbage than thru dumps.

Earlier in the hearing James Bulger, vice president of the Chicago Motor club, supported by representatives of several civic organizations, asked for an increase of 250 traffic policemen. Mrs. Seymour Lewis of the Chicago Woman's Aid told the committee a city ambulance service with 20 ambulances is needed.

Rushes to Father

Countess Barbara Hutton von Haugwitz Reventlow at Atlanta, Ga., airport en route from California to bedside of sick father in South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 27 (AP).—Countess Barbara von Haugwitz Reventlow arrived here this morning to be at the bedside of her father, Franklyn L. Hutton, who is ill at his plantation home. She started from the west coast by airplane, but was grounded by bad weather at Atlanta and made the remainder of the trip by train. At the plantation the condition of Hutton, a retired New York business man, was described as "much better" today.

SUBMIT SUBWAY CAR DESIGN TO COMMERCE BODY

List Improvements Over Present 'L' Cars.

A design for new streamlined, lightweight cars for use in Chicago's subway was submitted yesterday to Roy D. Keehn, chairman of the Illinois Commerce commission, by a joint engineering committee for the city and transit lines.

Chief features would be faster starting and stopping, rubber cushioning in springs and wheels to reduce noise and shock, greater length and width than present cars, reduced weight, and streamlining.

Each Car 90 Feet Long.

The cars, each of three units mounted on four trucks, would be 90 feet long. Present elevated cars are 54 feet long. The new width would be 9 feet 10 inches, or 14 inches more than the present equipment.

Merrill Knox, consulting engineer for the commission and member of the engineering committee, explained that the greater length would make it possible to distribute passengers more evenly than with shorter cars. The added width will give riders more space in the aisles and permit widening of seats 2 or 3 inches, Knox added.

Seating Capacity, 106.

Each car would seat 106 persons, compared with 50 in present cars. It is planned to use one new car to replace two old rapid transit cars under Chicago's proposed modernization program. Replacing of 1,000 present cars is planned under the program.

The new cars wolud weigh 30 per cent less and would accelerate at more than three miles per hour each second, and slowed down by brakes at more than four miles an hour each second. These starting and stopping rates are more than double rates on the present cars and would speed up rapid transit service greatly, Knox said.

Heating would be thermostatically controled and a mechanical ventilating system giving fresh filtered air would be built into the new cars. Three types of braking would be used in conjunction to stop the car. These are dynamic braking, which uses motor power; electric braking, and magnetic track braking.

The cars would be patterned after new equipment used in New York City. Knox said the committee will draw detailed specifications for the Chicago cars and ask manufacturers to submit bids.

N. Y. INDICTS 28 IN $1,000,000 PAVING RACKET

14 Corporations, 14 Men Accused of Fraud.

New York, Nov. 27 [Special].—Investigation of an alleged city-wide paving racket that defrauded the taxpayers of $1,000,000 in four years resulted today in the indictment of 10 individuals and nine corporations in Queens and four individuals and five corporations in Manhattan.

The indictments charge the defendants, who transacted a combined $13,000,000 business, with a misdemeanor in criminally conspiring to monopolize and restrain trade in public construction, to fix paving prices 25 per cent in excess of fair value and to rig bids submitted to the borough presidents' offices.

Among those indicted in Queens county were two of the largest contracting companies in New York City: The William P. McDonald Construction company of Flushing, and the four partners of John Meehan & Sons—Joseph Meehan of Flushing and his three brothers, Andrew, Austin, and James, the latter three from Philadelphia.

The possible bribery of public officials in the operations of the conspiracy was indicated in the Queens indictment, which charged that the conspirators contributed to a "campaign" fund 1 per cent of the face amount of each successful bid submitted to the borough president's office and also contributed to a "promotion" fund 4 per cent of each successful bid submitted to the procurement division of the United States treasury.

Special Prosecutor John Harlan Amen indicated these were "slush funds" and declared the matter will further be investigated by the Queens county grand jury.

Amen pointed out that a similar construction racket uncovered in Brooklyn, in which 11 firms pleaded guilty, had resulted in restitution of $250,000 to city, state and federal agencies. He said he expected another $325,000 would be recovered as a result of the widened inquiry. The total restitution of $575,000, Amen asserted, would make his two year inquiry virtually self-supporting.

DIES ISSUES HUGE BOOK BARING RED SABOTAGE PLOTS

Traces Communist Plans to Foment Civil War.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—A bulky 1,000 page volume—labeled a "red paper"—which presents the evidence gathered by the Dies committee on the activities of communist agents in the United States, was made public today.

Chairman Martin Dies [D., Tex.], who will return to Washington Friday for a conference with the President on the general subject of subversive operations, had intended to release the 656,000 word document for publication in next Sunday's papers. Newspapermen discovered that thru some oversight, the volume had been placed on sale at the government printing office and was available to any citizen who had a dollar to pay for a copy.

Most of the material presented in the report reviews the testimony and exhibits gathered by the committee in the last two years, and has been revealed in the press.

Roosevelt Answers Dies.

Only a few hours earlier, President Roosevelt had struck at Dies with a warning that "premature disclosure" of facts might handicap the government in its prosecution of alien agents. In a telegram answering one in which Dies had urged harmony between the house committee and the government in the investigation of fifth column activities, Mr. Roosevelt declared:

"There can be no constitutional objection to the investigation of such activities and a report thereon and recommendations thereon by a committee of the house of representatives.

"It is, however, clear that the constitution of the United States lodges the executive responsibility in the hands of the President; and that, therefore, continuing administrative duties in relation to illegal activities lie in the executive branch of the government and not in the legislative branch.

Looks Forward to Harmony.

"As soon as this distinction is clearly recognized, there is no reason why there should not be complete harmony between your committee and the executive branch of the government.

"I know that you will also see the point when I suggest that in the regular conduct of administrative work of this nature, carefully laid plans for the obtaining of further information, which may lead to the breaking up of subversive activities, may be severely handicapped or completely destroyed by premature disclosure of facts or by suppositions to the public, or by hasty seizure of evidence which might with a little more patience be obtained in a manner to be admissible in court, or by the giving of immunities to witnesses before congressional committees."

The tone of the President's telegram indicated White House irritation at charges by Dies of "deplorable weakness" in government prosecution of communist agents.

Reveals Sabotage Plots.

The "red paper" compiled by the committee contains hundreds of exhibits, lengthy quotations from witnesses, and similar evidence to show that the communist party is plotting to sabotage national defense.

The committee's release said:

"The paper contains proof of:

"The communist party's supreme loyalty to the soviet union.

"The party's ultimate reliance upon civil war as the weapon by which its ends are to be sought.

"The party's rejection of the democratic parliamentary form of government.

"The party's concentration of its effort in the basic and war industries of the country.

"The party's use of trade unions as schools of communism.

"The party's technique by which 'front' organizations are set up and controled.

"The party's basic doctrine of the dictatorship of the proletariat."

Three men were questioned yesterday in connection with fake nitroglycerin holdup of South Chicago Savings bank. The fake was staged to cover a teller's shortage. Left to right, seated: George Phillips, the robber; Harold Broberg, teller who confessed; Hal Cherne, held as an accomplice, and Assistant State's Attorney Francis McCurrie. Standing, Sergt. William Donovan and Lieut. Kyran Phelan.

TELLER BLAMES 2 PALS IN FAKE HOLDUP OF BANK

Says He Got Little of Missing $10,000.

Harold Broberg, young bank teller who engineered the fake nitroglycerin holdup in October of the South Chicago Savings bank, 2929 East 92d street, was pictured by detectives last night as the enigmatic figure in the crime.

Thru embezzlement and the robbery the bank lost $10,000, but Broberg, so far as police could discover, got little of the money. He doesn't gamble; he drinks a glass of beer now and then; he has visited two night clubs in the last three years, and he leads a normal married life.

Broberg, 26 years old, offered his own explanation. "I've just been simple," he said. "All I got out of it was an occasional $5 and $10."

Who Got the Money?

Under arrest with him are George Phillips, 27, of 6543 Kenwood avenue, and Hal Cherne, 33, of 1410 East 71st place. According to Broberg's story, they got most of the money.

Broberg knew Phillips and Cherne for several years as bank customers. His troubles started, he said, when they interested him in fantastic schemes to make money. He made loans to them without collateral. Sometimes they profited, but most times they didn't. One loan of $4,000 to beat the horses fizzled.

And Broberg was $5,000 short in his accounts. The fake robbery was planned, Phillips acted as the robber and "held up" Broberg on Oct. 18 by threatening to blow up the bank with a bottle of nitroglycerin. The bottle actually contained a harmless fluid. Broberg handed over $5,000 to Phillips, but reported the loss at $10,000 to cover his shortage. Phillips insisted last night that Broberg gave him only $3,400.

Under technical arrest are Phillips' wife, Helen, and her sister, Miss Pearl White, 6653 Maryland avenue, a tavern singer.

Four Numerals Solve Crime.

The case was solved by Lieut. Kyran Phelan and Detectives Tim O'Donnell, Jack Hanrahan, and Edward Egan of the detective bureau, and Policemen William Donovan and Robert Murphy of the Central station.

A principal clew was the faint impression of four numerals—6653—on the robbery note presented by Phillips to Broberg. A few days ago the police learned that Miss White had knowledge of the crime. They also discovered that she was Phillips' sister-in-law and lived at 6653 Maryland avenue. The number of her address jibed with the impressed number on the robbery note. The arrests soon followed.

What happened was that Phillips wrote the note on a tablet in Miss White's room. Earlier she also had written on the tablet, jotting down her address. The pencil carried the impression of the numerals into the underlying sheet. Phillips wrote his note on this sheet.

Broberg's wife, Marguerite, was questioned and released. She was unable to explain her husband's defection. She said he was an honor student at Bowen High school and a captain in the R. O. T. C. Broberg's home is at 8445 Oglesby avenue.

JAIL 5 AURORA STRIKERS AFTER PICKETING RIOT

Five striking employés at the National Brush company plant in Aurora were arrested yesterday on charges of rioting and disorderly conduct growing out of alleged assault and intimidation of workers who sought to go thru a picket line. Those charged with rioting are Ray Christoffell, George Franzen and Larue Kennedy and those charged with disorderly conduct are Earl Baxter and George Oros. They pleaded not guilty and were released on bond for hearing Dec. 4 before Justice of the Peace Walter Nurnberg in Geneva. The strike at the plant has been in progress several weeks with the strikers, led by an American Federation of Labor organizer, demanding a closed shop and 10 per cent pay increases.

8 PLEAD GUILTY OF USING UNION FOR EXTORTION

New York Racketeers to Be Sentenced Later.

New York, Nov. 27 [Special].—Eight men on trial before County Judge Franklin Taylor in Brooklyn on charges of extortion, grand larceny, and conspiracy in connection with a racket union, interrupted their trial today and pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiracy to commit extortion. They were continued on bail pending sentence, no date for which was set.

The defendants, who were associated with local 2 of the Hotel, Restaurant, and Cafeteria Workers' union, which is not affiliated with either the Congress of Industrial Organizations or American Federation of Labor, are: Charles de Luccia, 42 years old, president of local 2; Harry Cohen, vice president; Joseph Rosenberg, 44, secretary; John Oraldno, 37; Daniel Lewis, 37; Rocco Fago, 41; James Stricker, 42, and Benjamin Berkowitz, 28.

Strike Threats Used.

The union operated its extortion scheme against restaurant and cafeteria owners, the prosecution charged, by threat of calling out on strike the members of the organization. It was brought out during trial testimony that numerous owners paid off to the confessed racketeers, without investigating their claims of union strength rather than face probable reprisal via strike or more violent measures.

For Extortion Only.

The union did not collect any dues from employés, some of whom were highly surprised to learn they had been members. Nor did it harass employers with claims for better wages and working conditions, giving them "contracts," but not disturbing their treatment of the workers.

The trial was opened Monday and testimony was started yesterday. Only one state witness had testified today when defense counsel asked for permission to enter the guilty pleas.

Also indicted with the defendants was Joseph La Cava, who was shot to death Sept. 21, 1939, while he and Fago were standing in front of a Lower Manhattan building. Fago was wounded.

ELECTION BOARD TAKES BLAME IN FEW OF ERRORS

Cites Figures on Survey in Six Wards.

County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki reported yesterday that only one out of each 2,272 registered voters was prevented from voting in the Nov. 5 election by errors of the board of election commissioners. He spoke on the basis of a survey covering 251,187 registered voters in six wards and 35 scattered precincts.

"This means that less than one-twentieth of 1 per cent of applicants for ballots were turned down because of mistakes by the election board staff," Judge Jarecki said. "This shows a remarkably high degree of accuracy. Telephone companies consider normal a 'human error' about twice as great."

Douglas before Grand Jury.

The survey results were arrived at by 70 board employés who have been assigned to the task of analyzing "disfranchisements." Figures were made public by Judge Jarecki when he was asked to comment on the appearance of Ald. Paul H. Douglas before the federal grand jury yesterday. Douglas had affidavits which he said indicated that about 700 voters were disfranchised in the 5th ward.

"Actually, 914 persons were refused ballots in the 5th ward, but in only 25 instances was it due to mistakes by our staff," Judge Jarecki said.

He then cited figures for the territory analyzed thus far—the 4th, 5th, 6th, 14th, 20th, 24th wards, and the 35 scattered precincts used in "random checking."

Go to Wrong Polls.

"In this group 3,234 applications for ballots were refused," he said. "Only 110 refusals were caused by our clerical errors. There were 1,696 applications marked 'void' because these people were in the wrong polling places. Incidentally, about 98 per cent of these persons later cast votes in the proper polling places."

There were 898 applicants whose cards were in the "suspended" file because they had failed to respond to suspect notices questioning their right to vote, he said. Also thru some fault of their own, he said, were 530 persons in other classifications.

"The analysis completed for the 5th ward in the latter category shows that 143 out of 914 refusals to issue ballots were because we could find no record of registration," he said. "We went back as far as 1936, checking the master file, precinct binders, suspect files, and printed registration lists.

Address Changes Unrecorded.

"Also in the 5th ward, 91 had failed to record changes of address. A few had responded to suspect notices but had been unable to prove citizenship, or had registered under one given name and attempted to vote under another. In all such cases precinct officials had no choice but to refuse ballots."

All of the election staff's errors were either in posting from master files or in "keying" registration cards to the wrong precincts, Judge Jarecki said.

Aldermen Measure Street in Parking Survey

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

A Fire Hazard

Two city aldermen slushed thru the wet snow yesterday measuring streets to determine which are too narrow for automobile parking. Ald. Dorsey R. Crowe [42d] and Ald. Joseph Gillespie [29th], chairman of the subcommittee on parking, were the intrepid measurers.

Gillespie's committee is attempting to find means of reducing all night parking on narrow streets because of the complaint of fire department officials that it constitutes a fire hazzard. The committee will discuss the problem today.

One of the streets examined was Sullivan, off Sedgwick street. It is 16 feet wide and is believed to be one of the narrowest in the city. Another narrow spot is said to be a section of State street, running two blocks north of Division street. Yesterday's inspection was confined to the 42d ward.

DOUGLAS BEFORE GRAND JURORS IN VOTE FRAUD QUIZ

Ald. Paul H. Douglas [5th] was one of several witnesses who reportedly testified yesterday before the federal grand jury which is investigating alleged vote frauds in the Nov. 5 election.

Before entering the jury room Ald. Douglas, a professor of economics at the University of Chicago, said he was prepared to submit the sworn affidavits of 180 voters in his ward who were disfranchised in the election. Most of them were unable to vote because their duplicate registration cards were not at the polling places, he said. The affidavits were obtained by precinct captains in the ward, and consist of complete statements of all circumstances surrounding the individual cases, Ald. Douglas said.

He estimated that 700 voters in his ward were disfranchised, and that the total for Chicago might run as high as 20,000. Other persons who may be called to testify are Attorney General Elect George F. Barrett, organizer of the Vote Fraud Fighters' alliance, and Judge Edward B. Casey, who was chairman of the vote fraud committee of the Cook county Republican central committee.

MOTORIST GETS 10 DAY TERM AS RECKLESS DRIVER

Joseph Ondra, 3133 Green street, Steger, was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail yesterday by Judge Frank M. Padden in Safety court. Ondra was convicted of reckless driving. His driving privileges were suspended for 60 days.

Darrell Bunch, 4316 North avenue, was fined $100 and costs and his driving privileges were suspended for 60 days for driving while intoxicated.

William Malady, 1923 Roscoe street, got five days for reckless driving and Morris Ostrowski, 4833 South Spaulding avenue, was fined $25 for a similar offense.

KELLY AND JONES WILL CONFER ON TRANSIT FINANCE

Mayor Kelly announced yesterday that he will confer tomorrow in Washington, D. C., with Jesse H. Jones, federal loan administrator, on terms of the proposed loan for Chicago's transit modernization.

Jones announced last week that his staff would reconsider the loan terms in view of the unexpected announcement by the Chicago Motor Coach company that it did not want to sell its properties to the unified transit system seeking the loan.

Last summer Jones offered to make a loan of 53 million dollars subject to conditions to be worked out later.

WOMAN KILLED BY AUTO; SEEK TO IDENTIFY HER

An unidentified woman, about 55 years old, died in the Swedish Covenant hospital last night after being struck by an automobile at Lincoln and Jersey avenues. She was wearing an old black and brown fur coat and had a bandana handkerchief on her head. The driver was Joseph Franz, 902 Dakin street.

John Gerdes, 59 years old, 1919 Cuyler avenue, a janitor, died yesterday in County hospital of injuries suffered when he was struck by a hit and run driver in front of 1904 Diversey parkway on Nov. 3. Gerdes was released from the hospital once but suffered a relapse and returned.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 798 persons had been killed by automobiles in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these, 580 were killed in Chicago, where 21,569 were injured during the same period.

Colosimo's Buys License; Police Let Bar Reopen

City Collector Louis Rixmann issued a permit yesterday to Colosimo's restaurant, 2126 Wabash avenue, to reopen the restaurant's bar. It was closed Tuesday night when Mike Potson, manager of the café, failed to show police a liquor license. The license, costing $400, was purchased yesterday.

FOUND DEAD IN AUTO.

KEEHN SAYS HE IS COMMITTED TO NO TRANSIT PLAN

Green Studies Successor to Ernst Lieberman.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

Aldermanic curiosity over the attitude of Roy D. Keehn, chairman of the Illinois Commerce commission, toward the city's transit plans was answered yesterday. Keehn said he is committed to no plan, project, or proposal, and that his appointment was sponsored by no company, syndicate, group, or political organization.

The other problem concerning Keehn—whether he is to remain at the head of the commerce commission after Dwight H. Green becomes governor on Jan. 13—was not answered. Time alone can tell, the interested were advised.

Green Considers Appointments.

Governor-Elect Green is considering the appointments he must make seven weeks from now, but is not naming his choices if he has made any, he told newspapermen. What and whom he has in mind concerning the commerce commission remained his secret.

The fact that he was seeking a successor to Ernst Lieberman, chief of the Illinois highway department, became know and put an end to rumors that Lieberman is to remain in that important post under Green.

Discussion of those two posts—head of the commerce commission and head of the highway department—has kept Republican patronage seekers on the go in the three weeks since the election. It has been rumored there was an understanding about the two jobs between Gov. Stelle and the man who is to succeed him.

Keehn Named by Stelle.

Stelle named Keehn to the new job on Nov. 6, the day after the election in which Green was the victor over his Democratic opponent, Harry Hershey. Stelle's friends say he did so in the expectation Green would keep Keehn in the office. Stelle was defeated for the Democratic nomination for governor last spring by Hershey.

Chicago's transit plans were an issue in the fall campaign. It was charged by Green's spokesmen that Mayor Kelly's political machine expected to obtain control of the proposed unified transit system, making patronage of the 20,000 jobs. Future operation of the subway was said to hinge on the election, as the commerce commission may have some jurisdiction and its coöperation is regarded as almost essential to the success of the proposed merger. The governor appoints all members of the commission.

No Kelly-Keehn Deal.

Mayor Kelly and Gov. Stelle are reported to have made up their political differences, but it was stated emphatically yesterday that Kelly had no part in obtaining the appointment for Keehn on Nov. 6. Kelly was not consulted, it was agreed, and if he had been he might have opposed the appointment.

It also was stated emphatically that there is no present understanding between Kelly and Green on the transit program, and that Kelly has made no move toward ascertaining Green's views on the subject.

Keehn went to Springfield Nov. 4 after telephoning Green that he had been invited to a conference with Gov. Stelle. He said Stelle believed Green would win the governorship at the next day's election. On Nov. 7 Keehn, according to reports, wrote to Green that he had been offered the chairmanship of the commerce commission by Stelle.

Keehn and Green were and still are warm friends, both asserted. Both come from Ligonier, Ind. Keehn, who is 63, was a successful lawyer and newspaper publisher when Dwight Green, who is now 44, came to him as the son of an old friend. Keehn gave Green a newspaper job as college correspondent while Green studied law and later Keehn took the young lawyer into his office where Green started to practice.

Keehn became major general of the Illinois National Guard in 1927 and held that position until last March when he was forced out by the bedside cabinet of the dying governor, Henry Horner. He and Stelle, who was lieutenant governor, were frends, and Keehn was considered a Democrat. Keehn's term as commerce commission chairman expires with the governor's in January.

Green is said to be seeking an engineer of high repute for Lieberman's place in the highway office. The new governor may ask the Western Society of Engineers or the army engineering corps to recommend some one who would award contracts without fear or favor or regard for past or future political contributions, according to his intimates. They said Green wants no paving or utility or parole scandals, and is taking steps to avoid unwise appointments.

SHERIFF PROBES FAILURE TO SERVE NITTI SUMMONS

Sheriff Thomas J. O'Brien started an inquiry yesterday to learn why Frank [The Enforcer] Nitti had not been served with a summons issued for him in the bartenders' union receivership litigation before Judge Robert Jerome Dunne in Circuit court. Nitti was named a defendant in the lawsuit filed last June.

It is expected that a jury will be completed today in Criminal court before Judge John F. Bolton to try Nitti, Murray Humphreys, Fred Evans, Louis Romano, and Thomas Panton on a criminal conspiracy indictment. They are accused of assuming proprietary rights over the bartenders' union and its $125,000 treasury.

The proceedings before Judge Dunne concern the present management of the union and its treasury under Receiver Roy D. Keehn. A motion is pending before Judge Dunne to dismiss the receiver. In the plea the court was informed that the Nitti gang had abandoned the union and never again would attempt to control its officers. Judge Dunne is to grant a new hearing today.

TEACHER FACING GIRL'S CHARGE IS FIRED FROM JOB

The board of education announced yesterday that Samuel R. H. Reed, 53 years old, colored, a suspended teacher of the Phillips Elementary school, has been discharged for incompetency and inefficiency as a teacher.

A charge of contributing to the delinquency of a colored girl is pending against him in the Domestic Relations court. He has been named in a true bill by the grand jury on a charge of rape, it is reported, and there is a Municipal court charge against him of being the father of an illegitimate child.

On Nov. 13 the school board sat as a trial board on the inefficiency charges, which were brought by Supt. William H. Johnson. The Municipal court charges have been pending since July 8 and Reed was suspended from the school system on Sept. 18.

Held in Burglaries

[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

Helen Roth (left) and Peggy Hurd, both of Chicago, who were arrested in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 27 (AP).—Three men and two women were held today while officers investigated what they termed a burglary enterprise operated on a "chain store" basis.

Detective Earl Bertelson reported $2,000 worth of loot was recovered from a tourist cabin. It included typewriters, small radios, jewelry, suitcases, two pistols, electric razors, clocks, fur coats and musical instruments.

The five gave these names:

Helen M. Roth, 25 years old, Chicago; Peggy Hurd, 19, Chicago; Raymond Curry, 24, Eau Claire, Wis.; Leslie R. McDaniels, 24, Chicago, and Fred Johnson, 25, Chicago.

3 DOWNSTATERS ENTER RACE FOR HOUSE SPEAKER

Contending that the speakership of the Illinois house of representatives should go to a downstater, Representatives Robert J. Branson of Centralia, Oral P. Tuttle of Harrisburg, and Leroy M. Green of Rockford have become candidates for the office, it was learned yesterday.

Green is backing Elmer J. Schnackenberg from Chicago's south side 13th district, for the speakership. Under the constitution the officials elect do not assume office until after the legislature convenes—Jan. 8—and organizes, which includes the selection of a speaker.

Only then may the Nov. 5 vote for state officials be canvassed. Should a few Republicans stay away from the party caucus or should the Republicans be unable to agree on a speaker, a delay in the installations might occur. There are 79 G. O. P. members and 77 votes are required.

Possibility Is Discounted.

However, the possibility of disagreement among the G. O. P. members was discounted by Republican house members in Chicago and by Governor Elect Green, who indicated they were not alarmed.

"I assume," said Green, "that house members elected as Republicans will discharge their duty by attending the party caucus. I intend to be governor for the whole state of Illinois, and I expect house members to organize the house to serve all the people of the state."

It was reported that Schnackenberg already has commitments from more than 60 of the 79 Republican members. In the 1939 session Hugh W. Cross of Jerseyville, elected lieutenant governor Nov. 5, polled 49 votes in the caucus to be elected speaker. Forty votes control the caucus.

It's Custom to Attend.

Within the memory of veteran legislators there has not been a session at which members stayed away from a speaker election caucus. Members absent from such a caucus could hardly hope to receive good committee assignments or rapid action on their favored legislation, it was said.

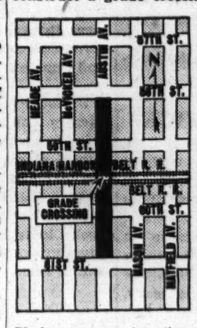
"With a Republican administration, I can see no chance of Republicans staying out of a caucus," said Representative David I. Swanson [R., 11th]. "This certainly is not time for a downstate vs. Chicago complex to affect the Republican party.

"Downstate will have the presiding office in the senate, and probably the offices of president pro tem and majority floor leader as well. I can see no reason why Chicago should not be represented in the house speakership, especially since Schnackenberg is an expert of 20 years service."

ORLO D. KNAPP DIES.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 27 [Special].—Orlo D. Knapp, 43, former Guthrie county auditor for four terms, and more recently membership secretary of the Des Moines Chamber of Commerce, died yesterday.

CITY OBTAINS PERMIT FOR GRADE CROSSING ON SOUTH AUSTIN AVE.



Black area on map is section to be paved.

An order permitting the city to construct a grade crossing in Austin avenue over the tracks of the Indiana Harbor Belt railroad and the Belt Railway company of Chicago was entered by the Illinois Commerce commission yesterday. The tracks run parallel to each other south of 59th street. The commission order directs the city to pave Austin avenue from 58th to 61st streets and install signal lights and bells at an estimated combined cost of $9,000. The railroads are required to maintain the crossing. The city had sought permission to build the crossing at the request of residents in the vicinity.

A VICTORY FOR LAW.

The Walter-Logan bill, having passed the senate at last by a vote of 27 to 25, now goes back to the house for concurrence in minor amendments. The measure will then be placed before President Roosevelt for his signature. Senator Barkley says he will advise Mr. Roosevelt to veto it.

The value and importance of the bill cannot be exaggerated. Its purpose is to reverse the trend toward government on the Nazi model in the United States. The bill does not abolish a single New Deal commission, or regulatory authority, or narrow the field of operations of any of them. It merely subjects them to supervision by the courts in the interest of fair play as between the government and those whose affairs it regulates. The bill has been well described as a measure to regulate the regulators. Without such a check upon them the executive departments and commissions stand above the law and the citizen is reduced to the status of a Nazi subject.

Congress has now done its part to return to Americans the rights of free men. The result was achieved in the face of the most determined opposition by the administration, which interposed one obstacle after another. The bill was passed only because very considerable numbers of the Democrats in both houses had joined the Republicans in the conviction that Mr. Roosevelt's theories of government were imposing an administrative dictatorship.

The legislative history of the bill reflects the determination of the New Dealers to impose their arbitrary rule on the people of this country. The measure was approved by the senate judiciary committee by a vote of 16 to 2 and 16 months ago was passed by the senate as a whole without a dissenting vote. A day or so later, Senator Barkley, as majority leader, asked for reconsideration and the request was granted upon his express promise that the senate would be given an opportunity early in the next session to vote upon it again. Mr. Barkley's word proved to be worthless. It was only on Tuesday of this week that the vote was taken—the vote which he had solemnly pledged would be taken in the first weeks of 1940.

Meanwhile the house had passed the bill in mid-April. The division there was 282 to 97, nearly three to one. The majority was composed of 149 Republicans, 130 Democrats and 3 others. Many more Democrats voted for the bill than against it.

The late Senator Logan of Kentucky, the author of the measure, was a Democrat; so is Representative Francis Walter of Pennsylvania, who sponsored it in the house. Neither the authorship of the bill nor the support it commanded among Democrats in both houses made any difference to Mr. Roosevelt and his burocrats. They fought it with every evasion and with every pressure they could bring to bear. They were determined to permit no checks upon arbitrary government. They want to rule this country without regard for individual rights and fair play.

THE A. F. OF L. DUCKS THE GANGSTER ISSUE

The American Federation of Labor has fired the opening gun of its war on racketeers and gangsters in labor ranks, with the resounding crash of a popgun.

When a pussyfooting resolutions committee had finished with the proposal of David Dubinsky that the labor movement do something to police its own ranks, the resolution emerged as a recommendation that the international unions belonging to the A. F. of L. amend their constitutions to provide discipline for their erring officers.

Since the racketeers control a number of the international unions, this is equivalent to inviting them to commit hara-kiri. In the event that they failed to do so, the A. F. of L. has instructed its executive council to use moral suasion. Nothing more. Just moral suasion. The George Scalises, Willie Bioffs, Mike Carrozzos, and others of their type have just as high a regard for moral suasion as a hog has for algebra.

Today or tomorrow the federation convention will hold its annual election of officers. One of the officers up for reëlection is George Browne, head of the stage hands union and 12th vice president of the A. F. of L. Browne is one of the members of the executive council who are supposed to exercise moral suasion on erring unions. His own union is controled by the most notorious crew of gangsters yet uncovered in the A. F. of L. ranks, and Browne is the sponsor and pal of these gangsters.

If there were the least bit of sincerity in the federation's pious denunciation of gangster influences, the convention would refuse to reëlect Browne. There is no question here of interference with the autonomy of a member organization. His post is the direct gift of the convention delegates.

The A. F. of L. branch of the labor movement has had its chance to do something effective about racketeers in its midst, and has declined the opportunity. If labor will not clean its own house, congress should undertake the job, for the protection of honest union members and the general public.

There are now pending in congress amendments to the national labor relations act. To those amendments should be added another, refusing the designation of a labor organization entitled to the privileges of the act to any union which fails to make and enforce strict provisions for honest, secret elections of local and international officers, and for strict accounting of all union funds, whether held by local unions or national organizations.

These two provisions would inflict no hardship on the decent unions which are a majority in the A. F. of L. Most of them observe such rules already, to a greater or lesser degree. They would, however, go a long way toward helping the union members now being exploited by gangsters to throw off their oppressors.

THE DRAFT IN PRACTICE.

United States Senator Edwin Johnson of Colorado thinks the draft is a 5 billion dollar mistake. Mr. Johnson, a Democrat, says conscription will provide "little or no defense." It will contribute scarcely at all to the strengthening of the navy, the air force, or the motorized units because "it requires three years of intense application today to learn to pilot a bomber or pursuit ship, five years to become an expert gunner, and many, many years to become a valuable seaman." The year of training which the conscripts will receive will be sufficient only to make foot soldiers of them and "you cannot stop a 20 ton tank moving 60 miles an hour with a bayonet nor bring down a bomber five miles in the air with a Springfield rifle."

There may be some exaggeration in this picture but, we suspect, not much. It is a fact that congress and the country were stampeded into the conscription law without considering it on its merits. The President, in his capacity as manager of the nation's foreign relations, cried that we were in deadly peril of attack; in his capacity as commander in chief he said he must have the draft to avert the danger. He got the law and it served him well in the election by heightening the sense of emergency and crisis which he required if he were to win the third term.

Now the draft has been instituted, and after all the shouting that every moment counts only a few thousand men have been summoned to the colors. Tens of millions of dollars are being spent in building makeshift barracks to receive 800,000 men some time. Meanwhile a whole generation of young men is disadvantaged. The fortunate ones are those who have been called to the colors. When their year is completed they can expect to resume their callings and can hope to get ahead. The rest are out of luck. They don't know when or if they will be called, and present and prospective employers are equally in the dark. In the circumstances, the young men are handicapped in getting jobs and even more seriously handicapped in the struggle for promotion to better jobs. Employers are naturally reluctant to give positions of responsibility to men who at any moment may be called away.

Some dissatisfaction is reported from the camps to which the drafted men have been sent. Complaints have been heard regarding food and other conditions of army life, complaints which would not have arisen if the volunteer system had been retained. Men who volunteer for army service do so in the expectation of discomfort and hardship and accept them as incidents of their chosen occupation.

The principle of universal military training is sound, but what we have in this country today is something very different. It is not universal in any reasonable meaning of the word. A few men out of 10 million are conscripted. The country today is in great need of a highly mechanized army, capable of defeating any attempt at invasion, and that means a professional army recruited by long-term enlistment. What we are getting or rather what we may get in a couple of years is a fairly large army of half-trained troops, inadequately armed. To get this second-rate force we are imposing needless hardship on a whole generation and at the same time impeding production by taking men away from jobs they know. Perhaps, also, we are encouraging the people of this country to think that they have an irresistible military machine which can clean up any enemy, anywhere, in a couple of weeks.

This country has need of a stronger army. Our requirements could have been met more fully and at much less expense by stimulating regular enlistments [thru higher pay, if that was necessary] and by expanding military training activities in the secondary schools and colleges. At only negligible cost, the youth of the country while in school can be drilled in the fundamentals. Behind a regular establishment strong enough to hold off an invader for a considerable time, the boys who had been trained in the schools could be mobilized for war, if the necessity arose. Not the least unfortunate aspect of the conscription law is that many of the non-commissioned officers who were assigned to the schools and were experienced in the work have now been withdrawn.

Editorial of the Day

MOLINE'S VIGILANTES.

[Kansas City Star.]

Our favorite news story of the day concerns the embattled citizens of Moline, Kas., who swarmed from their homes and offices to frustrate a bank robbery, capture the robbers, and return the looted cash.

Moline is a quiet cattle town in the Flint hills of Elk county, not far from the Oklahoma border. Tuesday morning two young men held up the bank, and were proceeding to loot it efficiently when the town's fire alarm went off, due to a device of warning in the bank, which registered in the telephone office.

Out poured the citizens of Moline—and proof that the old west isn't dead is contained in the fact that most of them had rifles, shotguns, or revolvers in their hands. The bandits tried to escape, but the "vigilantes" were too fast on the trigger. Printers, bankers, utility employés, drugstoré clerks joined in the chase. A tire was shot off the car of the bandits, and the robbers were arrested.

It was a little less than fifty years ago when the Dalton boys rode into Moline's near neighbor, Coffeyville, on a bank robbing errand. They were considerably perforated with bullet holes, and most of them died; one went to the penitentiary. Earlier the businessmen of Northfield, Minn., similarly upset the bank robbing plans of the James and Younger gang, and filled some of the bandits with lead.

Moline's vigilante uprising was just as efficacious, just as prompt, and less messy than either of these. The bandits were captured without being killed, and Moline has joined the category of western towns that know how to take care of themselves even in a split-second emergency.

One of the sensational revelations of the war is that the Irish have a navy. Just like the Italians.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may. Reg. U.S. Pat. Office

AUTHOR! AUTHOR! AUTHOR!

We thought that all the authors in this erstwhile literary capital of the nation [see the works of H. L. Mencken, circa 1922] had departed for Hollywood until we ran into a soirée of the Society of Midland Authors the other night. There were dozens of them, including the inevitable consorts. This coterie was founded by Hamlin Garland and Chatfield Taylor about 1910.

* * *

Ernest Hemingway might be added to Chicago's literary sons if anybody knew anything about his Oak Park boyhood. An editor came to us the other day in search of the Hemingway tradition, and we told him to hire a detective. He has never written a line that suggests the Chicago scene, and the world knows him as a modernist who broke loose in the late 1920s, when American literature seemed to center at Harry's New York bar, in Paris.

* * *

Frank Norris was another major novelist who grew up here only to become a part of the San Francisco literary tradition. Yet he used the Chicago scene; see his novel of roaring speculation on the Board of Trade called "The Pit."

* * *

Carl Van Vechten, who once led the vanguard of sophistication but who seems to have withdrawn into the silence of a photographer's dark room, fluttered in Chicago newspaper work for a year or two after he was graduated with the class of 1903 at the U. of C. Then he migrated to become the perfect New Yorker. He inherited a large share of his elder brother's fortune, accumulated as a Chicago banker.

Franklin P. Adams, veteran New York columnist and present pundit on the "Information, Please" radio program, started his writing career as a Line o' Type or Two contributor.

ZEUS AWAKES.

Behold! Upon his hill the king-god stirs,
Rubs from his eyes the centuries of sleep,
And from his throne, searching for altar fires
To bear him essence of the roasting heap
Of meats and golden fruits perfumed with wine,
He leans and looks and chokes on acrid smoke;
"Athena! Ares! Gods of field and vine!
Our people must not die! Awake! Awake!"
And in the north the men fight bravely on;
Who hoped at first but for Thermopylae
Now see the rout, another Marathon
With the invader turning toward the sea.
From mountain cave a pipe spreads panic, chill;
O men of Greece! Your gods must love you still

The Duke Hopes They Choke.

As far as I'm concerned, tha next time Mah Fren switches Thanksgiving day he can shoot it into Feb. 29th. Last Thursday my holiday started at 11 o'clock p. m. which was tha time when tha last relation pulled his freight out of our commissary. It gets my nanny tha way most spongers hand you a thank you for a swell time by saying, "We insist you come over soon and spend a full day with us." I'll be damned if any one of them ever specified just what date. How tha mama ever cood get mixed up with that zoo is beyond me. She's got more ants than a picnic grove and more uncles than So. State and S. Clark St. put together, and their kids are so well behaved that if one of my dogs would of bit off a chunk of their rear ends tha holiday wood of been a grand success.

One old buzzard starts hinting that on acct. of his asthma he hates to take tha bus home and it wood be nice if they had a car. If he thought I was gonna drive him, he shood consult an alienist. Just to rub it in a bit, I asked him if he ever tried wearin a gas mask on tha bus. When tha turkey platter got around to me, I had a very nice selection to choose from, that is if ya like tha neck, wings, gizzard, and a hunk of skin.

One grafter slips me a cupple winks before we set down, then whispers that a shot wood go big before we et. Well I had a pint hidden, but I figgered I'd need it thru tha day ta keep from goin nutz. So as far as I'm concerned, he's on the wagon from now until. Helpin tha mama washing tha dishes wasn't quite so tough cause those starving Armenians did a pretty good job moppin up plates with hunks of white bread.

Next year there's gonna be a sign on our front door reading, "Gone to Lunch." I just sent in a quiz for a certain radio program an I'm betting 100 to one it cant be answered. Listen closely, you can have years to answer. Duke Bakrak.

The Archaeology of Theater Curtains.

Max of the Second Gallery may have liked to dwell on Riley's lines on the curtain of the old Illinois theater [Nov. 25]. I preferred to read those of Gov. Richard J. Oglesby:

"Aye, the corn, the royal corn, within whose yellow hearts there is health and strength for all the nations."

These lines were part of an address delivered before the Fellowship club on the occasion of Harvest home on Sept. 9, 1892. A Looper.

[Verified by the public library. Max of the Second Gallery must have been thinking of another curtain. The verses he quoted, beginning "O dreamer of the days," were certainly in some Chicago theater.]

* * *

The speech by Gov. Oglesby from which the "royal corn" lines were taken also contained this remark:

"Talk about the Democrats running this country! Why, it is all the Republicans can do to run it!" Pete of the Pit.

"MY BABY HAS SWALLOWED A PIN."

WHEN the year old baby begins to get about under his own power—he is exposed to all sorts of hazards. Bumps and falls are to be expected. By experience he learns that a table is harder than a pillow. Of all his senses, that of taste is dominant, and everything that looks attractive is placed within the mouth. Occasionally such articles are swallowed. As soon as the circumstance is known there is usually great alarm within the household. The doctor is called or the tot is rushed to a hospital. Panic on the part of the parents increases the difficulties in managing the situation.

Let us assume that something has been gulped. What happens? Vomiting is the most common symptom. It is proper to state here that no drug should be administered to empty the stomach as the substance may be lodged in the gullet [the tube that leads to the gastric pouch]. Next in importance comes abdominal pain or a sore throat. This latter manifestation may arise because some well meaning neighbor or friend has thrust his finger into the oral cavity in an effort to remove the obstruction.

Pins are the most frequent offenders—the straight, safety, bobby, and button varieties. Cases have been observed in which several straight pins—one after another—have been bolted. In a recent résumé, C. J. Delaney states that one of his patients had "consumed" a lead pencil nearly four inches in length. Of his 41 victims none needed operation. This seems rather unusual inasmuch as open safety pins were included in the list. It demonstrates, however, the adaptability of the digestive tract.

Thirty-seven little ones exhibited no complications. Three developed inflammation within the throat with fever, and one case suffered bleeding from the rectum following the passage of a Red Cross button with the fastener attached.

According to the author cited, the best treatment is watchful waiting, together with repeated X-ray pictures to determine the progress of the foreign body. By and large, all of his glittering array of objects—which covered, in addition, keys, screws, and tacks—were expelled within four and one-half days. In a single instance, however, two bobby pins required a month for discharge.

No cathartics were given and the diet was about the same as would be ordinarily employed. Barium—which was used to facilitate the X-ray examinations—seemed to aid the procedure. The report in question frowns upon surgery as "seldom necessary." Altho the procedure is rarely demanded, we know that the stomach can be opened with safety and the indigestible materials removed.

In handling these patients the chief requisite is the exercise of patience. Naturally the child is kept quiet, altho some activity is not discouraged. Curiously enough the favorite age group is between one and three, altho youngsters of 12 and 13 are not immune.

Parents can begin to teach their offspring early that the mouth is made for food and perhaps a toothbrush—but nothing else—not even fingers. The safest plan is not to allow small articles to lie within reach, chiefly those that can possibly pass down the esophagus.

While all of the cases in this series resulted happily—with no serious aftereffects — all may not do so. There were no objects that were pointed on both ends, such as toothpicks or needles. With this type, the outcome may not be so favorable. At any rate there is little reason for hysteria.

HOSPITAL FOR CHECKUP.

D. G. writes: Why do most physicians advise their patients to enter a hospital when a thoro examination is requested?

REPLY.

So as to overlook no organ or function of the body. This means a complete inventory. Few offices are sufficiently well equipped or provided with adequate personnel. The plan saves much time and many return visits.

DONT FORGET THE BIRDS.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Now that winter is approaching we should remember our bird friends who stay with us all winter. These birds depend upon thoughtful people for a living. DRAFTED FOR OVERSEAS?

Chicago, Nov. 25.—According to the adjutant general's report of Nov. 1, 1939, there were 532,406 trained men immediately available for army service. Why did not the administration in Washington outfit these half a million army men with mechanized equipment for national defense, instead of suppiying a belligerent with army rifles, cannon, munitions, tanks, part of our air force, the flying fortresses; the secret bomb sight, and part of our navy? The reason is—they wanted to pass the unconstitutional conscription act so that a belligerent could also be supplied with our MEN and, according to the latest reports, LOANS.

Mothers of America, your boys are being drafted for the blood business overseas! Are we going to allow ourselves to be perpetually on the sucker list? WILLIAM D. WEBBER.
Ex A. E. F.-er.

DAYS OF UNCLE SHYLOCK.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—I have written to Chairman May of the house military affairs committee: "Will Rogers wrote in 1926 that 'there is only one way we could be in worse with Europeans, and that is to have helped them out in two wars instead of one.

"Those were the days of 'Uncle Shylock,' remember? The comedian was referring to the time when Americans were as welcome as rent collectors.'

"But perhaps you aren't an American, or you wouldn't be advocating the repeal of the Johnson act."

FLOWER SHOPS; LABOR LAW.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Why do retail flower shops not come under the interstate labor law? They advertise, "We express flowers by rail and air" to any of the neighboring states and to any part of the world. Does this not come under interstate commerce?

From where I live I can look into a flower shop and sometimes see these poor men working all night long and seven days a week.

I wonder just how they get around Mr. Durkin? AN INTERESTED CITIZEN.

ART HAS ITS LIMITS.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—I listened to the University of Chicago Round Table Sunday, on which no less an authority on "art" than our esteemed first lady was a prominent speaker. I saw the exhibition of "art" at the Chicago Art institute. The idea was brought out during the discussion at the Round Table that anything was "art" that expressed the individual and his personality whether it be painting, sculpture, music, entertainment, or the design of a modern kitchen. To all of which I wholeheartedly agree—with reservations.

To get recognition for the design of a modern kitchen, years must be spent in preparation, including education and practical experience. The same holds true with the artistic design of any mechanical device or tool. First principles of this design must be harmony and correct proportion. If the painting and sculpture on display at the Art institute express the mind and personality of the so-called artists then harmony of color and sense of proportion never existed in their minds and, therefore, never could be expressed.

I contend that to receive the recognition of having a painting displayed at the Art institute, merit must be recognized and these abortive attempts to express something that never existed must be weeded out before that recognition is given. Many really artistic and well executed paintings and sculptures are in the Art institute, so why defile this beautiful place with this trash? Why clutter up the place with such sordid and uninteresting subjects? Children and young people go there to learn to appreciate art. Is this what we want them to learn as art?

The WPA art projects are good to bring out artistic talent, but why not a clearing house to weed out this trash before it reaches the Art institute?

LIGHTS FOR CHRISTMAS TIME.

Waukegan, Ill., Nov. 25.—It won't be long before Christmas is here and it's not too soon to start making our plans. I think one thing we should all make it a point to do is string up more colored lights this year than ever. These lights give cheer in the darkened night and this is one time when we need all the cheer and courage we can get. A blaze of lights in every home will serve as a symbol that one democracy has not been blacked out; that there is one country where there is still "peace on earth, good will to men." ONE AMERICAN.

OLD OVERCOATS!

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Won't some of the Tribune readers be good fellows and send your old men's overcoats out to the Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium for the men patients who don't have any? Such generosity will make your holiday season a merrier one. BETTY SUMMER.

IN THE STAGE HANDS' UNION.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Referring to Grant Johnson's letter regarding the unseen stage employés who make it possible for the audience to enjoy a smooth running performance, I heartily agree.

Where he tries to make light of the charge of racketeering in the union, I heartily disagree. It is true that there are wonderful mechanics in the business, and also that there are good men employed on the stage, but an organization is judged by its leaders, and the leaders of local No. 2 of the I. A. T. S. E. are not as pure as the driven snow.

Death assessments are collected from the membership, but the death benefits are not paid to the beneficiaries. A benefit ball is given every year, for whose benefit? There is no sick benefit fund. Members must "kick back" part of their salaries for which no receipt is issued. Where does it go? This, in addition to paying their union dues. Why are permit men permitted to work when card men are idle? Why does it cost a card man more money to work than it does a non-card man? Where did Willie Bioff come from and have you or any one you know in the craft ever worked on a stage with him?

Praise for the stage employés, yes, but condonement of the mismanagement of their union, never. ANOTHER MEMBER.

2. The length of the standard railroad tie is 7½ feet 8 feet 8½ feet 9 feet.

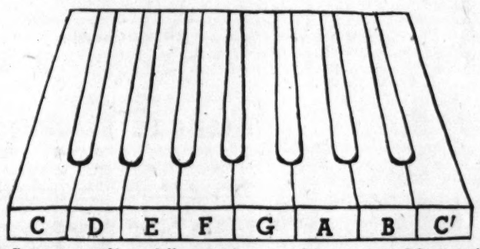
6. This problem today is a test of your observation. Whether or not you can play the piano, you have all seen piano keyboards many times. In the drawing below I have represented an octave of the white keys, beginning with middle C. Between each pair of white keys I have designated a space for a black key. With your pencil or pen, fill in all the black keys that should appear on the octave of white keys. You deserve 3 points credit if you can tell how many black keys should be present, and an extra 2 points for filling in the proper black keys.



Score yourself as follows: 0-2, poor; 3-6, average; 7-8, superior; 9-10, very superior. [Note—The last question counts five points.]

RESCUE VESSEL REACHES SHIP AT MERCY OF GALE

Another Steamer Sends S O S; Abandoned.

Thomaston, Me., Nov. 27 (AP).—The British ship Urla reached the side of the storm-lashed disabled Greek steamer Eugena Cambanis, 125 miles southeast of St. Johns, N. F., late today, according to messages intercepted by Mackay radio.

Meanwhile, radio stations failed to pick up word of the Canadian ship Lisieux, which reported at 6:22 a. m. that the crew was taking to lifeboats The Lisieux was several hundred miles away from the Cambanis, 400 miles northeast of St. Johns. An earlier message said the crew was abandoning ship.

The Norwegian steamer Bernhard, reported at latitude 47.37 north, longitude 48.08 west, radioed she would reach the Canadian vessel in about four hours.

Mackay received the Canadian's S. O. S.

The Cambanis, which sent out an S. O. S. yesterday, reported today that she was drifting with the wind and sea. Stoke hole, engines, and other parts of the ship were full of water. She had lost the foremast, one lifeboat, and some lumber cargo. The Cambanis said there was "still a gale storm."

MISS MILDRED WELLS.

A suit for $25,000 damages, charging assault and seduction, was filed yesterday in the Superior court in behalf of Miss Mildred Wells, 27 years old, of the Eastgate hotel, against Raebern H. Post, also 27, of 28 North La Grange road, La Grange, a gas manufacturer.

The bill, drawn by Attorney Benjamin H. Ehrlich, asserts that Miss Wells entered Post's employment as a housekeeper last March 15, and that 10 days later he forced her into an illicit relationship. Miss Wells charges that thereafter he introduced her as his wife to relatives.

On Nov. 15, it is alleged, Post beat and ejected her from his home. She returned for her clothes that same day, she says, and another fight resulted. La Grange police took both of them to the station where, according to the bill, Post beat her again.

Caution:-Mind readers at work

We'd like to be able to use a sign like that.

Things would be simpler all around if we could gaze into a crystal ball and tell you, for sure, what kind of beer you like best. We can't do that, but YOU CAN!

Anyway, it isn't our business to tell you what you like—that's for you to determine. The best we can do is suggest that you sample a LOT of different brews—and include Chicago's Own Monarch in your research.

After that you're "on your own." Stick to any beer that really "hits you where you live." But be sure to try Monarch—then

Let your taste decide

Remember—there is no finer beer made than the beer brewed right here in Chicago. Be loyal to your own community.

VIRGINIA KEEPS G.O.P. IMPOTENT BY INTIMIDATION

Poll Tax, Prison Threat Disfranchise Negroes.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—To suppress the traditionally Republican Negro vote in the south the Democrats rely not only upon the disfranchisement provisions of the state constitutions but upon intimidation.

Few Negroes are able to pass the literacy tests as administered by the Democratic election registrars, but few Negroes ever apply for registration. It has been made known to them in unmistakable manner that life will be made extremely unpleasant for them if they attempt to vote.

In the Virginia convention that framed the state constitution of 1901 it was admitted that the purpose of the suffrage tests provided was not only disfranchisement but intimidation of the Negro. The chairman of the committee that framed the test told the convention that it was not ideal.

No Friendship Expected.

"But it would not be frank of me," he went on, "if I did not say that I do not expect it to be administered with any degree of friendship by the white man to the suffrage of the black man. I expect the examination with which the black man will be confronted to be inspired with the same spirit that inspires every man in this convention.

"We do not come here prompted by an impartial purpose in reference to Negro suffrage. . . . Again I expect this clause to be efficient because it will act 'in terrorem' on the Negro race. They believe that they will have a hostile examination put upon them by the white man, and they will not apply for registration."

It was then suggested that the plan provided for disfranchisement of the Negro by "fraud and discrimination." The author of the provision, Carter Glass, now senator from Virginia, responded:

"By fraud, no; by discrimination, yes. But it will be discrimination within the letter of the law. Discrimination! Why, that is precisely what we propose; that exactly is what this convention was elected for—to discriminate to the very extremity of permissible action under the limitations of the federal constitution, with a view to the elimination of every Negro voter who can be gotten rid of legally."

Give "Understanding" Test.

The Glass plan of disfranchisement is still the law in Virginia. It imposes a poll tax of $1.50 a year which must be paid by the voter for three years preceding the election, and must have been paid in full six months before the election date. It imposes a complicated literacy test.

The applicant must answer any and all questions affecting his qualifications, on oath, the answers to be made a part of the registration record. This provision is employed as an "understanding test." For perjury in the registration oath the penalty is imprisonment from 1 to 10 years or a fine not exceeding $1,000 or both. These provisions have proved sufficiently horrendous to deter most Negroes from attempting to register.

Trick Question Used.

The purpose of the expired understanding test is now served by that provision of the Virginia constitution requiring an applicant for registration to "answer on oath any and all questions affecting his qualifications." Under this clause a Negro is asked: "who is an elector?" "who is disqualified from voting?" or "can a minor hold office in Virginia?" If the applicant should answer the last question in the negative, and nearly every one has, he is informed that he has failed to qualify, because a person need be only 18 years old to hold the office of notary public in Virginia.

In Florida the poll tax was repealed in 1937, but intimidation is widely practiced by Democratic registrars to hold down the colored vote. The applicant for registration must swear to his age, residence, and noncriminality. The penalty for perjury is imprisonment up to 20 years. Warned of this penalty the average Negro would rather not vote than risk a charge of perjury based on an incorrect answer to the questions of the registrars.

Crop Show Queen

MISS DORTHA MARTZ.

Garrett, Ind., Nov. 27 [Special].—Miss Dortha Martz, 17 years old, of Ashley, was chosen queen of the 11th annual Indiana Muck Crops show, now in session here. Miss Martz is a brunette and a senior in high school, and lives on a farm. She has been active in 4-H club work, is a junior leader, won second place in the 4-H club dress revue at the 1940 Indiana State Fair, and is alternate for the national dress revue at the 4-H club congress in Chicago in December.

MRS. LANSKOP'S MENTAL ILLNESS TOLD BY DOCTOR

Dr. Vincent P. Carroll, an osteopath of Laguna Beach, Cal., testifying yesterday before Judge John J. Lupe, said that Mrs. Magdalen Friend Lanskop was insane shortly after her divorce from Dr. Emanuel Friend, noted Chicago physician, who is now dead. He said he attended her from 1934 thru 1938.

Dr. Vincent P. Carroll.

Mrs. Lanskop is seeking a widow's share, or half, of the $2,000,000 estate left by Dr. Friend. The issue is whether she was insane late in 1933 when he divorced her. Mrs. Lanskop contends she was and that thus, under Illinois law, the divorce is void. If the decree is set aside on this plea the effect will be to make her Dr. Friend's legal widow even tho she married George Lanskop, a Laguna Beach gardener, after the divorce. Mrs. Lanskop contends she still was of unsound mind when she married Lanskop and that this marriage also is void.

Questioned by Attorney Floyd Lanham, Dr. Carroll described what he called certain eccentricities on Mrs. Lanskop's part. She occasionally displayed a persecution complex, he testified, and complained of pains for which he found no cause. She continually referred to Dr. Friend as "her husband" after her marriage to Lanskop, he asserted. He stated that Mrs. Lanskop has now recovered.

DOOMED SLAYER OF GIRL, 8, ASKS REVIEW OF TRIAL

Robert Schroeder, sentenced to die in the electric chair Dec. 13 for the murder of an 8 year old girl, appealed yesterday to the Illinois Supreme court for a stay of execution and review of his trial. The court meets Dec. 3 for the December term. Schroeder, a janitor, beat Maizie Smith to death in a basement at 2850 North Central avenue last July 17. Physicians said she also had been raped.

Oyster Bags a Duck, Then a Witness Bags 'Em Both

Berlin, Md., Nov. 27 (AP).—Harold W. Webb witnessed this one: A wild duck dived into Johnson's bay, seeking food. Its bill went smack into an open oyster and the shell clamped around the duck's bill. Its head held under water by the oyster, the duck drowned. Webb brought back the duck with the oyster on its bill as evidence.

P. S.—The oyster died, too.

TOP-NOTCH YOUTH OF 44 STATES TO MEET AT SHOW

1,500 Will Compete in 4-H Congress.

Some youngsters collect phonograph records. Others save stamps. Some make model airplanes. And others—at least 1,380,000—grow superior crops, raise prize specimens of sheep, cattle, and barrows, put up fruit preserves, or bake toothsome apple pies.

Those last named are farm boys and girls from 44 states, Canada, and Hawaii, 1,500 of whom are descending on Chicago this week for the 17th annual national 4-H club congress to be held concurrently with the International Live Stock exposition. The home of the exposition, starting Saturday and continuing for eight days, will be the International amphitheater in the Union stockyards.

Compete in Many Events.

These 4-H youngsters are themselves prize specimens of young America. They represent the cream of the membership of the organization, having gained their laurels as winners of local and sectional 4-H contests in the last year.

For the duration of the exposition, most of the 4-H members will enter their jars of fruit preserves, their pet sheep and calves in special competition for junior exhibitors. But many others—recalling perhaps that five times during the last 11 years the grand champion steer of the show has come from the junior ranks—will be competing in the senior classes for prizes totaling $100,000 and innumerable trophies and ribbons.

The first of the club activities is scheduled for opening day. More than 400 4-H delegates will exhibit 583 beeves, lambs, and pigs in the junior live stock feeding contests in their section of the amphitheater.

Other Features of Program.

On Monday, they will be guests at the 23d annual party given by Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of Wilson & Co., in the Medinah temple. There, college scholarships will be awarded the three winners of the national 4-H animal contest and three winners of the junior live stock feeding contest.

During the rest of the week, these representatives of the 4-H tradition will compete daily in special junior events—displays of home furnishings, exhibits of homemade clothing, judging of home economics exhibits, meat, poultry, and crop judgings.

There will be other scholarship awards, too, for the best cooks, those with the finest achievement records, and for the healthiest and most outstanding 4-H representatives.

The name "4-H club" was applied in the early 1900's and signifies heart, hand, head, and health.

It takes Wallop to make a Champ

YOU don't have to be a sports fan to get this:

You've got to have what it takes if you hope to be a standout in this man's country!

Lots of men—and lots of cars—have looked the part and talked the part—but just weren't there when the chips were down.

That's why you find Buick has dodged special devices and short-cuts in its great 1941 line of cars.

That's why we went right to the heart of the matter—and packed a bigger-than-ever wallop in that husky Dynaflash power plant.

It's that wallop that's making Buick the value champion all over the country today.

The wallop that lets you travel farther on every gallon of gas—as much as 10% to 15% more miles on each gallon!

The wallop that swings you up the hills without ever touching the gearshift, that lets you throttle down in traffic to creep-speed, then lift away again still in high.

The wallop that shoots you off like a flash, pulls you through tough going with "so-what" indifference, makes every steady, silken mile a thrill to be remembered.

It's an exclusively Buick wallop—the wallop of FIREBALL design and Compound Carburetion, available in no other car on the market!

And if you think we're kidding about what these two things do, we're ready to show you with cold-turkey demonstration any time you say.

How about giving that Buick dealer of yours a ring—right now—today?

HERE'S MODERN ECONOMY

You can see how Compound Carburetion steps up miles-per-gallon in this chart. It shows the mileage at 50 miles an hour for our 1937 SPECIAL, our 1939 SPECIAL and the 1941 SPECIAL with Compound Carburetion.

THE FIREBALL DOES IT!

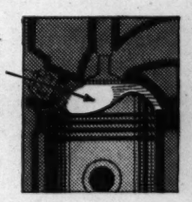
Modern gasolines have high octane ratings to permit higher compressions without "ping." Note how this piston, which can be used only in valve-in-head engines, rolls the fuel charge into the shape of a flattened ball that centers around the new, smaller, racing-car type spark plug. Fired at its very heart, this more highly compressed fuel lets go with such full-forced, "ping-free" wallop that any gasoline of 75 octane rating (now available at standard-fuel prices) may be used in the 115-hp. engine. Any fuel of 80 octane rating serves in the 125- and 165-hp. engines.



BUICK PRICES BEGIN AT $935 for the Business Coupe

INDICT MICHIGAN GOP BOSS AND 11 ON FRAUD CHARGE

U. S. Alleges $500,000 Distillery Shakedown.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 27 [Special].—Federal indictments today were returned against Frank D. McKay of Grand Rapids, Republican national committeeman for Michigan, and 11 others charging mail fraud in an alleged $500,000 shakedown of distilleries.

Frank D. McKay. [A. P. Wirephoto.]

McKay, a former state treasurer and reputed boss of Republican politics in Michigan, also was charged in a second indictment with collecting $9,918 from Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor company, to meet a state Republican campaign deficit which it was said McKay knew did not exist.

A third indictment named State Purchasing Agent Wellington E. Niles and two others in an alleged scheme of manipulating bids to favor certain firms providing state institutions with hardware and clothing.

The indictments were returned before District Judge Arthur F. Lederle by a special grand jury which has been investigating Michigan's state government for the last eight months. They were the first indictments the jury has returned.

The distillery shakedown was said to have been engineered by the use of political pressure against firms hoping to do business with the state liquor control commission. The jury asserted that McKay held great influence over numerous persons holding public office in Michigan, particularly Fred C. Ehrmann, secretary of the liquor commission.

Distillers were induced to believe, the indictment charged, that by making contributions they could forestall discriminations against them by the liquor commission or that they could enlist the support of commission employés to promote their products.

"Consideration" Asked.

Another method of obtaining payments, it was said, was to go to firms that were about to be given a state order and tell them that for a consideration the commission could be induced to give them such an order. Thus the distillers paid gratuities for orders that would have come to them in the ordinary business routine.

As a result of these schemes, the grand jury alleged, the liquor commission stocked unpopular brands of liquor made by distillers who submitted to the shakedown and neglected the popular brands of firms who would not.

Among the 11 named with McKay in this alleged conspiracy were Ehrmann, who formerly was purchasing agent of the liquor commission; William H. McKeighan, former mayor of Flint and long time political associate of McKay; Fisher L. Layton, former Flint city official and recently mentioned as a prospective candidate for city manager of Flint, and Louis H. Luckoff, vice president of Bass-Luckoff, Inc., Detroit advertising agency which has handled Michigan Republican advertising for several years.

Checks Sent by Mail.

The charge of mail fraud was based on the allegation that checks for the money the distillers were forced to pay were sent to the defendants by mail.

The indictment relating to the $9,918 obtained from Edsel Ford said the motor magnate had indicated he would make a contribution if the Michigan Republican organization faced a deficit after the 1938 campaign. McKay obtained the payment, it was charged, by falsely representing that a printing bill owed the Bass-Luckoff company was unpaid.

The indictment against State Purchasing Agent Niles and his two co-defendants, Henry Galster of Petoskey, a cement dealer, and Charles T. Trombley of Bay City, a clothing broker, charged bids for state purchases were faked and altered so that firms Niles favored got contracts for state purchases.

BAR MAPS DRIVE TO IMPROVE CITY COURT ELECTIONS

A Chicago Bar association committee began work yesterday on measures it will sponsor before the legislature next January to remove politics as far as possible from the election of judges of the Municipal court.

Francis X. Busch, committee chairman, told how a similar campaign failed in the 1939 session, but added: "We're going to get somewhere this time. This next legislature offers the finest prospects in years for improving the present system of electing judges."

The bill which Edgar A. Jonas is drafting to remove party labels from the election of municipal judges will be considered by the Busch committee when it has been prepared. The Jonas plan proposes to eliminate the party circles from the municipal bench ballot in the November elections, thus making it impossible to vote "straight" party tickets.

"We expect to take a position on all measures proposed," said Busch.

KERNES FAMILY INCORPORATES TO AID FELLOWSHIP

Kernes Family club—organized on a not for profit basis—was granted a state charter yesterday and from now on the 250 members of the family will comprise one close-knit unit, according to George Kernes, 67 years old, the organizer.

"It either took a funeral, a wedding or a free feed to get all the members of our family together," Kernes said last night in his home at 3452 West 13th place. "From now on it's going to cost them money to stay away from our meetings!"

To be eligible for the club, a member must be at least 18 years old, have a job and a relationship no more distant than cousinly from the seven Kernes brothers and sisters, of which George is the oldest.

"Dues are 25 cents a month, and we hold meetings every third Sunday," the organizer said. "How will we use the dues? Suppose one of the members has a baby, or gets married, or is sick? Then we'll help out."

Absent Minded Professor Nails Himself Into Attic!

Liberty, Mo., Nov. 27 (AP).—Prof. Chester J. Prince's family complained that cold drafts came from the attic. Prince, who is a member of the William Jewell college faculty, obtained hammer and nails and went to work. When he was done, he found he had sealed himself in the attic and no manner of prying could get the boards loose. Then he pounded for help. His two daughters and their boy friend rescued him. "I had to do something, I guess, to qualify as a college professor," he said.

Lose Suit Based on Dog Being Put Out of Sleeper

New York, Nov. 27 [Special].—The jury in White Plains Supreme court deliberated only one minute this afternoon before deciding that Mr. and Mrs. Roi Osborne of New York City were not entitled to damages for "great mortification" resulting june 6, 1938, when trainmen ousted their St. Bernard dog, Denver, from a Pullman car drawing room in Washington. The Osbornes had sued for $10,000. The Pullman company contended Denver was "big as a horse" and had been properly relegated to the baggage car.

MELTON FAVORS ENGLISH OPERA IN W-G-N TALK

James Melton of the Chicago Opera company gave his enthusiastic approval last night to the movement for opera in English. The singer told the opera stars' point of view in urging opera in English in a talk that preceded his songs on the "Pageant of Melody" program from W-G-N.

"It takes years to learn an operatic rôle," said Melton. "And when you add the difficulties of a foreign language to a musician's task in fitting himself for opera, an American singer finds he's spent a great deal of his time in learning languages and not studying music at all. Translation into English makes so much more wonderful music available to us."

Officers Going Into Training Are Being Feted

BY JUDITH CASS.

MANY of the parties that are being given these days are for officers who are departing for their military training. Numerous parties have been given for Capt. Sydney P. Waud of the 106th cavalry and his attractive wife, for he had expected to leave tomorrow, but he has just received word that he can postpone his departure until Dec. 16. Capt. Waud's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison Waud, have planned a cocktail party for next Tuesday since learning that the date for "Syd" Waud's departure has been deferred.

Camp Beauregard, La., will be Capt. Waud's destination. His wife and their three children, Ibbie, Bibbie, and Syddie, will be in nearby Alexandria during the year that the doctor is in camp. Ibbie, more formally known as Isabel, will be six when the family returns to Chicago; Bibbie, or Beverly as she is christened, will be four, and young Master Sydney Jr. will be almost a year and a half.

The Nathan Swifts Moving to Watertown, S. D.

It is business, not military duty, that is taking Nathan Swift and his family away from Chicago. Because they're so rushed with packing problems entailed in their moving to Watertown, S. D., the Swifts have asked their friends not to give any going-away parties for them. They will depart for their new home tomorrow night. Six year old Martha has already said good-by to her friends at the Loring School for Girls and is looking forward to taking up her readin', writin', and 'rithmetic in Watertown. Nathan Jr., who is only 3 months old, will probably weave his first memories around his new home, for the Swifts expect to be away from Chicago at least two or three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Butz of Winnetka have gone to Asheville, N. C., to spend today, which is being observed as Thanksgiving, with their son, Jack, who is a student in the Asheville school. Elmer Rich is another Chicagoan who is spending today at the school, where Elmer Jr. is a student.

The Wellesley scholarship benefit concert on Sunday is to be given in the Auditorium theater and not Orchestra hall, as stated yesterday in a caption of a picture used on this page. Tickets may be obtained at the theater or from Mrs. Robert F. Spindell of Evanston.

Conductor to Be Guest at Opera Guild Program.

Maestro Italo Montemezzi, distinguished composer-conductor of "L'Amore Dei Tre Re," and Madame Montemezzi will be guests of the Illinois Opera guild at a special program at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Arts club. Edna Kellogg will give a dramatization of the opera, "The Jewels of the Madonna," with musical accompaniment. Members of the guild will have the rare opportunity next Monday of attending a final rehearsal of the opera and of meeting the cast. The hour will be announced at the lecture, or may be learned by telephoning the guild office on Saturday.

Maestro Montemezzi also will be the special guest at a luncheon at noon Saturday at the Cordon.

Helen Jepson, who is singing in "La Traviata" tomorrow night, is entertaining at supper at Camellia House following the performance. The party will celebrate the hostess' birthday, which really is today, but the day before an operatic performance is not a good one for a party.

The American Opera society, of which Mrs. Helen Rend Clarke is president, will present a program of excerpts from the opera, "Egypt," at 3 o'clock next Thursday afternoon at the Tavern club. Irma Cooper, so-

Cuff Notes.

Impressive array of musical genius in attendance at a movie: Vladimir Horowitz, his wife, Wanda Toscanini Horowitz; Nathan Milstein, Allan Tanner, Dr. Maurice Cottle and his wife, Gitta Gradova, sitting in the sixth row at a recent performance of The Great Dictator at the Roosevelt. The Horowitzes returned to New York for Thanksgiving, but will be back in Chicago shortly. . . . Under the table note: Peter Arno, who sat at the Pump room over luncheon for hours Tuesday, signed the guest book with his signature and a picture of a table with a long cloth and two feet protruding from under the cloth—no person visible.

When Diva Karen Branzell visited a photographer during her Chicago stay, evangelistic students were doing scales at a music school across the hall. Suddenly Branzell raised her own magnificent voice, singing scales as they should be sung. . . . Author Louis Bromfield has gone back to his Mansfield, O., farm after spending the week-end in Chicago. One of the things Bromfield did was to go to hear Larry Adler play what Larry calls his bouche organ at the Panther room and the Pump room. Looking at Fats Waller, Bromfield called him a "colored Irvin S. Cobb." Bob Zurkie he termed a "male Myrna Loy." . . . Paul Draper has gone to New York to comfort his mother after his brother Sanders' departure on the Clipper to enlist in the R. A. F. . . . Speaking of Paul brings to mind the pretty girl in New York whom Paul escorted home from a party. As he had come on his racer bike, she went home in a taxicab, with Paul pedaling alongside talking thru the window. . . .

A new backgammon game called circle gammon, said to be the first basic change in backgammon since the days of Cleopatra. Circle gammon uses a circular playing field. . . . Mrs. John Jay Abbott's 1940 birthday present from her banker husband was, as usual, by her request, a check to the North Side Animal shelter, presented to Dorothy Eagles, founder, at the annual dinner after a speech by Dr. Preston Bradley. It will help feed the dogs at the shelter waiting for homes. . . . Ballerina Markova, one of the famous Giselles, who had planned to be in Chicago Sunday to see the Ballet Theater's performance of Giselle—not to dance the title rôle, as was erroneously printed in this space yesterday—has returned to New York after a short visit and an opera attendance with Ballet Theater Director Richard Pleasant, Lucia Chase, and Anton Dolin.

Vocabulary Note.

A dignified Chicagoan came into his club the day after Thanksgiving. Asked how he felt he answered: "I feel like blank. I ate too much, drank too much, made a blank fool of myself, and then had to go to the blank, blank opera. Send a pint of Vichy to the room, blank it!"

Miss Lawrence Sings 'Carmen' as It Should Be

BY EDWARD BARRY.

A bright, fast moving, hot blooded performance of "Carmen" is the Chicago Opera company's latest achievement. The Bizet classic was repeated at the Civic Opera house last night with substantially the same forces used in the earlier presentation on Nov. 12. Marjorie Lawrence, Jan Kiepura, and George Czaplicki retained the rôles of Carmen, Don Jose, and Escamillo, respectively. Kathryn Witwer was new as Micaela and Paul Breisach conducted.

After her somewhat inauspicious beginning of two weeks ago, Miss Lawrence came back last night to give one of the very best enactments of the vixenish cigaret girl that Chicago has seen in recent years. She played the part passionately and violently, and succeeded in projecting admirably the seductiveness, the scornfulness, and the superstitious fear which enter into Carmen's complicated character.

Her plastic body helped her, for she is well aware of the expressive power of an occasional toss of the head or whirl of the torso, but it was on her highly serviceable voice that she principally relied. She managed some wonderfully taunting tone qualities in the first act, and she filled her voice with the very color of doom during the card scene in the third.

Mr. Kiepura was his usual smooth voiced, persuasive self. He stopped the show completely with his richly inflected and evidently sincerely felt performance of the "Flower Song." Mr. Czaplicki was a tremendously virile Escamillo. He seems to be singing this year with even more warmth and ease and tonal beauty than before.

Miss Witwer, who is possessed of a small and not very resonant voice, phrased and colored so intelligently that she was able to create successfully that shy, tender quality which informs Micaela and her music. Mr. Breisach whipped the performance along with tremendous vigor when vigor was called for, but in the more lyrical passages he gave his people plenty of opportunity to sing in an easy, relaxed, and eloquent manner.

Thanks to Mayor Edward J. Kelly, eight magnificent horses of the Chicago police department were present to add still more color and clatter to the brilliant fourth act. The steeds marched into the Spanish city square as nonchalantly as if they were merely creeping up on some overtime parker on a loop street. O, yes—there were eight policemen on their backs, but they had exchanged the sober blue of their work clothes for the flaming military uniforms traditional in "Carmen."

In the course of its regular Thursday night program the Ballet Theater will this evening give the season's last performance of Eugene Loring's "The Great American Goof," based on a scenario by William Saroyan.

National Art Week Exhibits Here Unworthy, Critic Finds

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

The big news of the week is that this is National Art week and there are supposed to be countless exhibits open around town and several artists keeping open house, but as far as we can judge from a personal visit to three studios [each of which was in great confusion and perfect unreadiness for visitors] and from the exhibits hung in strict compliance with the week, National Art week in Chicago is nothing to write home about.

The largest exhibit of National Art week art is said to be at 225 North Michigan avenue. We found the show a cross-section of the Navy pier show and a no jury show. Bad painting riots in profusion over practically all the available wall space. Out of the several hundred pictures a still life by Tunis Ponsen, a study of bread by Macena Barton, and two paintings of monkeys by Julius Moessel are likable. The balance of the work is the type with which the art project painters have familiarized a long suffering public.

At the Marshall Field galleries is a wall of insignificant prints and water colors that bear badly the unfair competition offered by a very attractive group of Walt Disney creations. At the Paul Theobald gallery, 104 South Michigan avenue, are eight badly painted and badly drawn pseudo-modern canvases. These are in direct contrast to the showing there this month of delightful, fairy book paintings by Hoyer.

If you want to see good painting this week and next go to the Chicago galleries, 215 North Michigan avenue, where is hanging a sparkling group of small oils and water colors by artist members. Go to the Drake and enjoy the Maine paintings by Adam Emory Albright, shown under the auspices of the All-Illinois Society of the Fine Arts. Mr. Albright paints the sea and the beach and his tow-headed children as persuasively today as he did 30 years ago.

If you want real American art go to see the gay and colorful Indian pictures by Pop Chalee at Mrs. Kornblith's apartment in the Belden Stratford hotel; these are imaginative, decorative, and exquisitely handled. You will fall in love at once with the horses, colts, deer, and little beasts Pop Chalee paints in delicious fashion.

And if you want more good art stop by at the Miniature Etching show, club woman's bureau, Mandel Brothers, the Palette and Chisel, 1012 North Dearborn, and the All-Illinois Artists' show at the Stevens hotel. But steer clear of the National Art week Simon-pure exhibits; they make you regret the actuality of art.

Benefit Card Party.

The annual benefit card party and dance sponsored by the Church of the Annunciation will be held tomorrow in the Edgewater Beach hotel.

Spinet Answer to Demand for a Small Piano

BY EDITH WEIGLE.

The hue and cry for furniture scaled down to fit the average small house or apartment has resulted not only in attractively designed couches, cabinets, desks, etc., but in radios and pianos, as well. It's no longer necessary to deny yourself the great pleasure of music simply because your living room is not spacious.

One of the oldest piano companies has just brought out an instrument that for beauty of tone and excellence of styling is hard to equal. It's called a spinet and its case was patterned after the work of Hepplewhite, 18th century English master craftsman of furniture design.

In dark mahogany, it has a solid back section, housing the strings, that comes down to the floor. Two front legs are tapered gracefully from top to tip and are fluted.

This charming piano is only 40 inches high, 58 inches wide, and 24 inches "thick"—that is, if placed against the wall it extends only two feet out into the room.

If you prefer walnut to mahogany you can get this spinet in that wood at slight extra cost.

We've seen any number of small pianos, but this and one other make top the list for quality and for beauty of design. What a wonderful Christmas gift such an instrument makes, providing many years of enjoyment and satisfaction!

The Odor of Violets

By Baynard Kendrick

[Copyright: 1940: By Baynard Kendrick.]

SYNOPSIS.

Leaving their house guest, Cheli Scott, Norma Tredwill goes to the city to break up the romance between her philandering ex-husband, Paul Gerente, and her stepdaughter, Barbara. She sees Barbara leaving Paul's apartment and discovers Paul Gerente murdered. Duncan Maclain, a blind detective, receives a visitor who claims to be Paul Gerente—with orders in code from the Naval Intelligence. They are instructions in case New York should be plunged into darkness by war, giving the five vital points in the city where sabotage might occur. Maclain refuses to decode the message for his visitor. Worried for fear Barbara might be implicated in the murder, Norma telephones A. Cameron, the man in the apartment below Paul's, to find out whether he or some one in Paul's apartment let her in. Maclain finds Cameron in Paul's apartment with the dead man, and Cameron glibly confesses to the murder. Maclain doubts his confession, tho the police arrest Cameron. Far off in California, a girl spy questions her escort about the nation's new bombing sights.

INSTALMENT X.

UNWELCOME LEFT.

The thermometer was dropping steadily thruout New England. A biting wind, rolling down from Maine, had sent the whole of Hartford to bed huddling under blankets, and turned the steep short hill up Asylum street from the station into a dangerous incline of traffic packed ice and snow.

Norma felt cramped and miserable when she picked up the brown paper parcel containing Babs' galoshes, and climbed stiffly down to the platform after three unhappy hours in the smoking car. The wind brought tears to her eyes. Getting what shelter she could from her furs, she lowered her head against the blast and fought her way downstairs. A porter, noting her clothes, started toward her, and seeing she had no baggage, turned away disappointedly.

She had hesitated as long as possible before leaving the train, and so far luck had been with her. Neither in Grand Central nor the Hartford station, had she encountered a single person she knew. When she stepped out onto Spruce street in search of a taxi, it came as a shock to find herself staring straight at a neighbor, Bunny Carter, who was leaning from the back window of his chauffeur driven limousine.

Bunny was president of the International Aircraft works in East Hartford, where Gilbert Tredwill worked as a designing engineer. The sumptuous Carter home was built close to The Crags on an adjoining hill. Norma was extremely fond of both Bunny and his wife, Beatrice, but for the moment he was about the last person she wanted to see.

"Norma, my dear!" Bunny's jovial billiken face twisted up into a welcome and he flung open the door. "Hop in! Hop in! I'm waiting for somebody else, who apparently hasn't arrived, but I'd rather have you."

Norma started to protest, and decided it would only make her late arrival in Hartford more conspicuous. She stepped into the car and sank back into the welcome seclusion of the corner, smiling a mechanical smile.

Bunny picked up a communicator beside him and spoke to Al Rutgers, his combination pilot and chauffeur. "Might as well go home, Al. Cranford isn't coming tonight. Stop at the Crags and drop Mrs. Tredwill."

The big limousine moved off with a swish of chains in slush, turned right up the Asylum hill, and started out Farmington avenue for West Hartford.

"Well," said Bunny. "That's that. What have you been up to on such a day?"

"Shopping of course." Norma lighted a cigaret, surprised to find how easy it was to lay the foundation for a complicated tissue of lies.

"Good lord," Bunny chuckled. "You must love your home to take a milk train."

"O, I took in a show," said Norma, and regretted it instantly.

"Pretty soft to have a husband who gets tickets for everything," Bunny declared scornfully. "What did you see?"

Norma watched the great colonial bulk of the Aetna Life building slip by. Her mind was a blank. Trying her best, she could only think of the name of a single show.

"Hellz-a-Poppin."

"I thought you and Thad saw that before."

"We did." She opened the window a crack and dropped out her cigaret. Somehow she must end Bunny's questions. Everything she said gave her more explaining to do. She plunged on recklessly:

"Thad wasn't with me. I went with some people you don't know. I could see it again, for that matter. It's a swell show."

Bunny leaned back beside her. The car was silent while he busied himself with a cigar. He pulled out an electric lighter on a cord. Norma felt that his habitually humorous round face looked grave in the reddish glow as he puffed on his cigar. He restored the lighter carefully to its place, and said:

"Somebody told me Thad went to New York today."

"He did."

"O."

"O Bunny! Don't you, of all people, get stuffed-shirty with me. Thad's 25 years older than I am—but I knew that when I married him. Just because I slip into New York on the sly to buy a few Christmas surprises, and happen to go to a show, is no reason for Hartford to be clucking its tongue at me."

"Norma, my dear!" His voice was hurt. The fine cloth of his camel hair coat reflected his strong pull on the cigar. "You've got me wrong, entirely. I'd as soon cast aspersions on Bea."

"Forget it, darling." Norma felt she had blundered. She reached across and patted his hand. "I'm always too sensitive about Thad and me when I'm tired——"

It was a temptation to go on; to share her secret with Bunny, who was clear-headed and competent. It would be heavenly to relieve the strain by talking things over with him and his wife. She could count on understanding from delicate, brilliant Bea. But that must wait. The first, and most essential thing was to hear Babs' story. Until Babs returned, and talked, there was nothing that Norma dared to do.

They were passing thru West Hartford center, deserted except for a few cars parked in front of the diner.

"Coffee?" asked Bunny.

Norma shook her head. "A steak wouldn't get me out into that snow."

"You're awfully quiet," he said with pleading seriousness. "Honestly, Norma, I'll feel terrible if you're annoyed over anything I've said, and so will Bea. I was really only——"

"I've told you, Bunny, it's me." Norma laughed, and hoped it didn't sound forced. "I've bought a television set for Thad, which he's been wanting for ages. All I ask is that if you and Bea come over to the house before Christmas, you won't give my trip to New York away."

"I'll do even better," Bunny assured her. "If anything comes up you can tell them that you spent the afternoon and evening at our house. I'll pass it on to Bea. Your nefarious schemes won't be given away."

"Thanks," said Norma. "You're a grand conspirator. How is Bea?"

"Not very well," he told her gravely. "I think I'll send her to Florida later on. The cold and the snow get her down. She's been in bed for a couple of days."

"Give her my love. I'll try to stop over tomorrow, or the following day."

"She'll be glad to see you."

The lights of West Hartford dropped behind. The limousine turned left at the Farmington cutoff. A couple of lights marking The Crags showed like crushed blurred dandelions hung above the road in the storm. At the edge of Tredwill village, Al Rutgers at the wheel, turned left again. With whirring chains the big car managed to fight its way up the snow choked roadway to the top of Tredwill hill.

Norma gave Bunny and Al Rutgers a brief goodnight and thanks, and stood in the doorway under the porte-cochere until the automobile drove away. The Crags seemed vast and vacant when she stepped inside. The servants occupied another wing, and Norma was grateful for the reassuring touch of Cheli's manuscript on a chair before the fireplace. At least, she wasn't facing the prospect of breakfasting alone.

About to start upstairs, Norma stopped with her foot on the bottom step. Bringing with it a disturbing premonition, the telephone began to ring in a closet, which served as a booth adjoining the downstairs hall.

"Babs!"

• • •

Young Stacy Tredwill stood just inside the door of the Ritters' apartment and listened to the sound of his voice echo back down the length of the corridor.

A shaded table lamp was burning in the foyer. Farther along, to his left, more lights showed brightly from the living room. He put his hat on the table beside the lamp, slipped out of overcoat and muffler and hung them up in the coat closet.

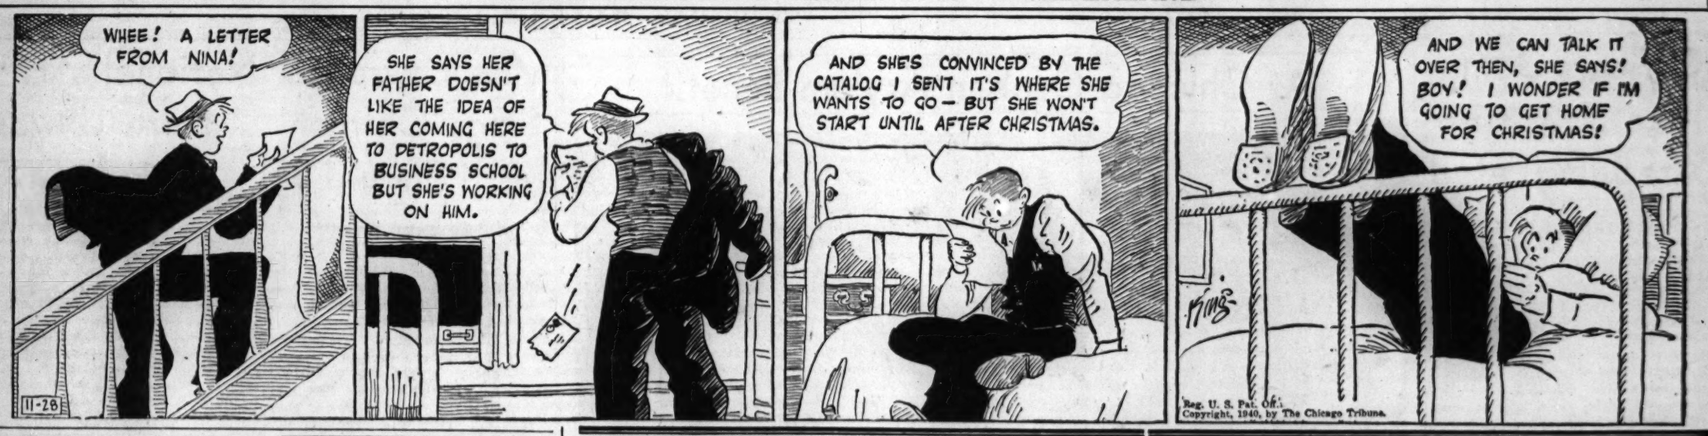
GASOLINE ALLEY—SKEEZIX IN WONDERLAND



Badly Treated Idea Is All This Picture Has

"ARE WE CIVILIZED."

A Raspin production.

Featuring Anita Louise, Leroy Mason, and William Farnum.

Presented at the Studio theater.

By Mae Tinée.

Good Morning!

KIND: Preachment against Nazism and intolerance. Resembles "Pastor Hall"—as an ant hill resembles a mountain.

STORY: More like a lecture. . . . Poorly strung together. . . . Here and there scenes from old message bearing films are introduced. I was sure I recognized bits from "Intolerance." Maybe not.

PHOTOGRAPHY, SOUND: Terrible.

DIALOG: Improbable.

AUDIENCE APPEAL: Practically nil.

REMARKS: This film was made—I imagine—just before the outburst of present hostilities in Europe. . . . It carries a thought—and a vital one. The trouble lies in the presentation of the thought.

"Captain Moonlight," also on the program, is another mediocrity in lighter vein.

See you soon.

Padded Robes Urged as Gift Buys of Week

BY REA SEEGER.

The best showing of cozy padded house coats and robes ever featured for future gifts or immediate comfort of a winter morning have a price mark around $10. They are the buys of the week or season. Pastels, dark and bright color schemes are plentiful. There are stunning black backgrounds spattered with small buds and flowers, there are lovely pale and blue combines and some handsome solid colors with polka dots for contrast.

Some are the new featherweight models, sheer materials used for outside and inside with the padding only for weight. The satin beauties come with warm cotton flannel linings, while the dull silken materials use solid color silks for linings.

One especially effective robe is of red with white polka dots, unusual because of the satin and dull silk band pattern to the material. The white polka dots show on both the satin and dull bands or stripes. The same thing in reverse is of white with the dots of red. The swishy lining is of the same red as the dots.

The quilted patterns are simple, usually in small diamond shapes. The skirts are wide, cut in a circular formation to accent the neat small waistline. Sleeves are straight and easy to slide into. Dashing wide revers and a notched collar complete the details. With about six or eight different color schemes and combinations from which to choose, even the most exacting shopper will be pleased.

As a gift, all you need is speed in your selections as this supershowing cannot last long.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Ellen Dolese and William Henry Schofield at 8:30 o'clock last night in Northwestern university's Howe Memorial chapel, had a double significance for the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dolese of Evanston. It was their 27th wedding anniversary.

The bride wore ivory satin girdled in pearls, with long sleeves and a flowing train, her veil caught by a bandeau of embroidered pearls. Her cousin, Mrs. Thomas Maybury Curtis of Detroit, the former Mary Dolese of Evanston, served as matron of honor. Mr. Schofield, son of Mrs. Henry Schofield of Chicago, had his brother, Philip H., as best man. His brother-in-law, William H. Noble of Evanston, and Howard Mullin of Kansas City were ushers.

The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Schofield and his bride will live at the Homestead in Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis von Michael D'Arkos of Dearborn, Mich., announce the marriage on Nov. 21 of their daughter, Vivienne Roma, to Bryan Stewart Moats, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Moats of Chicago and grandson of the late J. Jennings Bryan of Chicago.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mrs. Mabelle Radcliffe Gwin announces the engagement of her daughter, Sara Elizabeth, to Edwin Lee Ramsey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Ramsey of Constance avenue. Miss Gwin was graduated from the University of Chicago, where she was a Quadrangler. Mr. Ramsey attended Dartmouth college and was graduated from the University of Chicago law school in 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Edwin Gamble of South Hoyne avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Evalina Wynnefred, to Herman Albert Maurer. Miss Gamble is a graduate of Southern seminary in Buena Vista, Va. The wedding will take place on Jan. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Klement of Eddy street announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanore, to Harold W. Olsen of North Lavergne avenue.

Mrs. Howard Haselton Wikoff of Beverly Hills, Cal., formerly of Chicago, announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Betty, to Robert Arthur Fisher, son of Mrs. Earl Owens of Los Angeles, Cal. The wedding will take place on Dec. 21. Miss Wikoff attended the University of Arizona and was graduated from the University of Southern California.

Cross-Stitch Sentiment

BY NANCY CABOT.

The sentiment which this cross-stitch embroidery motto so admirably expresses is apropos the well worn, but familiar, expression: "It is more truth than poetry." Every needle worker, young or old, should make one of these wall plaques, not only for the joy of creating it but to keep a truth well in mind. The hot iron transfer pattern measures 8½x11 inches, and includes detailed directions.

For the hot iron transfer pattern, No. 698, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 5th Avenue, New York City.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1940: By Ely Culbertson.]

Among the points brought to light by the recent self-rating examination is the fact that vast numbers of bridge players never have even heard about certain partnership conventions. A case in point was question 22.

You are East, defending against a three no trump contract. [Your side did not bid.] Your partner leads the diamond ace. Dummy comes down with the 6-3 of diamonds; you hold the J-8-2. What card do you play, and why?

The answer was "the diamond jack," and I went on to say that when in defense of a no trump contract partner leads the ace of a suit not previously bid by you, your correct conventional follow-suit play is your highest card in that suit. There are sound reasons for this, as may be seen by referring to "Today's Hand," below, which was the original inspiration of this question. Most of the examinees compromised by playing the eight spot "as an encouraging card." The 15 point penalty assessed against this answer will, I feel sure, appear small when the reader sees how unsatisfactory that precise play was in the illustrative deal. As for the play of the deuce, there was, of course, no excuse for that choice.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 club	Pass	1 spade	Pass
3 clubs	Pass	3 no trump	Pass
Pass	Pass

As noted above, this deal was the inspiration for question 22 of the recent self-rating examination. The deal occurred in a rubber bridge game at a New York club. The West player was a nationally known master. His partner was an "average" player.

West opened the diamond ace against the three no trump contract. East followed suit with the eight spot, declarer with the five. Thereupon, West went into a huddle that lasted several moments, and finally wrecked his own ship by shifting to a spade. Declarer joyfully collected the rest of the tricks.

Now, West is not the type of player who blindly "trusts" every type of partner to know all standard conventions and abide by them. He was fully aware that East might have three diamonds and that, consequently, it might be easy to pick up declarer's diamonds whether or not they included the jack. The point is, however, that East's eight spot created a problem where none actually existed. Without definite knowledge about the location of the diamond jack, or about the respective lengths of East's and declarer's diamond holdings, West had to guess whether to continue diamonds or to place East with the spade ace [declarer with the K Q 10 x of spades], which would permit a diamond lead thru declarer to West's K-Q-10 tenace. In other words, declarer might well have had the J 7 5 2 of diamonds and East the 9-8, which would make a diamond continuation by West fatal. [I hope no one will point out that West originally could have led his fourth highest diamond. Obviously, that lead would have worked, but suppose South had held the J x x, or even the J x of diamonds!]

Whether or not you would have solved West's problem correctly, is not to the point. The fact is that this West was an excellent player. If he could go wrong, so can a great many others, and this merely proves the need for a convention such as the play of the highest card on the opening lead of an ace.

Looking at Hollywood
By John Chapman

Hollywood, Nov. 27.—One thing about the Warners is, they can move pretty fast. Ida Lupino had herself a crazy scene in "They Drive by Night" that won general approval, so, quick as a flash, her bosses make her a star and give her bigger and better vehicles. Now comes the case of James Stephenson, a hit in "The Letter." Stephenson has been around for a couple of years without attracting attention, but now he's hot. You can tell when a man is hot because the girls from the fan magazines want to interview him all of a sudden. So the Warners have bought Mr. Stephenson a vehicle—A. J. Cronin's "Winged Victory." Geraldine Fitzgerald is to costar, and Howard Koch, who scripted "The Letter," will do the screenplay.

Gary Cooper's back in town to lend his voice to a couple of wild tracks for "Meet John Doe." A wild track is just sound made to fit previously photographed action. The Frank Capra picture has been trimmed to 20 reels and in a few days more will be down to playable size and ready for sneak previews. . . . Rosalind Russell is back for a couple of added scenes in "This Thing Called Love," and will head east again for her long planned four months' vacation. . . . Creighton Hale [remember "Perils of Pauline"?] has had word that his son, Creighton Jr., has joined the Canadian air force and expects to go overseas shortly. . . . James Cagney will spend the Christmas holidays at his Martha's Vineyard place. . . . Errol Flynn's in a bit of a spot. Some time ago one Lady Baille presented him with a pair of Rhodesian lion dogs, whatever they are. Flynn now has 17 of the animals, which is enough lion dogs. The other day he was informed Lady Baillie had sent him two more, which he could have on payment of $500 duty.

Ask nine out of ten Hollywoodians who Bill Elliott is and they won't know. [Just how to pick which nine out of ten is your problem.] Bill makes westerns for Columbia, holds the official rank of No. 6 in the official national cowboy rating. He has been on a personal appearance tour of Texas, playing one and two night stands in ten towns. On this trip he has appeared before 1,000,000 persons, counting taking bows at football games and parades. That's one-sixth of the population of the state—and such a percentage should pass for fame anywhere.

Hollywood triumph saga, complete in one paragraph: Ruth Terry, who's 18 or 19 and in "Blondie Goes Latin," comes from Benton Harbor, Mich., and it was always her ambition to get a bid to one of the university of Michigan dances. Nobody ever asked her and she used to cry her eyes out. Then, drying her eyes, she went to Florida to sing in night clubs, got a movie bid, now is an actress. And the University of Michigan interfraternity council has asked her to be the queen of the pre-Christmas dance. See?

Chicken always is a good choice for the buffet table, for almost every one likes it, and, hot or cold, it may be prepared attractively in dozens of ways.

Cold sliced chicken or a chicken salad is a good choice for a late supper. If the meat takes the place of the usual last one of the day, a hot dish often is better.

Chicken cacciatore is an Italian version of the fricassee. With a big bowlful of tossed greens, hot rolls or French bread, fruit, cheese, and coffee, the meal is complete.

Chicken Cacciatore.

[Serves Six.]
3 pounds chicken pieces
3 tablespoons olive oil
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 can Italian tomatoes [long, sweet ones]
1 teaspoon thyme
1 teaspoon salt [more, if needed]
Few grains cayenne pepper

Use drumsticks, thighs, and breasts for this dish. [You may buy them without buying the whole chicken, in Chicago, at least.] Add minced garlic to the hot oil and, when garlic begins to brown, add chicken pieces. Brown on all sides. Mix tomatoes with thyme, salt, and cayenne, and pour over chicken. Cover closely and simmer until chicken is tender, about 45 minutes. The tomatoes will cook down to a thick sauce by the time the chicken is done.

If this looks to you like more garlic than you relish use only one clove and add a chopped onion to the dish. Some recipes call for a small can of tomato paste in addition to the Italian tomatoes. This would produce a higher seasoning.

Chicken liver dishes aren't as generally popular as are foods prepared from the other parts of chicken, but persons who like chicken livers rave about them when they are sautéed in butter and served with hot boiled rice and Madeira sauce. For the buffet table cover a platter with the hot rice, arrange the browned, tender livers over it, and pour the sauce over the livers.

Madeira Sauce.

[About 2½ Cups.]
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
3 cups consomme, bouillon or meat stock
1 tomato, peeled and quartered
2 tablespoons tomato paste
1 medium onion, sliced
1 carrot, sliced
⅛ bay leaf
1 tablespoon minced parsley
Pinch of thyme
Salt, pepper
½ cup Madeira wine

Melt butter and add flour. Gradually add consomme or stock and stir until smooth. Bring to a boil and add tomato, tomato paste, onion, carrot, herbs, and salt and pepper to taste. Let simmer several hours, stirring occasionally, until sauce cooks down somewhat and becomes thicker. Strain, heat to boiling again, add Madeira, and let heat about 2 minutes. Do not boil after wine has been added Serve at once.

Nov. 28, 1940.

Universal day—Be on your toes, ready to act, to make decisions and assert your authority.

December—Those born on this date, and all the others who can see by their 1940 chart that they are ending an eight year, should approach December with a more humble attitude than they probably have had during the past year. Now you should think a little more about sharing and get ready to give up some of your personal advantages. Don't be extravagant because you may need more than you think you will for the year ahead, but don't hoard either. Avoid nervousness around the holidays.

Year ahead—1941 will be the closing of a nine year cycle for you and so it is up to you to write the ending you want to record in the books.

Baked Ham with Deviled Apples

A whole Wilson Certified Tender Extra Mild Smoked Ham, baked and encircled with Deviled Apples, is as impressive as a Thanksgiving turkey. Remember, Wilson's Certified Smoked Ham, in the orange wrapper, needs no parboiling and the flavor is smoked right in.

THRU THE LOOKING GLASS

The fragrance of old spice has made history in the cosmetic world. It upset all the theories so many people had that the scent of perfumes and allied preparations must be distinctly oomphish if they were to achieve any success at all. Not that the provocative scent of sugar and spice hasn't an oomph all its own; it has, but not the hussyish sort. Charm is the word for its chief quality.

Perfume, toilet water, talc, soap and even some of the most popular shaving things for men are available in this unique fragrance. As Christmas gifts all these preparations are successes, not only because of their quality but because of their package appeal. They're delightfully done, with lots of color and quaint design and many of the boxes and bottles are copies of some of the nicest of the early American pieces.

One new, inexpensive little gift set, for example, is assembled in a quaint sewing kit decorated with adorable pictures of an old fashioned bonnet, fan and gloves; the box itself is blond veneer with an old fashioned red velvet pin cushion on the cover. Inside is a small tray in which nestles a bottle of toilet water. Beneath the tray is a guest cake of the soap in the spice scent; next it are tubes of talcum and bath salts. Long after the good contents have gone the way of all delectable beauty aids the box can be useful on a dressing table.

Another newcomer to the large old spice family is a quaint little utility box beautifully decorated. This houses a bottle of toilet water and a big round box of dusting powder. Women will love the contents, of course, and they won't be at all indifferent to the charm of the box.

Both of these are distinctly inexpensive. ELEANOR NANGLE.

A. F. L. RIPS U. S. ANTITRUST WAR AGAINST UNIONS

Brands Thurman Arnold Attacks Vicious.

BY WILLIAM SHINNICK.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New Orleans, La., Nov. 27 [Special].—A resolution denouncing antitrust law prosecutions started against unions all over the United States by Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold was unanimously approved here today by delegates attending the 60th annual convention of the American Federation of Labor.

A report of the resolutions committee blasted the Arnold attacks as the "most vicious" ever leveled against organized labor and particularly against the federation. There was even a charge that Arnold was favorable to rival organizations belonging to the C. I. O.

"We see no other reason for the prosecutions than that of malice toward our federation affiliates," the committee declared.

Calls Theories Fantastic.

"This is further emphasized by the fact that only our unions have been prosecuted. Interference with interstate commerce in restraint of trade by sitdown strikes and other activities, staged by dual and rival unions, brought no prosecutions against these unions, whereas A. F. of L. unions engaged in peaceful activities have been prosecuted by the scores."

Arnold's economic theories were referred to as fantastic and he was accused of using "dramatics" in starting the prosecutions wholesale. The committee warned labor against signing consent decrees to avoid punishment.

"We must demand," its report continued, "from those occupying higher positions than the person in charge of the antitrust division that they curb these unwarranted and destructive activities against organized labor."

This strong language was heartily applauded by the delegates and A. F. of L. President William Green complimented the report as "splendid."

Officers' Election Next.

Tomorrow the annual election of officers will be held. It seems certain that Green, Secretary Treasurer George Meany, and the 15 vice presidents making up the executive council will be unanimously reëlected. George E. Browne of the theatrical stage employés, the boss of Willie Bioff, who recently served a term for pandering, is in line for 12th vice president.

The federation, adopting a report of the resolutions committee, strongly urged that national defense measures be carried on in a thoroly democratic manner, and insisted that labor should have representation on all defense agencies dealing with workers' welfare.

It was further specified that, should wartime conditions develop, the necessity for universal service of all elements of the population should be recognized, and that labor standards and other social welfare measures should be maintained as essential to efficient production and national morale.

Missouri Governor Speaks to Executives Tomorrow

Seal Dollar Divided

The 34th annual Christmas seal sale of the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County has opened and during the week more than 400,000 packets of the health stamps will be mailed. Recipients are urged to make donations for the stamps and use them as decorations on correspondence.

The money realized from the sale is used thruout the city and county for clinical and health education programs. Of each dollar received, 45 cents is used for health education, 28 cents for health centers, 23 cents for home nursing service, and 4 cents for administration.

RECORDS OF CULT LEADER IN RAPE CASE DENIED LAW

Clarence Stomp.

Attorneys representing Hugh Greer Carruthers, head of the Neological [new logic] Foundation, 32 West Randolph street, refused last night to surrender books of the organization for study by the blue sky division of the state's attorney's office. Attorneys Cameron Latter and Leonard Grossman said state investigators are not entitled to the records unless a charge is filed against Carruthers in connection with his business dealings.

Assistant State's Attorneys John J. Phillips and Nathan Kinnally questioned a man and a woman yesterday about Carruthers' deals. They are Clarence Stomp, 3442 West 65th street, who said he was production manager at the foundation until four weeks ago, and Mrs. Maren Sophia Hansen, 55 years old, 3923 North Kilbourn avenue.

Carruthers, who says he is 74 years old and one of a few Caucasians to have graduated from the Tibetan lamasary of Kum Bum, has been charged in Criminal court with the rape of a girl 12 years old and a crime against children.

Army Inducts 61 More; They Go to Fort Sheridan

The army received another 61 men yesterday at the Chicago induction station, 234 Each Chicago avenue, and hustled them off to the Fort Sheridan reception center. During the day Fort Sheridan dispatched 249 inductees to Fort Snelling, Minn., their permanent station, and tomorrow will send another 310 there.

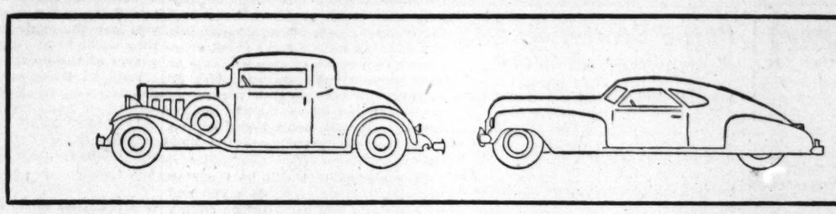
BOTH OF THESE MEN ARE EXACTLY THE SAME SIZE—

YET THE MAN AT THE RIGHT LOOKS TALLER, FULLER CHESTED AND SLIMMER AT THE HIPS

The man on the left is wearing a well fitting ordinary suit. The man at the right a Worsted-tex British Lounge* Model. It is simply a matter of streamline design — of deceiving the eye.

For instance, here are two motor cars, one modern. Both the same length and same wheelbase. Yet the automobile at the right looks longer than the one at the left.



Just a matter of modern day streamlining.

In the Worsted-tex British Lounge* Model the elements of streamline design are as follows: the coat is longer; the placement of buttons lower; the lapels broader and more sweeping; the collar is lower showing more linen; the shoulders a trifle wider; the waistline is further down; the sleeves and trousers tapered and there is extra fullness of cloth at the chest.

But it is not extreme in appearance. It is a gentleman's suit of clothes that is becoming to almost every type of man. And it is amazingly comfortable.

IOWA AND INDIANA NAME VALUABLE PLAYERS

LEO LIONS AIM TO CUT FENGER DOWN TO SIZE

Think Weight Won't Help Champions.

BY JAMES SEGRETI.

They're so small that they will probably look like water boys attending Fenger's giants, but Leo's mighty little football players are capable and confident of winning the city championship when the Catholic and Public School league champions meet in Soldiers' field Saturday afternoon. Fenger's big edge in weight and its brilliant scoring record have been wrapped into a snowball and fired away by the Lions. They will be convinced only after playing 48 minutes of football.

Bobby Richter, the tiniest of all the regular Lions, will cause Fenger's hard driving backs many an anxious moment. Leo's followers recall many incidents during the season when Richter, heavily outweighed, opened gaping holes to allow his fellow ball carriers, Henry [Babe] Baranowski, Bob Kelly and Tom McDonald, to sail thru for long gains. Richter has shown his big opponents that they have to possess more than an edge in weight to remove him from a play.

He's Honor Student, Too.

A senior and honor student at Leo, Richter has never spent a minute on the bench due to a football injury during his three years on the squad. Five feet 6 inches tall and weighing 145 pounds, Richter has played every minute of Leo's important games despite bruises. He also showed great leadership when he absorbed Capt. Skip Carroll's duties after the right tackle, the only 200 pounder on the squad, was injured early in the season.

Richter and his teammates finally got into a long workout yesterday afternoon. The squad rested Tuesday because of the heavy snowstorm, but Coach Whitey Cronin and the players boarded buses and traveled to the Northwest armory, Kedzie and North avenues, for the lengthy drill. No south side indoor arena—University of Chicago fieldhouse, 124th Field Artillery armory, or the International amphitheater—was available.

Fenger Works Indoors.

Fenger's eleven, still on top with 464 points as the state's highest scoring prep team despite its scoreless tie with Lindblom last Saturday, also went to work indoors yesterday. The Public High School league representatives, who will be making their third straight appearance in the charity series, took over the large Fenger gymnasium for two hours, rehearsing the plays which they hope will click against Leo. Coach Chuck Palmer said the squad would be at full strength, Henry Stevenson, quarter back and star kicker, having recovered from the injury incurred against Pullman Tech on Thanksgiving day.

Ray Florek, full back and successor to Donald [Flash] Griffin as the team's touchdown scorer, who was stopped by Lindblom last Saturday, played an important part in yesterday's drill and is ready for the Catholic league champions. Florek, who was forced to do Fenger's kicking against Lindblom because of the ailing Stevenson, has been mentioned favorably by many observers as one of the leading candidates for the Noble E. Kizer Memorial trophy, which will be awarded to the Public School league's most valuable player.

Expect More Than 80,000.

Barnet Hodes, secretary of Chicago's Own Christmas Benefit fund, sponsor of the interleague series, was armed with reports from meteorologists yesterday, but took time out to look over figures from ticket sales and still held hope that a crowd of more than 80,000 will attend the game. Hodes pointed out that 80,000 spectators were in Soldiers' field for the 1938 game between Fenger and Mount Carmel altho the thermometer read 20 degrees above zero.

The game will be broadcast by W-G-N after the completion of the Army-Navy battle in Philadelphia. The Army-Navy broadcast will start at 12:30 o'clock and the prep broadcast at approximately 2:30.

ZIVIC'S MANAGER HURT WHEN AUTO SKIDS INTO POLE

Erie, Pa., Nov. 27 (AP).—Luke Carney of Pittsburgh, the manager of Fritzie Zivic, welterweight boxing champion, and three associates were injured today when the car in which they were riding skidded and struck a pole near Northeast, Pa., about 15 miles from here. Carney suffered injuries to both knees and a possible fracture of the wrist. Bobby Quinn, Zivic's trainer; Sammy Parrotto, a stablemate of the champion, and Benny Winters, all of Pittsburgh, were bruised.

They were returning to Pittsburgh from Buffalo, N. Y., where Zivic defeated Ronnie Beaudin of Toronto in a boxing bout last night. Zivic took a train home and escaped the accident. He had wanted to motor back, but Carney, eyeing the snow-covered roads, told him to go home on a train.

JIM CONZELMAN FINDS OUT HOW ELUSIVE IS FAME

Even His Opponents Can't Quite Place Him.

BY GEORGE STRICKLER.

The Chicago Cardinals on Sunday come to the end of their first year under James Conzelman, the noted author, actor, and lecturer, needing only another victory over the Bears to make their season an unqualified success and throw the National Football race into a state of complete confusion. They beat the Bears, Conzelman's old team, 21 to 7, earlier this year.

Starting absolutely from scratch, the young players, mostly freshmen in professional football, and their coach have labored long and diligently against overwhelming odds. Some success has come their way. In addition to the Bears they beat Cleveland. They tied Detroit and Pittsburgh and scared the life out of Washington and Brooklyn. All things considered, such a record should make a coach famous. But recent events indicate Conzelman would be better known if he had run for Vice President on the Socialist ticket.

Such Is Fame.

For instance, he received a letter several weeks ago, addressed to "James Conzelman, coach, Washington university, St. Louis, Mo." It requested Mr. Conzelman, after wishing him good cheer, good luck, etc., in the customary palsy walsy language, to tip the Lions off to any of his seniors who were professional prospects. It was signed, "The Detroit Lions," a team Conzelman's Cardinals had played twice this year.

"That," thought Mr. Conzelman, an old character builder, in true Christian spirit, "must be a mistake. I will not say anything about it. Well, not much, anyway; just a little here and there at banquets—if the fee is right."

What! Another One?

Mr. Conzelman's attitude changed abruptly yesterday morning in the University of Chicago fieldhouse, where he had gone with his Cardinals to work up the proper amount of hate for the Bears preparatory to Sunday's game. In the midst of the workout, a courier from the Cardinals' loop office delivered a letter from the Bears. It read:

"Dear Jimmy:

"The Chicago Bears will hold their annual homecoming on Sunday, Dec. 1, in connection with their game against the Cardinals at Wrigley field. You are cordially invited to attend. Just call at the pass gate, where your ticket needs will be taken care of. We will be glad to see you in the clubhouse before and after the game. We would like to have you with us on the above date. Please let us know if you will attend.

"Sincerely,
GEORGE HALAS."

Firm Grip on Temper.

A less accomplished individual would have made a scene. But Conzelman, just like the Barrymores and Mansfield, other great actors, merely folded the letter with aplomb and éclat and called for the Cardinal publicity chief.

"What in h——, my good man, have you been doing all year?" he asked.

Thereafter practice went on as scheduled, with the Cardinals hopefully awaiting the arrival of Kieth Ranspot, a former Southern Methodist captain and end. Ranspot has been purchased from Boston of the American association to bolster the Cardinal ends.

Short on Ends.

Frank Ivy and Alton Coppage, two rookies from Oklahoma, were forced to play 60 minutes against Brooklyn last week and with John Sjirk, who has an injured arm, are all the ends the Cardinals have at the moment. Gaynell Tinsley and Bill Dewell are out with ailing legs.

The Bears worked out in the Broadway armory yesterday, forsaking Wrigley field, where a heavy coat of snow made footing uncertain.

P. S. — Conzelman is rather intrigued over the invitation to visit the Bears' dressing room before the game. He allows as how he thinks he may accept.

As You Passed.

I saw you as you passed in church today,
My little sweetheart of the long ago,
And wondered if you ever knelt to pray
For him who was the fountain of your woe;
Your smile has kept its summer, tho the snows
Have long since gathered in your raven hair,
And tho your cheek has paled, the carmine rose
In all its loveliness is hidden there.
I saw you pass and wondered if you knew
The wasted beggar kneeling at the door,
The faithless lover who had promised you
He would be true to you forever more;
O, I have suffered torments for my sin,
But never can bring back what might have been. T. E. B.

TEXAS AGGIES BATTLE TEXAS IN FINAL TODAY

Austin, Tex., Nov. 27 (AP).—Nineteen triumphs behind them and a second successive Southwest conference title just ahead, the Texas Aggies tomorrow will play a football game that carries richer rewards than this cattle country history records.

More than 43,000 will fill old Memorial stadium to watch the giant Red machine try to subdue its oldest enemy—University of Texas.

Never has a greater football team worn the Maroon of Texas A. & M., but tomorrow that makes little difference against a Texas team which carries the inherited jinx that has kept an Aggie eleven from winning in Austin since 1922.

Aggies Are Favored.

The riotous Aggie team that boasts John Kimbrough, the All-American full back; Jim Thomason, one of the nation's outstanding blocking backs and tacklers; Guard Marshall Foch Robnett, perhaps the best in southwest history, and Marion Pugh, rated one of America's top collegiate forward passers, tonight was the odds on choice.

Many Aggie teams have come to Austin expecting to have a walkaway only to go away sadly beaten.

Coach Dana X. Bible of Texas was able to report, with a slight gleam of satisfaction, that his thunderbolt broken field runner, Cowboy Jack Crain, would be in top condition. Crain has been suffering from a chest injury since the Arkansas game a month ago and had further trouble with his ankles, but now seems ready to operate.

Layden Also a Star.

Most of the Texas offensive is expected to center around Full Back Pete Layden, a passing, punting, running star, who has been sensational in the last two games; steady thruout the season.

The weather forecast is for a clear, crisp day with not too much wind.

FORDHAM GETS OFFER TO PLAY IN ORANGE BOWL

New York, Nov. 27 (AP).—Jack Coffey, Fordham university's graduate manager of athletics, said today he had been approached regarding the Rams' playing in the Orange bowl football game in Miami, Fla., New Year's day.

The World-Telegram said it had learned from a reliable source that Fordham had been guaranteed approximately $40,000 and would meet the winner of Saturday's game between Alabama and Mississippi State if the Rams defeat New York university on the same date.

Later in the day Coffey said Fordham expects no formal invitation until its season is concluded and that every year the Rams have received feelers from various bowl organizations.

Fame Comes to Two Linemen

Dwight Gahm, Indiana university center, who was voted team's most valuable football player yesterday. Each Big Nine squad yearly chooses a teammate for consideration as the conference's most valuable player. The winner is presented the Chicago Tribune trophy. [Acme Photo.]

Mike Enich, Iowa captain and tackle, acclaimed Hawkeyes' most valuable by his teammates.

Harmon Goes on the Air—He's Paid $500

New York, Nov. 27 (AP).—Tom Harmon proved to be about as elusive off the football field as on today after he flew in here for an appearance on a radio program tonight. The performance, for which he receives $500 and expenses, makes the Michigan star a professional as far as college athletics is concerned, but will not prevent his playing in the East-West All-Star game in San Francisco on New Year's day.

That, he said, positively will be his last appearance on any gridiron—provided he can land a radio job of any sort. He wants, eventually, to be a radio executive, but he doesn't care where he starts.

Calls Wildcats Best.

"Northwestern was the best team we played this year," Tom said. "Sure they were better than Minnesota. We should have beaten those guys by three touchdowns."

Harmon tonight was announced as the winner of the Heisman Memorial trophy given each year by the Downtown Athletic club of New York to the nation's outstanding college player.

Harmon polled an unprecedented number of points, 1,303, in the countrywide balloting by sportswriters and broadcasters to beat out John Kimbrough of Texas A. and M., who received 841. The presentation will be made at a dinner Dec. 9.

The next three choices nationally were George Franck of Minnesota, 102 points; Frank Albert of Stanford, 90; and Paul Christman of Missouri, 66.

GETS WAILING WALL AWARD.

Harmon will be presented Monday with the player of the year award by the Wailing Wall, college alumni group which meets each week. The presentation will be made by Jay Berwanger. Alf Bauman, Northwestern tackle, will be given the group's award as lineman of the year.

Army, Navy Will Unite—Till Game Time

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 27 (AP).—Now the Middies and Cadets are going to smash precedent.

They're going to join forces in Philadelphia's Municipal stadium Saturday to treat a capacity crowd of 102,000 to a pre-game military spectacle that will end a custom established a half-century ago for Army-Navy football games.

Heretofore each regiment has held the spotlight alone for the grand entry. This time they'll share the honors. The 1,800 gray-clad cadets will parade into the stadium first, followed by the 2,600 blue-clad midshipmen.

Then, 4,400 strong, they will stage colorful joint evolutions and will stand at attention while the massed Army and Navy bands play the national anthem before breaking ranks for the scramble to seats.

Honor Players of 1890.

On the sidelines as honor guests for this 50th anniversary and 41st game between the service schools will be six men who took part in that first battle Nov. 29, 1890, on the plains at West Point. They are:

Navy won that first one, 24 to 0. Since then Army has captured 22 and Navy's victories total 15, with three ties.

The Middies are favored to lick their traditional foe Saturday in the closing game of the season for both teams, but Head Coach Swede Larson insists it is a tossup.

There's No Silence in Ranks.

Excitement ran high tonight as the largest midshipmen regiment in the academy's 95 year history staged an ear splitting football rally. Celebrations will be climaxed Saturday morning when the regiment, en route to the station to board trains for Philadelphia, marches by the statue of Tecumseh and tosses pennies to this Navy good luck god.

Silence-in-ranks, an academy rule momentarily relaxed, has been broken with football songs and yells. Posters urge the team to "sink the army."

The Middie squad of 43 players, 11 of whom will participate in their last game for Navy, will leave tomorrow night for the Manufacturers' Country club at Oreland, Pa., their quarters until game time.

They will work out Friday in Temple stadium in Philadelphia.

Wife of American Association Head Dies

Columbus, O., Nov. 27 (AP).—Mrs. Mary Catherine Trautman, 48 years old, wife of George M. Trautman, president of the American Association of Professional Baseball clubs, died today after a year's illness.

HAWKEYES PICK ENICH; HOOSIERS VOTE FOR GAHM

Linemen Eligible for Tribune Trophy.

Honor Roll

THE list of the most valuable nominations for The Chicago Tribune's silver trophy, emblematic of the outstanding football player of the year in the Western conference, was increased to six yesterday. Those named follow:

Mike Enich, Iowa, tackle.
Dwight Gahm, Indiana, center.
Tom Harmon, Michigan, half back.
George Bernhardt, Illinois, full back.
Dave Rankin, Purdue, end.
Bob Paffrath, Minnesota, half back.

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 27 [Special].—The University of Iowa's most valuable football player of the year is Mike Enich. His teammates paid the Hawkeye captain and durable tackle that honor tonight. Last year his teammate, Nile Kinnick, Iowa's most valuable player, went on to win the Chicago Tribune trophy as the Western conference's outstanding player.

Each of the nine teams names its most valuable player, then a committee of 21 selects one as the conference's most valuable. Each of the nine receives a miniature white gold football.

Famous as an Iron Man.

Enich was right in the midst of Iowa's startling gridiron revival last year under Coach Eddie Anderson. He became one of the team's famous 60 minute iron men. Mike played 60 minutes each against Michigan, Purdue, Notre Dame, and Minnesota in 1939. This season he played 397 minutes out of a possible 420 in seven major games. He is regarded as the greatest Iowa tackle since Fred [Duke] Slater, an all-American in 1921.

Mike, a 22 year old lad of Serbian parentage, is from Boone, Ia., where his father is a railroad worker. He is six feet tall and weighs 205 pounds. He was elected captain of the 1940 team because of his efficient and spirited playing the previous year. Under his captaincy the Hawkeyes rallied late in the season, dealing Notre Dame its first defeat of the year, 7 to 0, then closing the eight game schedule with a victory over Illinois, 18 to 7. Iowa won four and lost four games.

Hero Against Purdue in 1939.

One of Mike's strong points is the ability to break thru opposing lines. In the Purdue game last year he blocked punts which led to Iowa's two safeties and resulted in a 4 to 0 triumph.

Enich, an all-state high school full back at Boone, never saw a Hawkeye football team play until 1936, the year before he enrolled. He is a student in the liberal arts college and plans for a career in business after his graduation next summer. He works at the university several hours a day to help pay his own way. He lives in the Quadrangle, men's dormitory, and is a member of the A. F. I., senior men's honorary organization.

INDIANA NAMES GAHM

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 27 [Special].—Dwight [Spanky] Gahm, senior center from Louisville, Ky., today was voted by his teammates as the most valuable player of the Indiana university football squad for the 1940 season. Gahm received a large majority of the votes.

Gahm, regarded as one of the outstanding centers in Indiana university football history, played in all eight Indiana games this season despite a severe hand injury suffered in the Michigan State contest. In most of the other games he was a 60 minute player.

Noted for His Spirit.

Weighing 192 pounds and 6 feet 1 inch tall, Gahm was fast for his size and one of the most aggressive blockers and tacklers on the squad. His fighting spirit and leadership were an important factor in the team play of the squad which had no permanent captain this season.

"Gahm is truly a great center and one of the finest boys who ever played football on anybody's team," Head Coach Bo McMillin commented after his election as most valuable player. "He richly deserves this honor.

Line Coach Carl [Swede] Anderson characterized Gahm as a mentally alert and smart center, who could be relied upon to hold the ball on the offensive, when he sensed the team was not ready to go into a play. Gahm in this manner saved the Hoosiers penalties when a teammate would have been offside or the back field in motion.

He also is a good diagnostician of enemy plays and strong on pass defense. He knocked down a number of forward passes that might have proved costly to the Hoosiers.

Gahm, whose father, W. F. Gahm, is president of a credit corporation, plans a business career.

STRICTLY RURAL, BUT CITY FOLK GO FOR HORSE SHOW

Opening Saturday Will Attract Thousands.

BY HOWARD BARRY.

Chicagoans will flock by thousands to the International horse show which begins Saturday night and runs thru the following week. Year after year, observers have marveled that an urban community should get so enthusiastic over anything as rural as hunters and jumpers, riding and driving horses.

Year after year, the International amphitheater is jammed not only with wealthy sportsmen, but also with department store clerks, mechanics, office workers, and others who never have been close enough to a horse to pat his nose.

Teams Provide Thrill.

They keep on coming because they find it an entertaining show. They like the swift movement and the variety of the performance. They enjoy the bands and the parades of the prize winning cattle and draft animals. They get a thrill out of the thunderous stamping of the gigantic six horse teams that come prancing down the runway pulling huge rumbling wagons. They like the graceful hunters, the strutting saddle horses and the sleek trotters.

Entries will come from all parts of the country for this exhibition which ranks with the recent New York show as the most important of the indoor season. Many of the contestants will arrive fresh from triumphs in the Madison Square Garden event.

Chicagoans Exhibiting.

The Chicago area, as usual, will be well represented. Among the saddle horse exhibitors will be Irving Florsheim's Red Top farm, Leslie Atlass' Sunny Ridge farm, Delaine farm, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Selz.

In the harness classes will be representatives of Mrs. A. C. Thompson, R. C. Flannery, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Campbell, the Peak stables, and the Heyl pony farm.

O. T. Henkle, chairman of the horse show committee, has drawn up programs for every night, and in addition for matinées on Sunday, Wednesday, and Friday, and on the final Saturday. In addition there will be an amateur judging contest on Sunday morning open to young men and women from 16 to 25 years of age who have not had agricultural college training in the judging of animals.

SPORTSMAN PARK ASKS HEARING ON RACE DATES

Sportsman's Park attorneys yesterday filed a petition with the Illinois Racing commission for a hearing on the allotment of dates for the 1941 season. The track operators, headed by President John L. Keeshin, are dissatisfied with the schedule which gives their track a spring meeting of 19 days from April 26 to May 17 and a fall meeting of 12 days from Oct. 20 to Nov. 1.

They contend that in applying for a spring meeting they were asking for dates which no other track wanted and that they did so with the understanding that it would not have a bearing on their application for a regular autumn meeting of 24 days.

Kelly Loses His Pep So Hawks Farm Him Out

BY EDWARD BURNS.

The Blackhawks will vie with the Red Wings in Detroit tomorrow night, but they will be without the services of Right Winger Pep Kelly on account Pep has lost his pep and yesterday was sent to the Providence Reds to skate himself into playing condition.

The Hawks purchased Kelly from the Toronto Maple Leafs last summer, and since he had proven his value in a lone season with the Hawks and in his play with the Leafs against the Hawks it was expected that the 26 year old forward would be a great help in steadying some of the Chicago boys this season.

He'll Be Busy in Providence.

It is said that Kelly failed to get into shape for the first time in his athletic career. It was impossible for Manager Paul Thompson to use him in competition enough to help him reach his accustomed playing form. Thompson sent Pep to Providence with the request that he be given plenty of work. Paul said that he thinks about a half dozen real tough games will have Kelly again ready for National league competition. If the hope materializes, Kelly will be recalled.

Acting Manager Johnny Gottselig today will send the Hawks thru their third one hour drill in as many days, again dedicating the workout to marksmanship.

Hawks Sharpen Offense.

Yesterday the Bentley brothers and Bill Thoms seemed to have a better idea as to the whereabouts of the cage and further work today for them and the others is expected to result in the Hawks making goals instead of almost-goals, which do not count in the league statistics.

The Hawks will leave for Detroit tonight and will return after tomorrow's game to prepare for their first meeting with the world champion New York Rangers in Chicago Stadium Sunday night. The Wings have not been defeated in their last half dozen games and have been beaten only once this season. Last year the Hawks beat the Detroiters in six games and tied them in the other two meetings.

Tonight the Rangers and Americans will play in New York.

BEARS TO PLAY BOMBERS.

The Austin Bears and the Brown Bombers will settle the Cook county semipro football title Sunday afternoon when they meet at Harlem and North avenues.

GLOBE TROTTERS' EXPERIENCE MAY BE ADVANTAGE

But Collegians' Five Is in Condition.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

The natural advantage that the Harlem Globe Trotters might be expected to have in their game with the College All-Star basketball team tomorrow evening in Chicago Stadium is perfection from many seasons playing together. The professional champions will have this advantage, of course, but since five of the 12 men on the squad have joined the team this year, it will not be a particularly important factor in the result.

It is more important that the Negro squad will have had the advantage of nearly a month's drill. The members of the college group, who are coached by Dutch Lonborg, of Northwestern university, have had less time together and several of the players arrived only this week. This is no criticism of these players' condition, however, for all of them are ready for the battle with the Negro stars with the possible exception of Bob Calihan, Chicago youngster who played center for three years at the University of Detroit. Calihan sprained his ankle in scrimmage Tuesday.

Globe Trotters Outnumbered.

The Collegians will have some slight advantage in personnel since their squad numbers 15. Twelve are listed on the Globe Trotters. The newcomers to the team, altho all have had years of experience, are: Agis Bray, Al Tucker, Al Johnson, and Cleveland Bray, forwards, and Hillary Brown, guard.

Of these men Agis Bray and Brown are well known to Chicagoans who have followed local teams including the Chicago Collegians. Both are products of Chicago high schools. Later Bray attended Wilberforce university. Brown is fast, weighs more than 200 pounds and should increase the defensive strength of the Globe Trotters.

Holdover members of the Harlem squad are Wyatt Boswell, Bernie Price, Ted Strong, Inman Jackson, Louis Pressley, Roscoe Cumberland, and Bill Ford. Ford did not play with the Globe Trotters last season, but was a member formerly.

Jackson Oldest Player.

Boswell and Price are scoring stars of the team, but all the regulars are excellent shots. Jackson is the veteran with longest continuous service.

A. L. Saperstein, manager of the Negro champions, and Coach Lonborg of the Collegians, have agreed to have Pat Kennedy, eastern professional basketball official, and Parke Carroll, Missouri Valley college official, conduct the game.

Bill Hapac, formerly of Illinois, and Ralph Vaughan, Southern California, forwards; Bob Carpenter, East Texas Teachers, center, and Stan Szukala, De Paul, and Erwin Prasse, Iowa, guards, make up the Collegians' starting lineup. Second and third teams are as follows:

SECOND—Bob Calihan, Detroit, and Rex Ellis, Notre Dame, forwards; Ed Sadowski, Seton Hall, center; Fred Beretta, Purdue, and Chet Jaworski, Rhode Island State, guards.

THIRD—Jim McNatt, Oklahoma, and Ralph Giannini, Santa Clara, forwards; Jim Rae, Michigan, center; Bill McDonald, Marquette, and Marvin Huffman, Indiana, guards.

Pair Title Finalists in C.Y.O. Bouts

BY FRANK MASTRO.

Pairings for the finals in the 10th annual Catholic Youth organization amateur boxing tournament were announced yesterday by John C. Karas, in charge of the meet during the illness of Director Thomas O'Connell. Sixteen bouts will be held in the championship round in the Coliseum Wednesday, eight in each of the open and novice classes.

The 32 contestants are all that remain from a field of 980 which started out six weeks ago. These hard fighting, ambitious youngsters advanced a step closer to their destination in semi-final competition, presented in C. Y. O. center on Monday and Tuesday.

Ignore Rest Order.

Despite the frisky weather, the majority of them returned to training yesterday afternoon and evening against the orders of Head Coach Paddy Kane, who had directed that the lucky lads take a 24 hour rest following the strenuous semi-final battling. They didn't mean to be insubordinate, however.

Eddie and Joe O'Connell, highly accomplished fighting brothers from the south side, expressed the thought of other finalists when they said: "Our opponents are tough and if we're not in the best of condition, we may lose out. We can't afford to loaf now."

Two Champs Survive.

Eddie, who distinguished himself in the Golden Gloves tournaments a few months ago, will be opposed by O. D. Thomas, heavy hitting lightweight of Holy Family parish in the open division. Joe, 1938 open C. Y. O. welterweight champion, is paired with Hiner Thomas, Corpus Christi, former C. Y. O. middleweight title holder. They clash for the light heavyweight championship. The O'Connell boys are representing St. Nicholas of Tolentine.

Two defending champions—Al Noto, St. Angela flyweight, and Isaiah Wells, Holy Family middleweight—are on next Wednesday's program. Noto will risk his title against Harold Dade, Chicagoland Golden Gloves 112 pound ruler, and Wells will put his title on the block against Harry Stephens of St. Peter's, who won the Kenosha sectional Golden Gloves 160 pound medal last year.

PAIRINGS.

Open Class.

112 pounds—Al Noto, St. Angela, and Harold Dade, Corpus Christi.
118 pounds—Fred Dawson, Corpus Christi, and Henry Nichols, Holy Name.
126 pounds—Tony Bausone, St. Mel, and Eddie Miller, Corpus Christi.
135 pounds—Eddie O'Connell, St. Nicholas of Tolentine, and O. D. Thomas, Holy Family.
147 pounds—Harry Sparrow, SS. Peter and Paul, and Louis Bobeck, Sacred Heart.
160 pounds—Isaiah Wells, Holy Family, and Harry Stephens, St. Peter.
175 pounds—Joe O'Connell, St. Nicholas of Tolentine, and Hiner Thomas, Corpus Christi.
Heavyweights—Dave Brown, Corpus Christi, and James Stift, Our Lady Help of Christians.

Novice Class.

112 pounds—William Killham, St. Mary's Training school, Des Plaines, Ill., and Don Gallardio, St. Rose of Lima.
118 pounds—Mike Friar, Mount Carmel, and Pat Ciangi, Our Lady of Pompeii.
126 pounds—Charles Carey, St. Peter Canisius, and Louis Dresh, St. Anselm.
135 pounds—Dennis O'Keefe, St. Kevin, and Robert Cooper, St. Mary.
147 pounds—Joseph Duro, Our Lady of Pompeii, and James Jordan, St. Mary.
160 pounds—Jerry Cohen, Holy Name, and James Patterson, St. Theodore.
175 pounds—George Henrich, St. Edward, and Carmen Caputo, St. Mary of Mount Carmel.
Heavyweights—John Eames, St. Sylvester, and Valley Coleman, Corpus Christi.

Double Header to Open Season at Notre Dame

Notre Dame, Ind., Nov. 27 [Special].—Coach George E. Keogan will unveil his 18th Notre Dame basketball team here Saturday night in a double header involving Kalamazoo and Monmouth.

A sprained ankle suffered by Joe Gillespie, junior center, in practice, may keep the Indianapolis star out of the lineup for three or four weeks. George Sobek, Hammond, Ind., regular forward as a sophomore last year, was injured a month ago, just after practice opened, but will be set for the tougher competition later this month.

Charles Butler, Chicago sophomore, will play with the No. 1 unit Saturday, teaming with Capt. Eddie Riska and Jim [Red] Carnes, forwards; and Larry Ryan and Bob Smith, guards. Riska, Sobek, Ryan, and Smith are the only returning lettermen.

Maroons Are Back, but It's in Basketball

The University of Chicago's withdrawal from football has given the school's basketball squad a bonus in the form of a little additional time for practice, yet it appears that the Maroons are destined to remain in the Big Ten cellar this year. Coach Nels Norgren has a group of 24 comparatively small candidates with whom to work in bringing Chicago into Western conference major sport competition for the first time in 1940-'41. The Maroons open their season Dec. 5, when they meet Georgia in the Midway fieldhouse.

Stampf Is Key Man.

The nucleus for the team is Capt. Joe Stampf, 6 foot 4 inch veteran, who is being shifted from forward to center; Chuck Wagenberg, a competent sophomore guard last season, and Jack Fons, who won a minor "C" at forward. Only one of the sophomore recruits is more than six feet tall, as a consequence of which Coach Norgren has scrapped his zone defense in favor of fast breaking offense and man to man defense.

George Krakowka, sophomore from Carthage, N. Y., appears likely to win the guard position opposite Wagenberg. Three other sophomores, Fred Shaver, ex-Hyde Park player, Edgar Nelson, a product of Lane Tech, and Dewey Norris, who prepped at Peoria Central, are prominent among candidates for the vacant forward post.

Tennis Players May Help.

A trio of transfer students bolster the rookie group. They are Bob Hixon, Dartmouth transfer, who played prep basketball at La Grange; Dave Taylor of Kansas, who has moved in from Purdue, and Fred Kretschmar, formerly at Amherst. Two tennis players, Capt. Cal Sawyier and Bob Lifton, together with Art Fradkin, quarter miler on the track team, also are additions to the squad.

Sterling, Ill., Nov. 27 [Special].—The annual amateur boxing show for the benefit of the child welfare program in this district will be held tomorrow night under the auspices of the Sterling Gyros, an organization of business and professional men in the municipal coliseum. TONY KAUFMANN NAMED PILOT OF ROCHESTER CLUB

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 27 (AP).—Charles Anthony [Tony] Kaufmann will manage the Rochester International league baseball club in 1941, President Oliver French of the Red Wings said today. Kaufmann lives in Chicago.

Kaufmann was brought up from Decatur by the St. Louis Cardinal organization late last June after Billy Southworth had been advanced to the managership of the Cardinals and his successor, Estel Crabtree, was forced out by illness. Tony brought the Wings their first league pennant since 1931.

"I am happy to have Tony Kaufmann back as manager here," French said.

OHIO STATE WILL RETAIN SCHMIDT (SAYS SCHMIDT)

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 27 (AP).—Coach Francis A. Schmidt made it quite plain tonight that he expects to coach the Ohio State football team again next season. Guest of honor at a dinner of Ohio State alumni here, he gave a speech in which he spoke optimistically of the 1941 season and commented:

"The athletic board and not the newspapers decide such changes."

Schmidt, referred apparently to printed rumors that Ohio State's 40 to 0 loss to Michigan in the 1940 season's last game, combined with other defeats, meant he would lose his job.

Schmidt said the Buckeyes of the past season had been "puffed up and overrated" in the newspapers.

ORDER $800,000 PAID CREWS FOR 'TRIVIAL' WORK

Road Must Pay Some Men for Idleness.

Edward Flynn, executive vice president of the Burlington railroad, charged yesterday that 19 decisions just made by the National Railroad Adjustment board will add $800,000 annually to the road's expenses — to pay men for work they did not do or for "trivial" services.

Edward Flynn.

Among other items the Burlington will be required to pay two crews of five men each for moving a caboose seven miles to accommodate a conductor, Flynn said; will pay a road crew of five men an extra day's wages for moving a locomotive 800 feet and give a day's pay to a yard crew for work it didn't do.

Flynn cited several examples of awards made by the board which, when deadlocked, called in John C. Young, a Colorado judge, to act as referee. Judge Young's decisions were made in the name of the board.

Approves 19 Claims.

During his services as referee in Chicago, Judge Young decided 19 claims against the Burlington, Flynn said. The judge denied only one claim, on the ground that dates and names were erroneous, but indicated he would sustain it when the errors were corrected, Flynn said. There are 85 more claims for extra wages pending before Judge Young.

"These decisions not only require payments of large amounts of extra wages for trivial services, but to avoid penalties in the future it will be necessary for the railroad to put on a great many additional crews and yard engines," Flynn said.

He cited the case of a special express train which on Oct. 30, 1937, ended a trip at the Burlington passenger yards at 14th street in Chicago. The train carried a caboose used by the crew for its living quarters. The 14th street yard is about seven miles from the Clyde roundhouse and yards. Ordinarily, cabooses are taken to Clyde by switching engines, but in this instance the conductor and two brakemen did not want to wait an hour and a half for a switch crew.

Day's Pay for Seven Miles.

The conductor asked the engineer of the road engine, scheduled to run to Clyde, to take the caboose the seven miles. The engineer did this as an accommodation. Long afterward a claim was made for a day's extra pay for the road engine crew, and another day's pay was asked for the yard crew, which did not move the caboose. Judge Young decided the road crew was entitled to an extra day's pay and that the yard crew had been deprived of a day's work and therefore should be paid.

In a second case after a freight train had been made up at Galesburg, and the road engine attached, another car of freight turned up. The road engine was uncoupled and moved forward 400 feet to a point beyond a switch. There it stood while a switch engine put the additional freight car in place. Then the road engine moved back the 400 feet. Flynn said that for this extra movement of 800 feet, which took five minutes, Judge Young allowed the five man road crew an extra day's pay apiece.

Other Claims Allowed.

In a third case, the uncoupling of a caboose on a freight train going into a yard at Centralia, Ill., and then attaching it to a train going out of the yard cost the Burlington an extra day's pay at yard rates to a road crew.

In a fourth case, a switching crew made a mistake in placing two baggage cars in a passenger train at Casper, Wyo., the position of the two cars being reversed. While a switching crew was working at the rear of the train the road crew placed the cars in the right position. Subsequently, Flynn said, Judge Young ordered an extra day's pay for the road crew and, in addition, a day's pay for the yard crew that didn't do the work.

The ruling of the referee is final and the railroad has no recourse but to pay. The law provides that should a road refuse to comply with an award, suit may be brought against it in the courts and a judgment obtained. Further, employés have the power to strike to enforce compliance.

The National Railroad Adjustment board is composed of several divisions, each with an equal number of labor and management representatives. Should they become deadlocked over awards, they are required by law to select a referee, and if they are unable to agree on one the National Mediation board is asked to appoint the referee.

Shareholders to Decide Peter Fox Stock Dividend

Payment of a 100 per cent common stock dividend early in 1941 has been proposed by directors of the Peter Fox Brewing company, the company reported yesterday. Shareholders must first approve an increase in the company's capital stock to 250,000 shares of common stock of $5 par value. There are 122,180 shares of the present $5 par common stock outstanding. This stock was previously incorrectly described as a $10 par issue. The company has called for redemption all of its preferred shares.

New Domestic Fabrics Help Bolster Trade

BY LELAND FORRESTER.

American mills have captured most of the textile market which foreign manufacturers other than English supplied in the United States before the European war began, a survey of manufacturers, wholesalers and importers indicated yesterday.

Fabrics never before made in the United States, particularly many of those which formerly were imported from France, Italy, Germany, Holland and Czecho-Slovakia, are being duplicated successfully by domestic factories, textile men said.

At the Merchandise Mart and elsewhere in Chicago, wholesalers' samples on display include numerous American made patterns and weaves in upholstery fabrics, drapery goods and certain clothing textiles which were not being produced a year ago.

British Trade Continues.

English fabrics, including worsted suiting, tapestries, and linens, are being imported in the usual volume, along with Irish linens and fine Swiss laces shipped on British vessels, but otherwise domestic producers dominate the market, Percy Wilson, managing director of the Merchandise Mart, said.

"Today imports account for only 2 per cent of the total dollar volume of the fabrics market in this country, in contrast with 20 per cent before England clamped on the present blockade," Wilson said. "Before the world war importers supplied 40 per cent of the American textile market in dollar volume.

"The industry is being revolutionized. New patterns and colors are being presented by American manufacturers, in addition to duplicates of foreign goods which no longer are available."

Termed Unprofitable.

Clothing men said that American mills are not much interested in trying to replace the English high grade worsted woolens for suiting with a domestic product. The reason, they said, is that at the high grade import is used in only about 2 per cent of the clothing worn in America—not enough to make it profitable for big volume producers to enter the field.

Other foreign fabrics which have not been supplanted by domestic products include Fortuny prints, made in Italy by a secret process, and the finest grades of Italian brocade, used for upholstery work, according to G. L. Mittelsdorf, Chicago manager of F. Schumacker & Co., wholesaler and importer.

Illustrating the extent to which French or other foreign goods have been produced in substitute form in the United States in the last year was a display at the offices of Arthur H. Lee & Sons, Inc., distributors of imported and domestic drapery and upholstery fabrics.

Dozen Fabrics Produced.

At least a dozen of the texture weaves being sold by the company have been developed within the last year to replace imports, Humphrey A. Lee, president of the company, said. Prices and quality are comparable to those of the foreign fabrics, he said, asserting the public has given the domestic substitutes a favorable reception.

France also formerly supplied wools and silks for clothing, and produced part of the lace imported into the United States. Russia was a supplier of linen yarns, but no longer ships them in important quantities.

GLASS CONTAINER FIRMS AGREE TO FEDERAL DEMAND

Toledo, O., Nov. 27 (AP).—Defendant corporations in the government's antitrust suit against major glass container manufacturing companies acceded today to the demands of the government on the issue of free licensing of new enterprises. The case was about to go on trial in federal court.

The concession made settlement of the case out of court seem certain, officials said, altho details of the proposed institute plan remain to be worked out.

At the request of the government the case was adjourned until Monday.

DECLARE EXTRA DIVIDENDS ON 9 FIRMS' STOCKS

Westinghouse Pays Larger Amount.

Extra dividends were declared yesterday by nine more companies and increased disbursements were voted by others.

Directors of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, East Pittsburgh, Pa., voted dividends of $1 on the common and the 7 per cent participating preferred stock, bringing distributions for the year on both to $4.75, compared with $3.50 in 1939.

A. W. Robertson, chairman, reported orders booked in October amounted to $57,077,344, making the total for the first 10 months $318,363,706, highest in the company's history, against $176,896,557 in the same 1939 period.

"The company's total tax bill for the first 10 months of 1940 was $15,643,405 and is approximately equal to net income after taxes," he said. "This compares with a tax bill of $8,086,577 for the same period in 1939."

Chicago Firm with Defense Work Expands

BY AL CHASE.

Impetus from recent national defense program activities has caused the Mall Tool company of Chicago to double its plant area, A. W. Mall, president, said yesterday. The company purchased from the Republic Steel corporation the former tack manufacturing plant occupying three acres of land at South Chicago and Harper avenues and East 77th street. The price was not disclosed.

The plant comprises three buildings, one a three story unit and the others one story, containing 50,000 square feet of floor space. The Mall Tool company's present plant, across South Chicago avenue from the property just purchased, has 50,000 square feet of floor space and occupies one acre of land.

Mall said that new equipment costing $100,000 has been ordered for the buildings purchased. The company now employs 200 and expects gradually to increase this, he said.

"The Mall Tool company recently received a government order for $100,000 worth of chain saws to be used by army engineers to cut down trees for road and tank barricades," Mall said. "These saws resemble a bicycle chain with teeth on the edge.

Mall said more defense program orders are expected.

The Mall company, which makes 300 different portable power tools, was started 20 years ago.

EXPORTS OF PORK DROP TO RECORD LOW IN OCTOBER

Foreign trade of American packers last month was the second smallest for October on government records, which date back more than half a century, the department of commerce disclosed yesterday. Both exports and imports were abnormally low.

Packers shipped out only 3,834,577 pounds of pork, exclusive of lard, the smallest exports for October on record. They compared with 6,608,559 a year ago. Lard exports totaled 10,198,242 pounds, the second smallest on record, compared with 19,091,260 pounds exported during October last year.

Only 448,016 pounds of pork were imported during the month, the smallest October volume in six years. Imports of beef and veal fell to 6,020,229 pounds, the smallest in five years.

HILLMAN TELLS 'GHOST TOWNS" SURVEY RESULT

Lists Idle Factories in Middle West.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27 [Special].—A list of idle factory facilities and labor pools in "ghost towns" thruout the United States was sent today by the defense commission to 500 firms working on defense orders. The list, prepared under the direction of Sidney Hillman, labor member of the commission, included seven areas in the middle west.

Hillman did not name the towns or companies involved, but described the facilities available, giving approximate locations. He said that complete details, including blue prints and statistics on available labor supplies, would be furnished to any interested manufacturer writing him.

Lists Some of Factories.

Some of the facilities described were:

"Central middle west: Railroad repair shop with complement of machine tools, blacksmith and forging equipment. Normally employs 1,000 men; now running at 50 per cent capacity. Excellent transportation facilities.

"Group of manufacturers in large middle western city with machine tools and equipment of all description are pooling facilities, thus providing equipment not generally available except in largest sized plants.

Plan Pooling Facilities.

"Group of small shops centrally located in middle west, with variety of small tools, such as engine and turret lathes, boring mills, drill presses, milling machines, planers, and shapers; prepared to pool facilities and execute orders."

GRAIN SUPPLIES HELD TOO LOW TO MEET CONTRACTS

Reports indicating that only small quantities of actual wheat, corn, and oats are in Chicago and available for delivery on December contracts resulted in relative strength in the December futures yesterday.

Early selling of wheat futures attributed to eastern interests dropped prices about 1⅛ cents to the lowest level since Nov. 7, but buying of the December contract was persistent.

Closing trades on all grains were about the best prices of the day with wheat ¼ to ⅝ cent lower. Corn was ⅛ cent higher to ⅛ cent lower and oats ¼ to ⅝ cent higher. Soy beans closed ⅛ to ¼ cent lower.

ARMY SUPPLIES ORDERS TOP 19 MILLION IN DAY

Aurora Firm Gets Trunk Contract.

The war department yesterday announced the award of contracts totaling more than $19,725,000 for the purchase of additional equipment and supplies for the air corps, ordnance department, and the quartermaster corps.

Included was a $458,169 order to Lyon Metal Products, Inc., Aurora, Ill., for metal trunks. The Koppers company, Bartlett Hayward division, Baltimore, Md., received the largest contract of the day, an order for $9,956,000 of artillery material.

Ford Awarded Order.

Other large contracts were let to the Ford Motor company, Detroit, Mich., $1,387,500 for trucks and $625,200 for passenger cars; Jack-Heintz, Ltd., Cleveland, O., $808,785 for starter assemblies, and the Bendix Aviation corporation, Bendix Products division, South Bend, Ind., $260,100 for wheel and brake assemblies.

The army also awarded a $342,169 contract to the Consolidated Aircraft corporation, San Diego, Cal., to cover increased costs resulting from changes in specifications.

Among contracts awarded by the navy department was a $1,972,182 order for a forging press to the United Engineering and Foundry company, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Triple Parachute Output.

Officials of the Irving Air Chute company announced that production of parachutes at the company's Buffalo, N. Y., plant, which has been operating below capacity, will be tripled within the next three weeks by increasing facilities. New machinery is being installed to meet a new demand for parachutes for the United States and British governments.

The Aluminum Company of America plans to construct a new sheet and plate mill at its Alcoa, Tenn., plant for the fabrication of aluminum airplane parts, E. M. Chandler, fabricating plant superintendent, said yesterday. The new mill is expected to be completed by late 1941. The cost was not given.

END INTEREST ON SAVINGS AT NICHOLS' BANK

Savings depositors of the First National Bank of Englewood were notified yesterday that, effective Jan. 1, 1941, interest payments on savings would be discontinued.

John M. [100 Per Cent] Nichols, president, said in a statement mailed to 3,000 depositors that the step was made necessary by the call for redemption of $2,800,000 of 3¾ per cent United States treasury bonds held by the bank. The bonds are to be paid off March 15, 1941.

Nichols said other suitable investments for the bank's funds that would yield an adequate return are not available.

Nichols said that savings depositors who wished to leave their accounts with the bank would be required to carry the cost of the Federal Deposit Insurance assessment that is levied on the bank.

106 TVA UTILITIES NET 4 MILLIONS FOR FISCAL YEAR

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 27 [Special].—Tennessee Valley authority today announced that 106 municipally owned electric distribution systems had combined net income of $4,023,000 in the last fiscal year after paying $1,638,000 in taxes.

Of this amount the four large cities in the TVA area—Knoxville, Memphis, Nashville, and Chattanooga—showed net income of $2,751,000, after taxes. Of these cities only Knoxville pays any tax to either county or state governments. Knoxville, with gross revenue of $2,312,000, paid state, city, and county taxes amounting to $277,000.

The TVA report failed to show the amount of revenue state and county governments would have collected from these utilities had they been subject to the same taxation levied on them under their former private ownership.

Treasury Calls for 107 Millions of Its Deposits

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Running low on its available funds, the treasury today called upon the federal reserve banks to furnish it with $107,200,000 on deposit in various federal reserve districts.

The transaction calls for transfer of the treasury's deposit credits from depositories within the districts to the credit of the treasurer of the United States on the books of the federal reserve banks.

New Rail Chief

WILLIAM WHITE.

WILLIAM WHITE HEADS EASTERN RAILROAD AT 43

New York, Nov. 27 (AP).—William White, who started as a clerk with the Erie railroad in 1913, became one of the youngest railroad presidents in the country today when he was elected executive head of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western.

White, who is 43, has climbed rapidly. He moves to the top as successor to John M. Davis, who resigned at 69 to become chairman of the board of the Lackawanna.

Since 1938 White has been vice president and general manager of the Virginian railway, with headquarters at Norfolk. He will take over his new duties Jan. 1.

Daniel Willard, near the age of 80, was reëlected president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad after the directors had turned down his suggestion that he retire to make way for a younger man.

Willard became president in 1910 time. He became president in 1910 and now holds the record for the longest term of service as head of the B. & O., oldest steam railroad in the country.

BRITISH REFUSE TO LIFT BLOCKADE ON FRENCH WINE

New York, Nov. 27 [Special].—With supplies of French wines and liquors here declining to the point where they will be completely off the market within a few months, importers have made vain attempts to obtain blanket approval of British authorities for the passage of shipments thru the British blockade, it was learned today.

Britain has permitted the movement of some goods stored in Portugal and on which title had passed to American owners before the collapse of France, but has not permitted new shipments.

According to one importer, S. Jerome Dobrow, secretary of Vintage Wines, Inc., only six to eight weeks' supply of imported champagnes will remain in this country after the holiday buying. He estimated that only 65,000 gallons of champagne, the equivalent of 25,000 cases, will remain in bonded warehouses in January.

Other importers said the British blockade is especially effective against merchandise destined for the United States, because Lisbon is the only European port open to American flag boats. These vessels refuse to take any cargo there unless the appropriate British certificates have been granted.

JONES PLEDGES NEW FINANCIAL AID TO CHINESE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Jesse H. Jones, federal loan administrator, today disclosed that China will receive additional financial aid in the near future and stated that "as long as the Chinese are in trouble, we want to help them."

He declined to disclose terms of the future financial help for China, presumably thru the Export-Import bank and said he had "no idea" as to the amount.

China already has obtained from the United States about $70,000,000, consisting of $25,000,000 for wood oil exports, $20,000,000 on tin, and $25,000,000 on tungsten shipments to this country.

Unofficially, it is reported the Chinese government is seeking a $100,000,000 credit in this country for the purchase of essential materials.

STOCKS TUMBLE 1 TO 3 POINTS IN FASTER TRADING

Market Analysts Differ on Cause of Break.

SEAT AT 41 YEAR LOW

New York, Nov. 27 [Special].—A membership on the New York Stock exchange was sold today for $33,000, the lowest price since 1899, when a seat was sold at $29,500. On Monday a seat sold for $34,000, which was lowest since 1914. The highest price for which a seat sold this year was $59,000. In 1929 an all-time peak of $625,000 was reached.

New York, Nov. 27 (AP).—The stock market broke out of its lethargy of the last few days with a decisive slump today.

Losses of 1 to 3 points were numerous at the finish, particularly in steels, aircrafts, and miscellaneous industrials. This was the sharpest setback since the post-election selling wave of Nov. 6.

Brokerage circles said the selling seemed to reflect disappointment over the market's inability to advance lately.

Some market analysts, however, said it resulted from fresh worries over possible new repercussions upon the United States from the world crisis.

Earnings reports and a flood of year end dividend announcements had little effect marketwise. Great Northern preferred dropped 3½ points after declaration of a 50 cent dividend, first since the $2 payment in 1937.

Among stocks down 2 to 3 points were United States Steel, Bethlehem, Douglas, Westinghouse Electric, American Can, Allied Chemical, and Chrysler.

Chicago Stocks.

Prices continued on the downgrade yesterday on the Chicago Stock exchange, with 75 issues declining, 15 advancing, and 28 closing unchanged. Turnover rose to 32,000 shares from 19,000 Tuesday.

South Bend Lathe and Peter Fox Brewing, two of the volume leaders, reached 1940 peaks at 32¾ and 25½, respectively, up 1¾ and 2½ points. Northwest Engineering also established a record for the year at 22½, rising 1¾ points.

New York Bonds.

New York, Nov. 27 (AP).—United States government obligations were strong in the face of a bond market selling movement today. Small turnover treasury loans showed gains ranging from 1 32d to 2 2-32d points.

A handful of top flight corporate liens followed the governments. Prices of virtually all other groups were lower.

Demand for most foreign loans was timid and losses outnumbered gains by a wide margin.

Bank Stocks.

American National shares advanced 5 points yesterday in Chicago bank stock trading. La Salle National declined 2 points, City National fell a point, and Continental Illinois half a point.

UNITED AIR LINES PLANS $910,000 IMPROVEMENTS

Chicago Airport Facilities to Be Expanded.

United Air Lines plans to spend $910,000 during the next few months in improving its Chicago facilities, W. A. Patterson, president, said yesterday. He spoke at a luncheon of the Chicago Association of Commerce called to emphasize the importance to Chicago of United's activities. The company is the only major air line maintaining headquarters here.

W. A. Patterson.

Patterson said United's investment in Chicago is about $600,000, and when the contemplated improvements are completed the total will be about $1,500,000. He explained the company plans to spend $410,000 for the construction of an addition to its office building and is ready to invest $500,000 in additional hangar facilities.

Maps Company's Policy.

"It is the policy of United Air Lines to recognize that in order to preserve our business under private enterprise all building construction and improvements must be financed by our company," Patterson stated. "Airports represent a logical federal or municipal investment because they are available to all—military, private and transport flying. Building improvements on these airports, in our opinion, represent an obligation of our company."

Indicating the importance of United operations to Chicago airport, Patterson said that the company has about $13,000,000 worth of airplanes in operation, and that by 1946 it expects to have between 40 and 50 million dollars' worth in use.

Forecasts Big Expansion.

The company's planes fly about 50,000 hours a month and by 1946 are expected to fly 500,000 miles a month.

In November, 1939, United had 2,000 employés; now has 3,100, and by 1945, barring unforeseen developments which may retard progress, expects to have 8,000, Patterson said.

"This should be evidence of the importance which will center on the Chicago airport in the future," Patterson said.

Court Denies Injunction Against Utility Revision

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 27 (AP).—Circuit Judge Casper Platt of Danville ruled today that a recapitalization proposal by the Illinois-Iowa Power company was "in proper and legal order" in dismissing an injunction suit filed by a group of preferred stockholders.

UNITED AIR LINES PLANS $910,000 IMPROVEMENTS

Chicago Airport Facilities to Be Expanded.

United Air Lines plans to spend $910,000 during the next few months in improving its Chicago facilities, W. A. Patterson, president, said yesterday. He spoke at a luncheon of the Chicago Association of Commerce called to emphasize the importance to Chicago of United's activities. The company is the only major air line maintaining headquarters here.

W. A. Patterson.

Patterson said United's investment in Chicago is about $600,000, and when the contemplated improvements are completed the total will be about $1,500,000. He explained the company plans to spend $410,000 for the construction of an addition to its office building and is ready to invest $500,000 in additional hangar facilities.

Maps Company's Policy.

"It is the policy of United Air Lines to recognize that in order to preserve our business under private enterprise all building construction and improvements must be financed by our company," Patterson stated. "Airports represent a logical federal or municipal investment because they are available to all—military, private and transport flying. Building improvements on these airports, in our opinion, represent an obligation of our company."

Indicating the importance of United operations to Chicago airport, Patterson said that the company has about $13,000,000 worth of airplanes in operation, and that by 1946 it expects to have between 40 and 50 million dollars' worth in use.

Forecasts Big Expansion.

The company's planes fly about 50,000 hours a month and by 1946 are expected to fly 500,000 miles a month.

In November, 1939, United had 2,000 employés; now has 3,100, and by 1945, barring unforeseen developments which may retard progress, expects to have 8,000, Patterson said.

"This should be evidence of the importance which will center on the Chicago airport in the future," Patterson said.

Court Denies Injunction Against Utility Revision

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 27 (AP).—Circuit Judge Casper Platt of Danville ruled today that a recapitalization proposal by the Illinois-Iowa Power company was "in proper and legal order" in dismissing an injunction suit filed by a group of preferred stockholders.
